Introduction

In the Name of Allāh, The Most-Merciful (to His creation), the Ever-Merciful (to His believing servants).

Indeed, all praises be to Allāh, we praise Him, and we seek His assistance, and we ask b for His forgiveness. And we seek refuge with Allāh from the evil of ourselves and the evils of our actions.

Whoever Allāh guides, there is no misguider for him, and whoever Allāh misguides, there is no guider for him. And I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship in truth except Allāh, alone with no partner, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His worshipping-slave and Messenger.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ تَقَاتِهِ وَلَا تَمُوتُنَّ إِلَّا وَأَنتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ

O you who believe! Fear Allah (by doing all that He has ordered and by abstaining from all that He has forbidden) as He should be feared. [Obey Him, be thankful to Him, and remember Him always], and die not except in a state of Islam (as Muslims) with complete submission to Allah. – 3:101

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَخَلَقَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَبَثَّ مِنْهُمَا رِجَالًا كَثِيرًا وَنِسَاءً وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي تَسَاءَلُونَ بِهِ وَالْأَرْحَامَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيبًا

O mankind! Be dutiful to your Lord, Who created you from a single person (Adam), and from him (Adam) He created his wife [Hawwa (Eve)], and from them both He created many men and women and fear Allah through Whom you demand your mutual (rights), and (do not cut the relations of) the wombs (kinship). Surely, Allah is Ever an All-Watcher over you. – 4:1

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ ۗ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا

O you who believe! Keep your duty to Allah and fear Him, and speak (always) the truth. He will direct you to do righteous good deeds and will forgive you your sins. And whosoever obeys Allah and His Messenger (SAW) he has indeed achieved a great achievement (i.e. he will be saved from the Hell-fire and made to enter Paradise). –

To proceed:

Know, O reader – may Allāh have mercy on you and us – that the worldly life is a fleeting lie, a deceptive enjoyment and a bridge to the true eternal life. It is an arena of battle and trial, not a permanent settlement. Due to its glitter, many of the men and women have disgraced themselves by attaching to its temporal pleasures, falling into a mindless slumber, intoxicated upon their desires while the herald of death passes by them every day.

Allāh, the Most High, said:

وَأَقْتَرَبَ الْوَعْدُ الْحَقُّ فَإِذَا هِيَ شُخْصَةٌ أَبْصَرُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُؤْيَلْنَا قَدْ كُنَّا فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هَذَا بَلْ كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ

And the true promise (Day of Resurrection) shall draw near (of fulfillment). Then (when mankind is resurrected from their graves), you shall see the eyes of the disbelievers fixedly stare in horror. (They will say): "Woe to us! We were indeed heedless of this; nay, but we were Zalimun (polytheists and wrong-doers, etc.)." – 21:97

Until when shall the slave remain in distraction? Indeed, the promise of the Most High is ever near, and the first stage of His promise is the bitter truth of death and what has been related regarding the grave. Death does not take permission from any soul to seize it after the Prophets; it severs the worldly ties, snatches the soul, and brings an end to actions upon the limbs, affirmation upon the tongue, and the chance to believe in the chambers of the heart. Know, - may Allāh safeguard you and us – that the grave is a place of horror and terror where the only companion to you is your deeds, either honourable and righteous, or ugly and evil. It is an obligation upon the Muslim to know and understand what he will be trialled with in the grave, so that he may pass safely to his resting place before the Day of Resurrection. It is an obligation upon the Muslim to wake up from the heedlessness that has shrouded this Ummah and flee from all sins and constantly seek forgiveness from their Master before they are lowered into the tight, dark, narrow confinement of the grave.

Know, my brothers, that salvation is not achieved except with knowledge of what Allāh has prescribed upon us and what He has forbidden us from. This is known by the two revelations and understood by the intellects. Understand, likewise, that knowledge precedes action and action does not please the Lord except by knowledge.

al-Imām Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Wahhāb, may Allāh have mercy on him, said in his famous treatise ‘Uṣūl aṭh-Thalāṭhah’:

: وَقَالَ الْبُخَارِيُّ – رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى – : بَابُ : الْعِلْمُ قَبْلَ الْقَوْلِ وَالْعَمَلِ ؛ وَالذَّلِيلُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى

‘And al-Bukhārī, may Allāh, High be He, have mercy on him, said: ‘Chapter: Knowledge before speech and action, and the evidence is His statement, High be He:

فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنْبِكَ

So (be firm in your) knowledge (O Muḥammad) that none has the right to be worshipped except Allāh (alone). And seek forgiveness for your shortcoming - 47:19

فَبَدَأَ بِالْعِلْمِ (قَبْلَ الْقَوْلِ وَالْعَمَلِ)

So, he began with knowledge before speech and action’

Allāh, the Most High, said:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ تَفَسَّحُوا فِي الْمَجَالِسِ فَافْسَحُوا يَفْسَحِ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ وَإِذَا قِيلَ أَنْشُرُوا فَانْشُرُوا يَرْفَعِ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجَاتٍ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ

O you who believe, when you are told to make space in the gatherings (for others), then make space, Allāh will make space for you (in your homes and provision in Paradise). And when you are told to arise (towards goodness, the prayer, or battle), then depart. Allāh will raise those who believe among you (for their obedience to the Messenger) and those given knowledge by degrees (over others). And Allāh is all-aware of whatever you do. – 58:11

Ibn Abī Ḥātim رحمه الله narrated in his Tafsīr from Ibn Mas‘ūd رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ that he said:

إِذَا سَمِعْتَ اللَّهَ يَقُولُ: يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا فَأَرْعَاهَا سَمْعَكَ فَإِنَّهُ خَيْرٌ يَأْمُرُهُ أَوْ شَرٌّ يَنْهَى عَنْهُ

“When you have heard Allāh saying: ‘O you who believe’, lend it your hearing, for indeed it is (either) good He orders (you with) it, or evil He is forbidding from.”¹

Allāh, the Most High, said:

أَمَنْ هُوَ قُنِيتَ ءَانَاءَ اللَّيْلِ سَاجِدًا وَقَائِمًا يَحْذَرُ آلَ ءَاخِرَةٍ وَيَرْجُوا رَحْمَةَ رَبِّهِ قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ إِنَّمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ

Is one who is obedient to Allah, prostrating himself or standing (in prayer) during the hours of the night, fearing the Hereafter and hoping for the Mercy of his Lord (like one who disbelieves)? Say: "Are those who know equal to those who know not?" It is only men of understanding who will remember (i.e. get a lesson from Allah's Signs and Verses). – 39:9

And He said:

فَتَعَلَىٰ اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ وَلَا تَعْجَلْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُقْضَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَحْيُهُ وَقُلْ رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا

Then High above all be Allah, the True King. And be not in haste (O Muhammad SAW) with the Quran before its revelation is completed to you, and say: "My Lord! Increase me in knowledge." – 20:114

And He said:

إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهَ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الْعُلَمَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ غَفُورٌ

It is only those who have knowledge among His slaves that fear Allah. Verily, Allah is All-Mighty, Oft-Forgiving. – 35:28

The Prophet ﷺ said:

ومن سلك طريقا يلتمس فيه علما، سهل الله له به طريقا إلى الجنة

“And whoever pursued a path, seeking in it knowledge, Allāh makes easy for him with it a path to al-Jannah”²

al-Lālikāʾī رحمه الله narrated with his chain of narration to Shādh ibn Yaḥyā رحمه الله that he said:

«لَيْسَ طَرِيقٌ أَقْصَدَ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ طَرِيقِ مَنْ سَلَكَ الْأَثَارَ»

“There is not a path more direct to al-Jannah from the path of who treads (the path and seeks) the ʿĀṭhār”³

And in this regard, it is important to mention that there is no salvation except by holding firm to the Book of Allāh and the Sunnah of His Messenger ﷺ, and there is no salvation found in anything besides these two: neither in the intellects nor in the philosophy and sophistry of Aristotle as the ʿAshʿāʿirah and Muʿtazilah claim; nor in democracy and selling our religion for Western ideologies and standards as the 'Ikhwāniyyah and Quṭbiyyah and Surūriyyah and their likes claim; nor in the deposition of the rulers as the Khawārij claim. It is known that they, and the various sects and factions, use the religion as a mask for their true intentions which are gaining authority, power, and wealth, for the rulers never prevented them from the prayer and fasting and the various outward actions of Islām.

² Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2699

³ Sharḥ Uṣūl Iʿtiqād Ahl al-Sunnah wal-Jamāʿah 1/98

Moreover, concerning interacting with the people of innovation then relating the affair of 'Amīr al-Mu'minīn 'Al-Fārūq 'Umar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb al-'Adawī رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ and Abū Ja'far Aḥmad bin 'Awnillāh رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ will be sufficient for us 'in shā' Allāh:

Al-Lālikā'i reports with his sanad to Sulaymān bin Yasār that:⁴

'A man from Banī Ghunaym who was called Subaygh bin 'Asal approached Madīnah and he used to have books. So he began to ask about the mutashābih (unclear) from the Qur'ān. This reached 'Umar, and so he went to him and had prepared for him some branches (tied together) from the date-palm tree. Then when he entered upon him, he said, "Who are you?" He said, "I am Abd Allāh bin Subaygh". 'Umar said, "And I am 'Abd Allāh (the Servant of Allāh), 'Umar". And then he got close to him and began to strike him with those combined branches, and he did not stop beating him until he broke his head open and blood was flowing upon his face. So he said, "Enough, O Amīr al-Mu'minīn, for by Allāh, that which I found on my head has gone"'

Abū 'Abd Allāh Muḥammad bin Aḥmad bin Mufarraḥ said:⁵

'Abū Ja'far Aḥmad bin 'Awnillāh (d. 378H) would show rejection against the People and Innovation and call them to account, showing extreme harshness against them, utterly humiliating them. He would always seek to pick out their faults, rushing to damage them, vehemently oppressive against them, chasing them away whenever he was able to, not allowing them to remain. And every one of them (Ahl al-Bid'ah) used to be frightened of him, and would seek to hide and protect himself from him. He would never compromise with a single one of them, and nor would he allow any of them to remain safe. And if he came across evil and witnessed any deviation from the Sunnah, he would oppose it and would disgrace and humiliate (its perpetrator). And he would announce the affair of this person and declare his own disownment of him by mentioning the evil of such a one in the various public gatherings. And he would incite others against him such that he either destroyed him or caused him to abandon his evil and repugnant madhhab and his evil doctrine. And he would never cease to remain upon this habit, making Jihād therein, seeking the Face of Allāh, up until he met Allāh.’

⁴ Sharḥ 'Usūl al-I'tiqād (no. 1137).

Now, continuing on from this Allāh, the Most High, said:

وَأَعْتَصِمُوا بِحَبْلِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا وَاذْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ كُنْتُمْ أَعْدَاءً فَأَلَّفَ بَيْنَ قُلُوبِكُمْ فَأَصْبَحْتُمْ بِنِعْمَتِهِ إِخْوًا وَكُنْتُمْ عَلَى شَفَا حُفْرَةٍ مِنَ النَّارِ فَأَنْقَذَكُمْ مِنْهَا كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ آيَاتِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ

And hold fast, all of you together, to the Rope of Allah (i.e. this Quran), and be not divided among yourselves, and remember Allah’s Favour on you, for you were enemies one to another but He joined your hearts together, so that, by His Grace, you became brethren (in Islamic Faith), and you were on the brink of a pit of Fire, and He saved you from it. Thus Allah makes His Ayat (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.,) clear to you, that you may be guided. – 3:103

And He said:

فَاسْتَمْسِكْ بِالَّذِي أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ إِنَّكَ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

So hold you (O Muhammad SAW) fast to that which is inspired in you. Verily, you are on a Straight Path. – 43:43

And He said:

فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِاللهِ وَأَعْتَصَمُوا بِهِ فَسَيُدْخِلُهُمْ فِي رَحْمَةٍ مِنْهُ وَفَضْلٍ وَيَهْدِيهِمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمًا

So, as for those who believed in Allah and held fast to Him, He will admit them to His Mercy and Grace (i.e. Paradise), and guide them to Himself by a Straight Path. – 4:175

And He said:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأُولَى الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنْ تَنَازَعْتُمْ فِي شَيْءٍ فَرُدُّوهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا

O you who have believed, obey Allāh and obey the Messenger and those in authority over you. And if you disagree among yourselves over anything then refer it back to Allāh and the Messenger if you truly believe in Allāh and the Last Day. That is better (conduct) and (leads to) the most excellent outcome. – 4:59

Abū Hurayrah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said:

اِفْتَرَقَتْ [١٩٨] اَلْيَهُودُ عَلَى اِحْدَى اَوْ ثِنْتَيْنِ وَسَبْعِينَ فِرْقَةً، وَتَفَرَّقَتِ النَّصَارَى عَلَى اِحْدَى اَوْ ثِنْتَيْنِ وَسَبْعِينَ فِرْقَةً، « وَتَفْتَرِقُ اُمَّتِي عَلَى ثَلَاثٍ وَسَبْعِينَ فِرْقَةً

“The Jews split upon 71 sects, and the Christians split upon 72 sects, and (it is decreed that) my nation splits upon 73 sects.”⁶

‘Uqbah ibn ‘Āmir رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ narrated that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying:

لَا تَزَالُ عِصَابَةٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي يُقَاتِلُونَ عَلَى أَمْرِ اللَّهِ، قَاهِرِينَ لِعَدُوِّهِمْ، لَا يَضُرُّهُمْ مَنْ خَالَفَهُمْ، حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ، وَهُمْ عَلَى ذَلِكَ

“A group of my nation will not cease to be, fighting upon the affair of Allāh, overcoming to their enemies, (those) who oppose them do not harm them until the Hour comes to them, and they are upon that.”⁷

Mu‘āwiyah ibn Abī Sufyān رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ stood among the people⁸ and narrated, saying:

أَلَا إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَامَ فِينَا فَقَالَ: " أَلَا إِنَّ مَنْ قَبْلَكُمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ افْتَرَقُوا عَلَى ثِنْتَيْنِ وَسَبْعِينَ مِلَّةً، وَإِنَّ هَذِهِ الْمِلَّةَ سَتَفْتَرِقُ عَلَى ثَلَاثٍ وَسَبْعِينَ: ثِنْتَانِ وَسَبْعُونَ فِي النَّارِ، وَوَاحِدَةٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، وَهِيَ الْجَمَاعَةُ «رَأَى ابْنُ يَحْيَى، وَعَمَرُو فِي حَدِيثَيْهِمَا» وَإِنَّهُ سَيَخْرُجُ مِنْ أُمَّتِي أَقْوَامٌ تَجَارَى بِهِمْ تِلْكَ الْأَهْوَاءُ، كَمَا يَتَجَارَى الْكَلْبُ لِصَاحِبِهِ " وَقَالَ عَمَرُو: «الْكَلْبُ بِصَاحِبِهِ لَا يَبْقَى مِنْهُ عِرْقٌ وَلَا مَفْصِلٌ إِلَّا دَخَلَهُ

“Truly the Messenger of Allāh ṣallā Allāhu ‘alayhi wa-sallam stood among us, so he said: ‘Truly those before you from the People of the Book split upon seventy-two religions, and indeed this religion will split upon seventy-three: seventy-two in the Fire, and one in al-Jannah, and it is al-Jamā‘ah.’ {Ibn Yaḥyā and ‘Amr increased in both of their ḥadīths} And there will emerge among my Ummah people who will be dominated by those whims and desires as rabies dominates its victim.” And ‘Amr said: “Rabies does not leave any vein or joint of its victim but it enters it.”⁹

It is clear from these narrations that the nation of Muḥammad will not stick firm to the Book and the Sunnah except a minority from it, and they are al-Firqah an-Nājiyah (the Saved Sect) and aṭ-Ṭā’ifah al-Manṣūrah (the Victorious Group), and they are the Salafīs, Aṣḥāb al-Ḥadīth.

⁷ Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 1924 – This ḥadīth has come in many various wordings and chains of narrations, raising it to being Mutawātir and no doubt authentic

⁹ Sunan Abī Dāwūd 4597

وَأَمَّا هَذِهِ الطَّائِفَةُ فَقَالَ الْبُخَارِيُّ هُمْ أَهْلُ الْعِلْمِ وَقَالَ أَحْمَدُ بْنُ حَنْبَلٍ إِنْ لَمْ يَكُونُوا أَهْلَ الْحَدِيثِ فَلَا أَدْرِي مَنْ هُمْ قَالَ الْقَاضِي عِيَّاضٌ إِنَّمَا أَرَادَ أَحْمَدُ أَهْلَ السُّنَّةِ وَالْجَمَاعَةِ وَمَنْ يَعْتَقِدُ مَذْهَبَ أَهْلِ الْحَدِيثِ قُلْتُ وَيَحْتَمِلُ أَنَّ هَذِهِ الطَّائِفَةَ مُفَرَّقَةٌ بَيْنَ أَنْوَاعِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْهُمْ شُجْعَانٌ مُقَاتِلُونَ وَمِنْهُمْ فُقَهَاءٌ وَمِنْهُمْ مُحَدِّثُونَ وَمِنْهُمْ زُهَادٌ وَأَمْرُونَ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَنَاهُونَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَمِنْهُمْ أَهْلُ أَنْوَاعٍ أُخْرَى مِنَ الْخَيْرِ وَلَا يَلَزَمُ أَنْ يَكُونُوا مُجْتَمِعِينَ بَلْ قَدْ يَكُونُونَ مُتَفَرِّقِينَ فِي أَقْطَارِ الْأَرْضِ وَفِي هَذَا الْحَدِيثِ مُعْجَزَةٌ ظَاهِرَةٌ فَإِنَّ هَذَا الْوَصْفَ مَا زَالَ بِحَمْدِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى مِنْ زَمَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى الْآنَ وَلَا يَزَالُ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ الْمَذْكُورُ فِي الْحَدِيثِ

“And as for this Ṭāʾifah (group), then al-Bukhārī said: They are the people of knowledge. And Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal said: If they are not Ahl al-Ḥadīth (the people of the Ḥadīth) then I do not who they are. al-Qāḍī ʿIyād said: Indeed what Aḥmad intended was Ahl as-Sunnah wal-Jamāʿah (the people of the Sunnah and the congregation) and whoever believes the Madhhab (doctrine) of Ahl al-Ḥadīth. I said: And it carries (in meaning) that this Ṭāʾifah is separated between types of Believers; Among them are courageous warriors, and from them jurists, and from them Muḥaddithūn (scholars of Ḥadīth), and from them ascetics, and enjoinders with good and forbidders from vice (and all that is immoral and forbidden), and from them are other types from good. And it is not necessary that they be gathered (and assembled in one place), rather they could be separated in the regions of the Earth. And in this ḥadīth is an apparent miracle, for indeed this description has not ceased - by the praise of Allāh, High be He -, from the age of the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ to now, and it will not cease until the affair of Allāh comes mentioned in the ḥadīth.”¹⁰

Thus, it should be clear that protecting one’s intellect from such innovated pathways to the Fire is imperative in seeking the Abode of the Believers.

Know, O reader – may Allāh honour you – that al-Jannah is not cheap. Its entry is not reachable by any slave through his deeds alone, not even Abū al-Qāsim Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd Allāh al-Qurashī ﷺ, except by the Mercy of Allāh, High be He. In the pursuit for His Mercy there must be struggle and strife against one’s self and efforts must be exerted by performing relentless righteous actions, coupling sincerity to Allāh and following the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. Reflect upon the ḥadīth of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, O servants of Allāh:

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ بْنُ قَعْنَبٍ. حَدَّثَنَا حَمَادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ ثَابِتٍ وَحَمِيدٍ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ. قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "حَفَّتِ الْجَنَّةُ بِالْمَكَارِهِ. وَحَفَّتِ النَّارُ بِالشَّهَوَاتِ".

ʿAbd Allāh ibn Maslamah ibn Qaʿnab narrated to us, (he said): Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated to us, from Ṭhābit, and Ḥamīd, from ʿAnas ibn Mālik, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

¹⁰ Sharḥ Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 13/66

عليه وسلم said: "al-Jannah is surrounded by the disliked (and difficult) actions, and the Fire is surrounded by the desires."¹¹

Shaykh Aḥmad al-Najmī (رحمه الله) said:

“Actions are not a cause for Paradise, but they are a cause of acquiring [Allāh’s] mercy by which a servant enters Paradise.”¹²

Shaykh al-Islām Ibn al-Qayyim al-Jawziyyah, may Allāh have mercy on him, said concerning al-Jannah:

وكيف يُقدَّر قدر دارٍ غرسها الله بيده، وجعلها مقرًّا لأحبابه، وملأها من كرامته ورحمته ورضوانه، ووصف نعيمها بالفوز العظيم، وملكها بالملك الكبير، وأودعها جميع الخير بحذافيره، وطهرها من كل عيب وآفة ونقص

“And how could the worth of an abode be reckoned (when) Allāh planted it with His Hand, and made it a dwelling for His beloved-ones, and filled it from His Honour, and His Mercy, and His Pleasure, and described its bliss as ‘the great success’, and its dominion with ‘the great kingdom’, and deposited (in) it all of goodness wholly, and purified it from every fault and blight and deficiency.”¹³

How can the abode of loss, hardship and grief, the prison of the Believers, ever compare to the abode of bliss, honour and everlasting joy?! It is strange to see a person give preference to a temporal life of 60 years, 70 years, 80 years, in which he only faces troubles and pains from the moment he entered the world to the moment his soul is seized, while that which Allāh has prepared does not decay. In reality, it is mere heedlessness and ignorance that leads the people to the intoxicated state they are seen in today, and our Salaf were unlike this.

And likewise, just as we long for the Gardens of Bliss and to be free from the troubles of the world we must equally be terrified by the Fire and what Allāh has prepared for its companions. A single dip in the Fire will cause the most luxurious man of the worldly life to forget all of the pleasures he indulged in, so how about being burnt by the Fire, and tortured by its keepers, and melted by its heat for eternity?!

Allāh, the Most High, said:

فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَفْعَلُوا وَلَنْ تَفْعَلُوا فَاتَّقُوا النَّارَ الَّتِي وَقُودُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْحِجَارَةُ أُعِدَّتْ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

¹¹ Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim 2822, Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 6487

¹² Al-Fawā'id al-Manthūrah (p. 344). – Translated by Shaykh 'Abū Iyād <https://x.com/AbuIyaadSP/status/2068802573285425349>

¹³ 'Hādī al-'Arwāḥ ilā Bilād al-'Afrāḥ' 2/597

But if you do not (bring a chapter of its like)—and you will never be able to do so (in the future)—then (declare your belief in Allāh, His Messenger and His Book and thereby) fear the Fire whose fuel is men and stones, (which is already created and) prepared for the disbelievers (in Allāh and His messengers). – 2:24

And He said:

وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ وَالْكُفَّارَ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا هِيَ حَسْبُهُمْ وَلَعْنَهُمُ اللَّهُ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيمٌ

Allah has promised the hypocrites; men and women, and the disbelievers, the Fire of Hell, therein shall they abide. It will suffice them. Allah has cursed them and for them is the lasting torment. – 9:68

And He said:

فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ شَفَعُوا فِي النَّارِ لَهُمْ فِيهَا زَفِيرٌ وَشَهِيقٌ، خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا مَا دَامَتِ السَّمُوتُ وَالْأَرْضُ إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ رَبُّكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ فَعَّالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيدُ

As for those who are wretched, they will be in the Fire, sighing in a high and low tone. They will dwell therein for all the time that the heavens and the earth endure, except as your Lord wills. Verily, your Lord is the doer of what He wills. – 11:106-107

Surely, this is a torment that has no relief from it, and none are able to withstand it. So, take to seeking the forgiveness of your Lord, O servants of Allāh, for your Lord is ever Forgiving and Merciful for whoever beseeches Him and He indeed loves to forgive and show mercy. There is no safety in the Hereafter besides acting upon what I have informed you of, so take heed, may Allāh have mercy on you and us.

And may Allāh send blessings and peace upon the Final Prophet and upon his Companions and his family and those who follow them until the establishment of the Hour.

His Praises

قال يحيى بن عبد الحميد الحماني: أولاد بن أبي شيبه من أهل العلم كانوا يزاحموننا عند كل محدث

Yaḥyā ibn ʿAbd al-Ḥamīd al-Ḥamānī said: “The children of Ibn Abī Shāybah are from the people of knowledge; they used to crowd us with every (gathering of a) Muḥaddith.”

وقال أحمد بن حنبل: أبو بكر صدوق هو أحب إلي من أخيه عثمان

Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal said: “Abū Bakr is truthful, he is more beloved to me than his brother ʿUṭhmān.”

وقال أحمد بن عبد الله العجلي: كان أبو بكر ثقة حافظاً للحديث

And Aḥmad ibn ʿAbd Allāh al-ʿIjlī said: “Abū Bakr was trustworthy (in terms of narration), a memoriser of the ḥadīth.”

وقال عمرو بن علي الفلاس: ما رأيت أحداً أحفظ من أبي بكر بن أبي شيبه قدم علينا مع علي بن المديني فسرد للشيباني أربعمئة حديث حفظاً وقام

And ʿAmr ibn ʿAlī al-Fallās said: “I have not seen anyone stronger in memorisation from Abī Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah. He came upon us with ʿAlī ibn al-Madīnī, so he narrated to ash-Shaybānī 400 ḥadīths (from) memory, and (then) stood.”

وقال الإمام أبو عبيد: انتهى الحديث إلى أربعة فأبو بكر بن أبي شيبه أسردهم له وأحمد بن حنبل أفقهم فيه ويحيى بن معين أجمعهم له وعلي بن المديني أعلمهم به

And al-ʿImām Abū ʿUbayd said: “The (mastery in) ḥadīth culminated to 4: So, Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah is the quickest in narrating of them for it, and Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal is the most deeply comprehensive in knowledge of them regarding it, and Yaḥyā ibn Maʿīn is the most comprehensive in gathering of them for it, and ʿAlī ibn al-Madīnī is the most knowledgable of them with it.”

قال محمد بن عمر بن العلاء الجرجاني: سمعت أبا بكر بن أبي شيبه وأنا معه في جبانة كندة فقلت: له يا أبا بكر سمعت من شريك وأنت ابن كم؟ قال: وأنا ابن أربع عشرة سنة وأنا يومئذ أحفظ للحديث مني اليوم.

قلت: صدق والله وأين حفظ المراهق من حفظ من هو في عشر الثمانين؟

قال الجرجاني: فسألت يحيى بن معين عن سماع أبي بكر بن أبي شيبه من شريك فقال: أبو بكر عندنا صدوق وما يحمله أن يقول: وجدت في كتاب أبي بخطه. وقال: وحدثت عن روح بن عباد بحديث الدجال وكنا نظنه

سمعه من أبي هشام الرفاعي

Muḥammad ibn ‘Umar al-‘Alā’ al-Jarjānī said: “I heard Abā Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah and I was with him in the cemetery of Kindah, so I said to him: ‘O Abā Bakr, you heard from Shārik and you were the son of how many (years old)?’ He said: ‘And I was a son of 14 years, and I was on that day more stronger in memorisation for the ḥadīth from me today.’” I said: “He spoke truthfully, by Allāh, and where is the memorisation of the adolescent from the memorisaiton (of) who is in the decade of the 80 (in age).”

al-Jarjānī said: “So I asked Yaḥyā ibn Ma‘īn about the hearing of Abī Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah from Shārik, so he said: ‘Abū Bakr with us is truthful and what would compel him that he says: ‘I found in the book of my father with his handwriting?’” And he said: ‘And he narrated from Rawḥ ibn ‘Ubādah with the ḥadīth of ad-Dajjāl, and we used to assume (that) he heard it from Abī Hishām ar-Rifā‘ī.”

قال عبدان الأهوازي: كان أبو بكر يقعد عند الأستوانة وأخوه ومشكدانة وعبد الله بن البراد وغيرهم كلهم

سكوت إلا أبا بكر فإنه يهدر

‘Abdān al-‘Ahwāzī said: “Abū Bakr used to sit by the column, and his brother, and Mushkadānah, and ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Barrād and other than them, all of them, (were) silent except Abā Bakr, for indeed he (used to be the one who) shouts (in pouring forth knowledge).”

قال ابن عدي: هي الأستوانة التي يجلس إليها ابن عقدة. فقال لي ابن عقدة هذه هي أستوانة عبد الله بن

مسعود جلس إليها بعده علقمة وبعده إبراهيم وبعده منصور وبعده سفيان الثوري وبعده وكيع وبعده أبو

بكر بن أبي شيبه وبعده مطين

Ibn ‘Adīyy said: “It is the column which Ibn ‘Uqdah sits at, so Ibn ‘Uqdah said to me: ‘This, it is the column of ‘Abd Allāh ibn Mas‘ūd, ‘Alqamah sat to it after him, and Ibrāhīm after him, and Maṣṣūr after him, and Sufyān aṭh-Thawrī after him, and Wakī‘ after him, and Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah after him, and Muṭayyin after him.”

وقال صالح بن محمد الحافظ جزرة: أعلم من أدركت بالحديث وعلمه علي بن المديني وأعلمهم بتصحيح

المشايع يحيى بن معين وأحفظهم عند المذاكرة أبو بكر بن أبي شيبة

And Ṣāliḥ ibn Muḥammad al-Ḥāfiẓ Jazarah said: “The most knowledge of (those) who I met with the ḥadīth and its hidden defects (is) ‘Alī ibn al-Madīnī , and the most knowledgeable of them with the misreadings of the Mashāyikh (is) Yaḥyā ibn Ma‘īn, and the most strongest in memorisation during the scholarly discussion is Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah.”

قال الحافظ أبو العباس بن عقدة: سمعت عبد الرحمن بن خراش يقول: سمعت أبا زرعة يقول: ما رأيت أحفظ من أبي بكر بن أبي شيبة فقلت: يا أبا زرعة فأصحابنا البغداديون؟ قال: دع أصحابك فإنهم أصحاب مخاريق ما رأيت أحفظ من أبي بكر بن أبي شيبة

al-Ḥāfiẓ Abū al-‘Abbās ibn ‘Uqdah said: I heard ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Kharrāsh saying: I heard Abā Zur‘ah saying: “I have not seen (someone) more stronger in memorisation from Abī Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah.” So, I said: ‘O Abā Zur‘ah, so (what about) our companions the Baḡhdādians?’ He said: "Leave off your companions for indeed they are the companions of lying (and cheating and fabricating), I have not seen (someone) more stronger in memorisation from Abī Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah.”

قال الخطيب: كان أبو بكر متقناً حافظاً صنف المسند والأحكام والتفسير وحدث ببغداد هو وأخوه القاسم وعثمان

al-Khaṭīb said: “Abū Bakr was precise, a memoriser, he authored ‘al-Musnad’ and ‘al-‘Aḥkām’ and ‘at-Tafsīr’, and he and his two brothers al-Qāsim and ‘Uṭhmān narrated at Baḡhdād.”

قال إبراهيم نبطويه: في سنة أربع وثلاثين ومائتين أشخص المتوكل الفقهاء والمحدثين، فكان فيهم مصعب بن عبد الله الزيري، وإسحاق بن أبي إسرائيل، وإبراهيم بن عبد الله الهروي، وأبو بكر، وعثمان ابنا أبي شيبة، وكانا من الحفاظ. فقسمت بينهم الجوائز وأمرهم المتوكل أن يحدثوا بالأحاديث التي فيها الرد على المعتزلة والجهمية

قال: فجلس عثمان في مدينة المنصور واجتمع عليه نحو من ثلاثين ألفاً وجلس أبو بكر في مسجد الرصافة، وكان أشد تقدماً من أخيه اجتمع عليه نحو من ثلاثين ألفاً

Ibrāhīm Niftawayh said: "In (the) year 234 al-Mutawakkil summoned the jurists and the Ḥadīth scholars, so among them was Muṣ'ab ibn 'Abd Allāh az-Zubayr, and Ishāq ibn Abī 'Isrā'īl, and Ibrāhīm ibn 'Abd Allāh al-Harawī, and Abū Bakr, and 'Uṭhmān, the two sons of Abī Shāybah, and they were both from the Ḥuffāz. So, gifts were distributed between them, and al-Mutawakkil ordered them that they narrate with the ḥadīths which (contain) in it the refutation upon the Mu'tazilah and the Jahmiyyah."

He said: "So, 'Uṭhmān sat in the city of al-Manṣūr and the like of 30,000 gathered upon him, and Abū Bakr sat in the Masjid of ar-Ruṣāfah, and he was more intense in priority from his brother, the like of 30,000 (people) gathered upon him."

قلت: وكان أبو بكر قوي النفس بحيث إنه استنكر حديثاً تفرد به يحيى بن معين عن حفص بن غياث فقال: من أين له هذا؟ فهذه كتب حفص ما فيها هذا الحديث

I said: "And Abū Bakr was strong (in) soul, since indeed he rebuked a ḥadīth Yaḥyā ibn Ma'īn isolated (in narrating) with it from Ḥafṣ ibn Ghīyāth, so he said: 'From where is this for him? For this is the books of Ḥafṣ, there is not in it this ḥadīth!'"

His 'Aḥādīth

أخبرنا أبو الفضل أحمد بن هبة الله بن أحمد الدمشقي قراءة عليه غير مرة، أنبأنا عبد المعز بن محمد الهروي، أخبرنا زاهر بن طاهر سنة سبع وعشرين وخمسائة بكرة، أخبرنا محمد بن محمد بن حمدون السلمي وأخبرنا أحمد بن عبد المعز، أخبرنا زاهر وقيم بن أبي سعيد، قالوا: أخبرنا أبو سعد محمد بن عبد الرحمن الكنجروزي، قال: أخبرنا أبو عمرو بن حمدان، أخبرنا أبو يعلى الموصلي، حدثنا أبو بكر بن أبي شيبة قال: حدثنا محمد بن بشر عن عبيد الله عن أبي الزناد عن الأعرج عن أبي هريرة قال: ذكر لرسول الله ﷺ الهلال، فقال: "إذا رأيتموه فصوموا وإذا رأيتموه فأفطروا فإن غم عليكم فعدوا ثلاثين" (١)

هذا حديث صحيح، غريب. تفرد به: أبو الزناد عن الأعرج ولم يروه عنه سوى عبيد الله بن عمر ولا عن عبيد الله سوى محمد بن بشر العبدي، فيما علمت

أخرجه مسلم عن أبي بكر عنه، فوقع موافقة عالية ولم يروه أحد من السنن سوى النسائي فرواه عن أبي بكر أحمد بن علي المروزي عن ابن أبي شيبة، فوقع لنا بدلا بعلو درجتين

Abū al-Faḍl Aḥmad ibn Hibbatillāh ibn Aḥmad ad-Dimashqī informed us, a recitation upon him other than one time, (saying): ‘Abd al-Mu‘izz ibn Muḥammad al-Harawī informed us, (he said): Zāhir ibn Ṭāhir informed us (in the) year 527 in Herat, (he said): Muḥammad ibn Muḥammad ibn Ḥamdūn as-Sulamī informed us.

And (through another chain) Aḥmad ibn ‘Abd al-Mu‘izz, (he said): Zāhir and Tamīm ibn Abī Sa‘īd informed us, they both said: Abū Sa‘d Muḥammad ibn ‘Abd al-Raḥmān al-Kanjarūdḥī, he said: Abū ‘Amr ibn Ḥamdān informed us, (he said): Abū Ya‘lā al-Mawṣilī informed us (he said): Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah narrated to us, he said: Muḥammad ibn Bishr narrated to us, from ‘Ubayd Allāh, from Abī az-Zinād, from al-‘A‘raj, from Abī Hurayrah, he said: The crescent moon was mentioned to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, so he said: “When you see it then fast, and when you see it, then break your fast, then if it is obscured upon you then count 30 (days for the month).”¹⁶

This is an authentic ḥadīth, ḡharīb (a ḥadīth that has come from one path), (those who) narrated it in isolation (are): Abū az-Zinād, from al-‘A‘raj; None narrated it from him except ‘Ubayd Allāh ibn ‘Umar, and (it was) not (narrated) from ‘Ubayd Allāh except Muḥammad ibn Bishr al-‘Abdī, from what I have known.

Muslim recorded it from Abū Bakr from him (Muḥammad ibn Bishr), so it fell (upon) a lofty correspondence, and not one from (the authors of) the Sunan narrated it except an-Nasā‘ī, so he narrated it from Abī Bakr ‘Alī al-Marwazī, from Ibn Abī Shāybah, so it occurred for us an alternative transmission with an elevation of two degrees.

أخبرنا عبد الحافظ بن بدران ويوسف بن أحمد، قالوا: أخبرنا موسى بن عبد القادر، حدثنا سعيد بن أحمد، أخبرنا علي بن أحمد البندار، أخبرنا أبو طاهر المخلص، حدثنا عبد الله بن محمد، حدثنا أبو بكر بن أبي شيبة، حدثنا أبو خالد الأحمر سليمان بن حيان عن سليمان التيمي عن أبي عثمان عن أسامة بن زيد قال: قال رسول الله ﷺ: "ما تركت على أمتي بعدي فتنة أضر على الرجال من النساء" (٢)

‘Abd al-Ḥāfiẓ ibn Badrān and Yūsuf ibn Aḥmad informed us, they both said: Mūsā ibn ‘Abd al-Qāhir, (he said): Sa‘īd ibn Aḥmad narrated to us, (he said): ‘Alī ibn Aḥmad al-Bandār informed

¹⁶ The ḥadīth is authentic: Muslim recorded it no.20 & 1081 from the path of Ibn Abī Shāybah

us (he said): Abū Ṭāhir al-Mukhlīṣ informed us (he said): ‘Abd Allāh ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, (he said): Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah narrated to us, (he said): Abū Khālīd al-ʿAḥmar Sulaymān ibn Ḥayyān narrated to us, from Sulaymān at-Taymī, from Abī ʿUṭhmān, from ʿUsāmah ibn Zayd, he said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “I have not left upon my nation after me a fitnah more harmful upon the men than the women.”¹⁷

وبه، أخبرنا أبو بكر بن أبي شيبة، حدثنا حميد بن عبد الرحمن عن هشام بن عروة عن أبيه سمعت أسامة بن زيد وسئل كيف كان يسير رسول الله ﷺ حين دفع من عرفات؟ قال: كان يسير العنق فإذا وجد فجوة نص. قال: هشام والنص أرفع من العنق. أخرجهما مسلم (٣)، عن أبي بكر فوافقناه

And by it (the same chain), Abū Bakr ibn Abī Shāybah informed us, (he said): Ḥumayd ibn ʿAbd al-Raḥmān narrated to us, from Hishām ibn ʿUrwah, from his father, (he said): I heard ʿUsāmah ibn Zayd and he was asked: How did the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ride when he drove away from ʿArafāt? He said: “He would ride (at) the pace of a camel, then when he found an opening, he pranced.” Hishām said: And al-Naṣṣ is higher (in pace) from al-ʿAnāq. Muslim recorded both of them¹⁸ from Abī Bakr so we corresponded (with) him.

أنبأنا ابن علان، حدثنا الكندي، أخبرنا القزاز (٤)، أخبرنا أبو بكر الخطيب، أخبرنا أحمد بن علي المحتسب، عن محمد بن عمران الكاتب، حدثني عمر بن علي، حدثنا أحمد بن محمد بن المربع، سمعت أبا عبيد يقول: ربانيو الحديث أربعة: فأعلمهم بالحلل والحرام: أحمد بن حنبل، وأحسنهم سياقة للحديث وأداء: علي بن المديني وأحسنهم وضعًا لكتاب: أبو بكر بن أبي شيبة، وأعلمهم بصحيح الحديث وسقيمه: يحيى بن معين

Ibn ʿAllān informed us, (he said): al-Kindī narrated to us, (he said): al-Qazzāz¹⁹ informed us, (he said): Abū Bakr al-Khaṭīb, (he said): Aḥmad ibn ʿAlī al-Muhtasib informed us, from Muḥammad ibn ʿImrān al-Kātib, (he said): ʿUmar ibn ʿAlī narrated to me, (he said): Aḥmad ibn al-Murbiʿ narrated to us, (he said): I heard Abā ʿUbayd saying: “The divine, nurturing scholars of ḥadīth are four: So, the most knowledgable of them with the Ḥalāl and Ḥarām (is): Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal; And the most excellent of them (in the) deliverance for the ḥadīth and transmission (is): ʿAlī ibn al-Madīnī; And the most excellent of them (in the) arrangement

¹⁸ The ḥadīth is authentic: al-Bukhārī recorded it no.1666, and Muslim no.283, 284 & 1286, and Abū Dāwūd no.1923, and an-Nasāʾī 5/259

¹⁹ He is: al-Musnad Abū Maṣṣūr ʿAbd al-Raḥmān ibn Muḥammad ibn ʿAbd al-Wāḥid ash-Shāybanī al-Baḡhdādī, and he is known by ‘Ibn Zarīq al-Qazzāz’

(and categorisation and composition) for a book (is): Abū Bakr ibn Abī Sḥaybah; And the most knowledgeable of them with the authentic of the ḥadīth and its unsound (is): Yaḥyā ibn Maʿīn.”

His Death

قال البخاري، ومطين: مات أبو بكر في المحرم سنة خمس وثلاثين ومائتين

al-Bukḥārī said, and Muṭayyin: “Abū Bakr died in al-Muḥarram (in the) year 235.”

قلت: آخر من روى عنه: أبو عمرو يوسف بن يعقوب النيسابوري، وبقي إلى سنة بضع وعشرين وثلاثمائة

I said: The last of who narrated from him (was): Abū ‘Amr ibn Ya‘qūb an-Naysābūrī, and he remained (lived) to (the) year 320 and some odd.

The Ground of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ عَنْ، سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُيَيْنَةَ، عَنْ، ابْنِ أَبِي نَجِيحٍ، عَنْ، مُجَاهِدٍ، قَالَ: "أَرْضُ الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ وَرَقٍ، وَثَرَائِبُهَا مِنْسَكٌ، وَأَصُولُ شَجَرِهَا ذَهَبٌ وَفِصَّةٌ، وَأَفْنَانُهَا لَوْلُؤٌ وَزَبَرْجَدٌ وَيَاقُوتٌ، وَالْوَرَقُ وَالنَّمْرُ تَحْتَ ذَلِكَ، فَمَنْ أَكَلَ قَائِمًا لَمْ يُوْذِهِ، وَمَنْ أَكَلَ جَالِسًا لَمْ يُوْذِهِ، وَمَنْ أَكَلَ مُضْطَجِعًا لَمْ يُوْذِهِ، {وَذُلِّلَتْ قُطُوفُهَا تَذْلِيلًا} [الإنسان: ١٤]"

Abū Bakr ‘Abd Allāh ibn Abī Shāybah narrated to us from Sufyān ibn ‘Uyaynah, from Ibn Abī Najīḥ, from Mujāhid, he said: "The ground of al-Jannah is from silver, and its soil is musk, and the roots of its trees are gold and silver, and its branches are (from) pearl and chrysolite and ruby, and the leaves and the fruits are beneath that, so whoever eats standing, it will not harm him, and whoever eats sitting, it will not harm him, and whoever eats laying, it will not harm him. {وَذُلِّلَتْ قُطُوفُهَا تَذْلِيلًا} [Insān:14]"²⁰

حَدَّثَنَا مُعَاوِيَةُ بْنُ هِشَامٍ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا، عَلِيُّ بْنُ صَالِحٍ، عَنْ، عَمْرِو بْنِ رَبِيعَةَ، عَنْ، الْحَسَنِ، عَنْ، ابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: سُئِلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: كَيْفَ هِيَ؟ قَالَ: «مَنْ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ يَحْيَى لَا يَمُوتُ، وَيَنْعَمُ لَا يَبْأَسُ، وَلَا تَبْلَى ثِيَابُهُ وَلَا يُبْلَى شَبَابُهُ»، قِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، كَيْفَ بَنَازُهَا؟ قَالَ: «لَبِنَةٌ مِنْ فِصَّةٍ وَلَبِنَةٌ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ، مَلَأْتُهَا مِنْسَكٌ، وَحَصَبَاؤُهَا اللَّوْلُؤُ وَالْيَاقُوتُ، وَثَرَائِبُهَا الزَّرْعَفَرَانُ»

Mu‘āwiyah ibn Hishām narrated to us, he said: ‘Alī ibn Ṣāliḥ narrated to us, from ‘Amr ibn Rabī‘ah, from al-Ḥasan, from Ibn ‘Umar, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was asked: How is it (i.e. al-Jannah)? He said: "Whoever enters al-Jannah lives and does not die, and enjoys ease and does not suffer hardship, and his garments do not wear out nor does his youth decay." It was said: O Messenger of Allāh, how is its construction? He said: "A brick from silver and a brick from gold, its mortar is musk, and its pebbles are pearls and rubies, and its soil is saffron."²¹

‘Abd Allāh ibn Numayr narrated to us, he said: ‘Ismā’īl ibn Abī Khālīd, from Ḥakīm ibn Jābir, he said: "Indeed, Allāh, Blessed and High be He, did not touch with His Hand from His creation other than three things: He created al-Jannah with His Hand, then made its soil al-Wars (a yellow dye made from a Yemenī plant) and saffron, and its mountains musk, and He created Ādam with His Hand, and He wrote at-Tawrah (with His Hand) for Mūsā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ."²³

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from Ḥassān³⁴, from Muḡhīth ibn Sumayy regarding His statement: {طُوبَى} [ar-Raʿd:29], he said: “It is a tree in al-Jannah, there is not in al-Jannah a people of a house except branch from its branches except it shades them. In it are from all varieties of fruit, and upon it birds the likes of the Bactrian camels settle.” He said: “So when a man desires the bird, he calls it, so it comes until it settles upon his dining table.” He said: “So he eats from one of its sides cured (meat), and from the other grilled (meat), then it returns (to) how it was, so it flies.”³⁵

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ الثُّعْمَانِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، عَنْ عَلِيٍّ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ سُوقًا مَا فِيهَا بَيْعٌ وَلَا شِرَاءٌ إِلَّا الصُّورُ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ وَالنِّسَاءِ، فَإِذَا اسْتَهَى الرَّجُلُ صُورَةَ دَخَلَ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّ فِيهَا لَمُجْتَمَعًا لِلْحُورِ الْعِينِ، يَرْفَعْنَ أَصْوَاتًا، لَمْ يَرَ الْخَلَائِقُ مِثْلَهَا، يَقُلْنَ: نَحْنُ الْخَالِدَاتُ فَلَا نَبِيدُ؛ وَنَحْنُ الرَّاغِبَاتُ فَلَا نَسْخَطُ، وَنَحْنُ النَّاعِمَاتُ فَلَا نَبْأُسُ، فَطُوبَى لِمَنْ كَانَ لَنَا وَكُنَّا لَهُ

⁴³ He is Abū Ishāq al-Sabʿī

⁴⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 33970 - 7/30. Ṣaḥīḥ, and all of its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Ishāq, from an-Nu‘mān ibn Sa‘d, from ‘Alī, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed, in al-Jannah is a market, there is no sale nor buying, except the appearance from the men and the women. So, when a man desires an appearance he enters in it (the market), and indeed in it is a gathering place for the Ḥūr al-‘Īn, they raise their voices, the living beings have not seen their likes, (and) they (the Ḥūr al-‘Īn) say: We are eternal so we do not perish, and we are the pleased ones so we do not resent, and we are the ones living in ease so we do not suffer, so Ṭūbā for the one who is for us and we are for him.”⁴⁵

The Chambers of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، عَنْ عَلِيٍّ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ عُرْفًا يَرَى ظُهُورُهَا مِنْ بُطُونِهَا وَبُطُونُهَا مِنْ ظُهُورِهَا، قَالَ: فَقَامَ أَعْرَابِيٌّ فَقَالَ: هِيَ لِمَنْ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ فَقَالَ: هِيَ لِمَنْ طَيَّبَ الْكَلَامَ وَأَطْعَمَ الطَّعَامَ وَأَفْشَى السَّلَامَ وَصَلَّى بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّاسَ نِيَامًا

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Ishāq, from an-Nu‘mān ibn Sa‘d, from ‘Alī, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed in al-Jannah are chambers, its exterior are seen from its interior, and its interior are seen from its exterior.” He said: So, a Bedouin stood, then he said: It is for who, O Messenger of Allāh? So, he said: “It is for who made (their) speech pleasant, and fed food, and spread the Salām, and prayed at night and the people (were) asleep.”⁴⁶

What No Eye Has Seen, Nor Ear Has Heard, Nor Come Across Upon The Heart of Mankind

حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو حَازِمٍ، عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَذَكَرَ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَالَ: فِيهَا مَا لَا عَيْنٌ رَأَتْ وَلَا أُذُنٌ سَمِعَتْ وَلَا خَطَرَ عَلَى قَلْبِ بَشَرٍ

Zayd ibn al-Ḥubāb narrated to us, he said: Sa‘īd ibn ‘Abd al-Raḥmān narrated to me, he said: Abū Ḥāzim⁴⁷ narrated to us, from Sahl ibn Sa‘d, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

⁴⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33971 - 7/30. The narration is weak because ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Ishāq is weak, and he was weakened by Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Yahyā ibn Ma‘īn, Muḥammad ibn Sa‘d, Ya‘qūb ibn Sufyān, Abū Dāwūd, al-Nasā‘ī, Ibn Ḥibbān, al-Bukhārī, Abū Zur‘ah, Abū Ḥātim, and Ibn Khuzaymah. – ‘Siyar’ 16/516 no.3754

⁴⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33972 - 7/30. Likewise, this narration is weak too due to ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Ishāq.

⁴⁷ He is Salamah ibn Dīnār

وَسَلَّمَ said, and he mentioned al-Jannah, so he said: “In it is what no eye has seen, nor ear has heard, nor come across upon the heart of mankind.”⁴⁸

حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ مُسْهِرٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: يَقُولُ اللَّهُ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالَى: أَعَدَدْتُ لِعِبَادِي الصَّالِحِينَ مَا لَا عَيْنٌ رَأَتْ وَلَا أُذُنٌ سَمِعَتْ، وَلَا خَطَرَ عَلَى قَلْبٍ بَشَرٍ، أَقْرَأُوا إِنَّ شَيْئَكُمْ {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءُ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ} [السجدة: ١٧] وَفِي الْجَنَّةِ شَجَرَةٌ يَسِيرُ الرَّائِكُ فِي ظِلِّهَا مِائَةَ عَامٍ لَا يَقْطَعُهَا، أَقْرَأُوا إِنَّ شَيْئَكُمْ {وُظِلَّ مَمْدُودٌ} [الواقعة: ٣٠] لَمْ يُضِغْ سَوْطٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا، أَقْرَأُوا إِنَّ شَيْئَكُمْ {فَمَنْ رُحِزَ عَنِ النَّارِ وَأُدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَدْ فَازَ وَمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا مَتَاعُ الْغُرُورِ} [آل عمران: ١٨٥]

‘Alī ibn Mushir narrated to us, from Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr, from Abī Salamah, from Abī Hurayrah, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “Allāh, Blessed and High be He, says: “I have prepared for my righteous worshipping-servants what no eye has seen nor ear has heard, nor came across upon the heart of mankind.” Recite if you wish: { فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَا } as-Sajdah: 17]. And in al-Jannah is a tree, a rider travels in its shade 100 years (and) he does not cross it. Recite if you wish: { وَظِلَّ مَمْدُودٌ } [al-Wāqī‘ah: 30]. The place (the size of) a whip in al-Jannah is better from the Dunyā and what is in it. Recite if you will: { فَمَنْ رُحِزَ عَنِ النَّارِ وَأُدْخِلَ الْجَنَّةَ فَقَدْ فَازَ وَمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا مَتَاعُ الْغُرُورِ } [3:185].”⁴⁹

⁴⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33974 - 7/30. This narration is weak due to Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr. The jarḥ on him: Ibn Ma‘īn said people were always wary of his ḥadīth because he’d narrate something from Abū Salamah once as ra’y and later raise it to marfū‘ via Abū Hurayrah; Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān said he’s not among those to rely on when being strict; al-Jūzajānī said he’s “not strong”; Ibn Sa‘d said he’s “istud‘ifa” despite being prolific; Ya‘qūb ibn Shaybah called him “wasat, tending toward weakness”; and Ibn Ḥibbān noted he errs (yukḥṭi‘) — cumulatively yielding Ibn Ḥajar’s verdict of ṣadūq lahu awhām – ‘as-Siyar’ 6/136, <https://shamela.ws/narrator/5860>

The Increase of The Inhabitants of al-Jannah in Beauty

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Sulaymān at-Taymī⁵⁰, from ʿAnas ibn Mālīk, he said: “Indeed, the people of al-Jannah are certainly (going to be) saying: ‘Set off with us to the market.’ So they are (going to be) coming to a mountain from al-Misk (musk) - or a mountain from musk -, or a hill from musk, so Allāh sends upon them a wind, so it enters them (into) their homes, so their families are (going to be) saying to them: ‘You have increased after us (in) beauty’, and they are (going to be) saying to their families the like of that.”⁵¹

حَدَّثَنَا مَرْوَانُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَوْفٍ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَعَتْ يَوْمًا الْجَنَّةَ وَمَا فِيهَا مِنَ الْكَرَامَةِ فَقَالَ فِيهَا، يَقُولُ: إِنَّ فِيهَا طَيْرًا أَمْثَالُ الْبُخْتِ

⁵⁰ He is Sulaymān ibn Ṭarkhān Abū al-Muʿtamir al-Taymī al-Baṣrī,

⁵¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33975 - 7/31. Ṣaḥīḥ, and all of its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded partially in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.2833, and in ‘al-Musnad’ of Imām Aḥmad no.14035, and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Ibn Ḥibbān’ no.5210, and in ‘Ṣifāt al-Jannah’ of Abū Nuʿaym al-Aṣfahānī no.417, and in ‘Ṣifāt al-Jannah’ of Ibn Abī Dunyā no.247, and in ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqāʿiq’ of ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak no.1491, and in in ‘Al-Baʿth wa-al-Nushūr’ of al-Bayhaqī pg.613, and in ‘al-Tafsīr’ of ʿAbd al-Razzāq al-Ṣanʿānī no.1378, and in ‘Tafsīr al-Baḡhawī’ 1/76 and in al-Baḡhawī’s ‘Sharḥ al-Sunnah’ 15/227.

⁵² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33976 - 7/31. This narration is mursal and therefore weak, as there is a disconnection between Yaḥyā ibn al-Jazzār and the Prophet ﷺ, and it is weakened further since I could not find who Ṣāliḥ and ʿAbd Allāh al-ʿIjlī are.

Marwān ibn Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from ‘Awf⁵³, from al-Ḥasan that the Prophet ﷺ described al-Jannah on a day and what is in it from honour (and dignity and nobility), saying: “Indeed in it (are) birds the likes of the Bactrian camel.”⁵⁴

حَدَّثَنَا عِيسَى بْنُ يُونُسَ، عَنْ ثَوْرٍ، عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ مَعْدَانَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: الْجَنَّةُ مَطْوِيَةٌ مُعَلَّقَةٌ بِقُرُونِ الشَّمْسِ، تُنْشَرُ فِي كُلِّ عَامٍ مَرَّةً وَأَرْوَاحُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فِي جَوْفِ طَيْرٍ خَضِرٍ، كَالزَّرَازِيرِ، يَتَعَارَفُونَ وَيُزَرِّقُونَ مِنْ ثَمَرِ الْجَنَّةِ.

‘Īsā ibn Yūnus narrated to us, from Thawr⁵⁵, from Khālīd ibn Ma‘dān⁵⁶, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Umar, he said: “al-Jannah is folded up, suspended by the horns of the Sun. It is spread out in every year once, and the souls of the Believers are in the bellies of green birds like starlings, becoming acquainted (with one another) and are provided (and sustained) from the fruits of al-Jannah.”⁵⁷

The Melody of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا مَرْوَانُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ الْوَلِيدِ، قَالَ أَبِي: سُئِلَ مُجَاهِدٌ هَلْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ سَمَاعٌ؟ قَالَ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَشَجَرَةً لَهَا سَمَاعٌ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ السَّامِعُونَ إِلَى مِثْلِهِ

Marwān ibn Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from ‘Alī ibn Walīd⁵⁸, (he said): My father said: Mujāhid was asked: ‘Is there in al-Jannah (melodic) listening?’. He said: “Indeed in al-Jannah is a tree that has hearing, the listeners have not listened to its like.”⁵⁹

⁵³ He is ‘Awf ibn Abī Jamīlah al-‘Abdī al-Ḥajarī, Abū Sahl al-Baṣrī, known as al-A‘rābī (though he was not actually a Bedouin).

⁵⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33977 - 7/31. Its narrators are Thiqāt, but the narration is mursal due to the disconnection between al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī and the Prophet ﷺ.

⁵⁵ Thawr ibn Yazīd al-Kalā‘ī al-Raḥabī al-Ḥimṣī. He was a Qadarī but still declared as Thiqah so there should be no problem in taking from him, if one is careful, in shā’ Allāh. - <https://shamela.ws/narrator/1081>

⁵⁶ Khālīd ibn Ma‘dān is Thiqah, but he is known to have practiced irsāl and tadrīs, and since his connection to ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Umar is not confirmed elsewhere, his ‘an‘anah here cannot be assumed mutṭaṣil. - <https://shamela.ws/narrator/1759>

⁵⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33978 - 7/31. It was recorded in ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nu‘aym al-Aṣfahānī 1/290 and in his ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ no.133 from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Amr, and in ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqā’iq’ of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak no.446 from ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-‘Āṣ.

⁵⁸ In another print it is ‘Alī ibn Abī al-Walīd, but both ‘Alī ibn Abī al-Walīd and ‘Alī ibn al-Walīd are unknown, and so is his father

The Palaces of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا رَوَّادُ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ، عَنْ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللَّهِ، عَنْ عَلِيٍّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَى} [الضحى: ٥] قَالَ: أَلْفَ قَصْرِ مِنْ لَوْلُؤٍ أَبْيَضَ ثَرَابُهُ الْمِسْكُ وَفِيهِنَّ مَا يُصْلِحُهُنَّ

Rawwād ibn al-Jarrāḥ⁶⁰ narrated to us, from al-ʿAwzāʿī, from ʿIsmāʿīl ibn ʿUbayd Allāh, from ʿAlī, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAbbās regarding His statement: {وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَى} [aḍ-Ḍuḥā:5], he said: “1000 palaces from white pearl, its soil musk, and in them what sets them (the palaces) aright (from servants and spouses).”⁶¹

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنْ أَشْعَثَ، عَنْ جَعْفَرٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، قَالَ: أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةٌ مَنْ لَهُ أَلْفُ قَصْرِ، فِيهِ سَبْعُونَ أَلْفَ خَادِمٍ، لَيْسَ مِنْهُمْ خَادِمٌ إِلَّا فِي يَدِهَا صَحْفَةٌ سِوَى مَا فِي يَدِ صَاحِبِهَا، لَا يَفْتَحُ بَابَهُ بِشَيْءٍ يُرِيدُهُ، لَوْ ضَافَهُ جَمِيعُ أَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا لَأَوْسَعَهُمْ

Yaḥyā ibn Yamān⁶² narrated to us, from ʿAshʿaṭh⁶³, from Jaʿfar⁶⁴, from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, he said: “The lowest of the people of al-Jannah in status is for who 1000 palaces, in it 70,000 servants, there is not in them a servant except in her hand is a plate of food alternative to what is in the hand of her companion. He does not open his door for a thing he desires. If he hosted the entirety of the people of ad-Dunyā he would accommodate them.”⁶⁵

The Height of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنْ أَشْعَثَ، عَنْ جَعْفَرٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، قَالَ: كَانَ يُقَالُ: طُولُ الرَّجُلِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ تِسْعُونَ مِثْلًا، وَطُولُ الْمَرْأَةِ ثَمَانُونَ مِثْلًا، وَمَقْعَدُهَا جَرِيبٌ، وَإِنَّ شَهْوَتَهُ لَتَجْرِي فِي جَسَدِهَا سَبْعِينَ عَامًا يَجِدُ اللَّذَّةَ

⁶⁰ He is weak. - Tahdhīb al-Kamāl fī Asmāʾ al-Rijāl 9/227

⁶¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33980 - 7/31. It was recorded with a similar wording in ‘al-Mustadrak’ of al-Ḥākim no.3987, and in ‘ash-Sharīʿah’ of al-ʿĀjurri no.1110, and in ‘al-Muʿjam al-ʿAwsaṭ’ of al-Ṭabarānī no.572, and in ‘Dalāʾil an-Nubūwwah’ of al-Bayhaqī 7/61.

⁶³ He is ʿAshʿaṭh ibn Ishāq ibn Saʿd ibn Mālik ibn Hānī ibn ʿĀmir ibn Abī ʿĀmir al-Ashʿarī al-Qummī — he is the paternal cousin (ibn ʿamm) of Yaʿqūb ibn ʿAbd Allāh al-Qummī – He is Ṭhiqah - (Tahdhīb al-Kamāl 3/260).

⁶⁴ He is Jaʿfar ibn Abī al-Muḡhīrah and he is Ṭhiqah, but Ibn Mandah said he is not strong regarding Saʿīd ibn Jubayr. - <https://shamela.ws/narrator/1141>

⁶⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33981- 7/31. It was recorded in a similar wording in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 21/640

Yahyā ibn Yamān narrated to us, from ʿAshʿaṭh, from Jaʿfar, from Saʿīd ibn Jubayr, he said: “It was said: The height of the man from the people of al-Jannah is 90 miles, and the height of the woman is 80 miles, and her seat is a Jarīb (an ancient type of measurement), and indeed his desire surely flows through her body (for) 70 years (wherein) he finds the pleasure.”⁶⁶

The Tree Which a Rider Travels In Its Shadow For One Hundred Years

حَدَّثَنَا يَعْلَى بْنُ عُبَيْدٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، عَنْ زِيَادٍ، مَوْلَى بَنِي مَخْرُومٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ، يَقُولُ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَشَجَرَةً يَسِيرُ الرَّكَبُ فِي ظِلِّهَا مِائَةَ عَامٍ وَأَقْرَأُوا إِنْ شِئْتُمْ {وَوَظِلٍّ مَمْدُودٍ} [الواقعة: ٣٠] فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ كَعْبًا قَالَ: صَدَقَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ التَّوْرَةَ عَلَى لِسَانِ مُوسَى وَالْفُرْقَانَ عَلَى لِسَانِ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ [٣٢] لَوْ أَنَّ رَجُلًا رَكِبَ جَعَّةً أَوْ جَذَعَةً ثُمَّ دَارَ بِأَصْلِ تِلْكَ الشَّجَرَةِ مَا بَلَغَهَا حَتَّى يَسْقُطَ هَرَمًا، إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَرَسَهَا بِيَدِهِ وَنَفَخَ فِيهَا مِنْ رُوحِهِ، وَإِنْ أَفْنَانُهَا مِنْ وَرَاءِ سُورِ الْجَنَّةِ، وَمَا فِي الْجَنَّةِ نَهْرٌ إِلَّا يَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَصْلِ تِلْكَ الشَّجَرَةِ

Yaʿlā ibn ʿUbayd narrated to us, he said: ʾIsmāʿīl ibn Abī Khālid narrated to us, from Ziyād, the freed-slave of Banī Makḥzūm, he said: I heard Abā Hurayrah saying: “Indeed in al-Jannah is a tree, the rider travels in its shadow 100 years, and recite if you wish: {وَوَظِلٍّ مَمْدُودٍ} [al-Wāqīʿah: 30].” So that reached Kaʿb, (so) he said: “The One who revealed at-Tawrāh upon the tongue of Mūsā and al-Furqān (the Criterion - the Qurʾān) upon the tongue of Muḥammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ has spoken the truth. If a man mounted a mature female camel, or a young female camel, then circle by the base of that tree, he would not reach it until he collapses senile (and decrepit in age). Indeed, Allāh planted its seed with His Hand, and blew into it from His Spirit, and indeed its branches are from beyond the walls of al-Jannah, and there is not in al-Jannah a river except it emerges from the base of that tree.”⁶⁷

⁶⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 33982- 7/31. This narration is likewise weak due to Yahyā ibn Yamān and Jaʿfar ibn Abī al-Mughīrah. It was recorded in ‘ad-Durr al-Manṭḥūr’ of as-Suyūṭī 1/101, and in in ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nuʿaym al-Aṣfahānī 4/287.

⁶⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 33983- 7/31. It is weak due to Ziyād, the freed-slave of Banī Makḥzūm solely. Ibn Abī Ḥātim narrated from Yahyā ibn Maʿīn in ‘al-Jarḥ wat-Taʿdīl’ (3/549) that he said concerning Ziyād that he is nothing. However, ash-Shāfiʿī said “he was Ṭhiqah” in ‘al-Umm’ 2/207; Ibn Ḥibbān mentioned him in ‘al-Ṭhiqāt’; and Ibn Ḥajar said in ‘Taʿjīl al-Manfaʿah’ “I think he is Ziyād ibn Abī Ziyād, the freed slave of Ibn ʿAyyāsh, and he is Ṭhiqah”. Perhaps the intent of Yahyā was that Ziyād had a lack of narrations. It was recorded in ‘Al-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no. 114. A similar marfūʿ wording was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukḥārī’ no. 4881 and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no. 2826.

The Tent of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامُ بْنُ يَحْيَى، عَنْ أَبِي عِمْرَانَ الْجَوْنِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ بْنِ أَبِي مُوسَى، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: الْخَيْمَةُ دُرَّةٌ طُولُهَا سِتُّونَ مِيلًا، فِي كُلِّ رَاوِيَةٍ مِنْهَا أَهْلٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِ لَا يَرَاهُمْ غَيْرُهُمْ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: Hammām ibn Yaḥyā⁶⁸ narrated to us, from Abī ‘Imrān al-Jawnī, from Abī Bakr ibn Abī Mūsā⁶⁹, from his father, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “The tent (in al-Jannah) is a (hollowed-out) pearl, its height is 60 miles, in every corner from it are families of the Believers, none other than them see them.”⁷⁰

The Women From The Inhabitants of al-Jannah & al-Ḥūr al-‘Īn

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ حَسَّانَ، عَنْ يَزِيدَ الرَّقَاشِيِّ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ، عَنْ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: لَوْ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً مِنْ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ بَدَا مِعْصَمُهَا لَذَهَبَ بِضَوْءِ الشَّمْسِ

Abū ‘Usāmah narrated to us, from Hishām ibn Ḥassān⁷¹, from Yazīd ar-Raqaṣhī⁷², from a man⁷³, from Ka‘b, he said: “If a woman from the women of the people of al-Jannah, her wrist was made to appear clearly, it would have taken with it the light of the Sun.”⁷⁴

⁶⁸ He is Abū ‘Abd Allāh Hammām ibn Yaḥyā al-Azdī al-Baṣrī. His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy) and thabt (firmly established) when narrating from his books—particularly as a cornerstone authority on Qatādah and Yaḥyā ibn Abī Kathīr—but weak when transmitting from memory, occasionally inverting chains or inserting extra links. Consequently, master critics accept his written records as authoritative proof while treating his memory-based reports with caution. Notably, his later narrations are preferred over his older ones because late-life physical confinement forced him to rely exclusively on his authentic notebooks, and he publicly repented for earlier memory slips. Finally, Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān's historical rejection of him was heavily discounted by Ibn Maḥdī and Ibn ‘Adī, who attributed it to a localized youth grievance rather than a lack of objective reliability. <https://shamela.ws/narrator/6739>

⁶⁹ He is Thiqah but he did not hear from his father (Tahdhīb at-Tahdhīb 4/495) rendering the narration weak.

⁷⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33984- 7/32. It was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī’ (3243) and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ (2838), but it is still weak.

⁷³ This narration is mubham because the narrator is unnamed, referred to only as “a man” — making his identity and reliability impossible to assess, thereby further weakening the chain.

⁷⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33985- 7/32. It was recorded in ‘Ṣifāt al-Jannah’ of Ibn Abī Dunyā no.281, and in ‘az-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.14.

حَدَّثَنَا الْفَضْلُ بْنُ دُكَيْنٍ، عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ نُبَيْطٍ، عَنِ الصَّحَّاحِ، قَالَ: لَوْ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ أَطْلَعَتْ كَفَّهَا لِأَضَاءِ مَا بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ

al-Faḍl ibn Dukayn narrated to us, from Salamah ibn Nubayṭ, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk, he said: “If a woman from the people of al-Jannah were to expose her palm it would illuminate what is between the heaven and the earth.”⁷⁵

حَدَّثَنَا مُعْتَمِرُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ أَيُّوبَ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، قَالَ: إِنَّهُ لَيُوجَدُ رِيحُ الْمَرْأَةِ مِنَ الْحُورِ الْعِينِ مِنْ مَسِيرَةِ خَمْسِينَ سَنَةً.

Mu‘tamar ibn Sulaymān narrated to us, from Layṭh⁷⁶, from Mujāhid, he said “Indeed, the fragrance of a woman from al-Ḥūr al-‘Īn is found from the travelling-distance of 50 years.”⁷⁷

حَدَّثَنَا شَبَابَةُ بْنُ سَوَّارٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي ذَنْبٍ، عَمَّنْ سَمِعَ أَنَسًا، يَقُولُ: إِنَّ الْهُورَ الْعَيْنِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَيَتَعَنَّيَنَّ، يَقُلْنَ: نَحْنُ الْخَيْرَاتُ الْحَسَنَاتُ حُسْنًا لِلْأَرْوَاحِ الْكَرَامِ

⁷⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33986- 7/32. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

⁷⁶ He is Abū Bakr Layṭh ibn Abī Sulaym al-Kūfī al-ʿUmawī. His ḥāl: Ḍaʿīf (Weak) due to poor memory, frequent errors, and severe cognitive decline (ikhtilāl), though widely respected for his personal piety and knowledge of Hajj rites. Ibn Ḥajar graded him ṣaḍūq who became severely confused (ikhtalaṭa jiddan) in old age, while al-Dhahabī noted his proper rank is al-ḍaʿīf al-muqārib, permitting his narrations for corroboration (istishhād) but not as binding legal proofs. Master critics including Aḥmad, Ibn Maʿīn, and Abū Ḥātim agreed he was unstable (muḍṭarib) and not a valid proof (ḥujjah), leading Yahyā al-Qaṭṭān to abandon him entirely. His weakness stemmed from two structural defects: his prime-era lack of precision (takhlīt)—specifically blending the distinct chains of ʿAṭā, Ṭāwūs, and Mujāhid into a single report—and a late-life cognitive decline so severe that he was witnessed attempting to give the call to prayer at incorrect times in broad daylight. - <https://www.islamweb.net/ar/library/content/60/1014/%D9%84%D9%8A%D8%AB-%D8%A8%D9%86-%D8%A3%D8%A8%D9%8A-%D8%B3%D9%84%D9%8A%D9%85,-https://shamela.ws/narrator/5347>

⁷⁷ Musannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33987- 7/32

Shābābah ibn Sawwār⁷⁸ narrated to us, from Ibn Abī Dhī'b⁷⁹, from who heard 'Anas saying: “Indeed al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn in al-Jannah surely sing, saying: We are the good ones (in manners) the beautiful ones, reserved (and secluded) for the noble spouses.”⁸⁰

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ فَضَيْلٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مَيْمُونٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ، أَنَّ الْمَرْأَةَ مِنْ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ تَلْبَسُ سَبْعِينَ حُلَّةً مِنْ حَرِيرٍ فَيَرَى بَيَاضَ سَاقَيْهَا وَحُسْنَ سَاقَيْهَا وَمُخَّ سَاقَيْهَا مِنْ وَرَاءِ ذَلِكَ كُلِّهِ، وَذَلِكَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَقُولُ: {كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [الرحمن: ٥٨] وَإِنَّمَا الْيَاقُوتُ حَجَرٌ، فَإِنْ أَخَذْتَ سِلْكًا وَجَعَلْتَهُ فِي ذَلِكَ الْحَجَرِ ثُمَّ اسْتَصَفَيْتَهُ رَأَيْتَ السِّلْكَ مِنْ وَرَاءِ الْحَجَرِ

Ibn Fuḍayl⁸¹ narrated to us, from 'Aṭā' ibn as-Sā'ib⁸², from 'Amr ibn Maymūn, he said: 'Abd Allāh ibn Mas'ūd, that a woman from the women of the people of al-Jannah wears 70 garments from silk, so the white of her two shins are seen, and the beauty of her two shins, and the marrow of her two shins from behind that all of it, and that is that Allāh says: {كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [ar-Raḥmān: 58], and indeed the ruby is a stone, so if you took a

⁷⁸ He is Abū 'Amr Shābābah ibn Sawwār al-Madā'inī al-Fazārī. His ḥāl: Ṭḥiqah ḥāfiẓ (Trustworthy master), widely accepted in Hadith but boycotted by some for propagating Irjā'. While Ibn Ma'in graded him ṭḥiqah, and Muslim placed him in the elite fourth tier of Shu'bah's companions, Aḥmad abandoned him as a vocal innovator, and Abū Ḥātim stated he is not used as an independent proof (lā yuḥtajju bihi). Criticisms were primarily theological, alongside minor memory slips (kḥaṭa') which Ibn 'Adī deemed natural. Crucially, Abū Zur'ah confirmed that Shābābah completely recanted (raja'a) his theological views before his death, adopting the orthodox stance. - <https://shamela.ws/narrator/2730>

⁷⁹ He is Abū Ḥārith Muḥammad ibn 'Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Abī Dhī'b al-Qurashī. His ḥāl: Ṭḥiqah fāḍil (Trustworthy and virtuous) and al-Imām al-ḥujjah; an authoritative Medinan jurist relied upon across the six canonical books. Master critics including Ibn Ma'in and Abū Ḥātim unequivocally graded him ṭḥiqah, with Aḥmad even preferring his text memorization over Mālik ibn Anas. Criticisms were minor and did not affect his integrity: a refuted accusation of Qadarī tendencies, and methodological notes regarding his reception of al-Zuhrī's narrations via 'arḍ (reading back) rather than direct dictation. His overarching accuracy remains universally accepted.

⁸² Regarding 'Aṭā' ibn al-Sā'ib, although he was a renowned scholar and a great 'ālim of Kufa, his narration in this specific instance is considered weak because he suffered from ikhtilāṭ (memory deterioration) in his old age, and Muḥammad ibn Fuḍayl—despite being a reliable narrator himself—took these narrations from him only after this period of confusion had already set in, thus rendering this specific transmission unreliable.

The Mounts of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ هَمَّامٍ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي أَيُّوبَ الْأَزْدِيِّ أَوْ شَهْرَ بْنِ حَوْشَبٍ شَكَ هَمَّامٌ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، قَالَ: فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ عَتَاقِ الْخَيْلِ وَكِرَامِ النَّجَائِبِ يَرْكَبُهَا أَهْلُهَا، وَقَالَ: الْحِنَاءُ سَيِّدُ رِيحَانِ الْجَنَّةِ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Hammām⁸⁴, from Qatādah⁸⁵, from Abī ʿAyyūb al-ʿAzdi, or Shahr ibn Ḥawshab⁸⁶ - Hammām doubted -, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAmr, he said: “In al-Jannah among (the animals are) noble thoroughbred horses and noble camels, their people ride them.” And he said: “Henna is the master of the sweet-scented plants of al-Jannah.”⁸⁷

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، قَالَ أَخْبَرَنَا الْمَسْعُودِيُّ، عَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ مَرْثَدٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ بُرَيْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، أَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَجِبْ الْخَيْلَ فَهَلْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ خَيْلٌ؟ فَقَالَ: يَا عَبْدَ اللَّهِ، إِنْ يُدْخِلَكَ اللَّهُ الْجَنَّةَ فَلَاكَ فِيهَا مَا اشْتَهَتْ نَفْسُكَ وَلَذَّتْ عَيْنُكَ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: al-Mas‘ūdī informed us, from ‘Alqamah ibn Marṭhad, from Ibn Buraydah⁸⁸, from his father, that a man said: O Messenger of Allāh, I love horses, so is there in al-Jannah horses? So, he said: “O ‘Abd Allāh, if Allāh enters you (into) al-Jannah so for you in it what your soul desires and delights your eye.”⁸⁹

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ ابْنُ عَلِيَّةَ، عَنِ الْجُرَيْرِيِّ، عَنْ لَقِيطِ بْنِ الْمُثَنَّى الْبَاهِلِيِّ، قَالَ: قِيلَ يَا أَبَا أَمَامَةَ، يَتَرَاوُرُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ؟ قَالَ: نَعَمْ، وَاللَّهِ عَلَى الْجَنَائِبِ عَلَيْهَا الْمَيَائِرُ

‘Ismā‘īl ibn ‘Ulayyah⁹⁰ narrated to us, from al-Jurayrī, from Laqīṭ ibn al-Muṭhannā al-Bāhili⁹¹, he said: It was said: O Abā ‘Umāmah, (do) the people of al-Jannah visit (one another)? He said: “Yes, by Allāh, upon the excellent riding mounts, upon them the luxury saddle cushions.”⁹²

⁸⁸ He is ‘Abd Allāh ibn Buraydah ibn al-Ḥuṣayb, Abū Sahl al-Aslamī al-Marwazī al-Qāḍī. His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy)—confirmed by Ibn Ma‘īn, Abū Ḥātim, and Ibn Ḥajar. However, the primary issue is connectivity (ittiṣāl): master critics including Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, al-Ḥāzimī, and Ibrāhīm al-Ḥarbī stated he apparently did not hear directly from his own father, Buraydah, despite extensive transmissions "from his father." Aḥmad noted his reports from his father are acceptable only when routed via Ḥusayn ibn Wāqid or Abū al-Munīb. He also lacked direct audition from ‘Umar and ‘Ā’ishah. Notably, between him and his twin brother Sulaymān, Sulaymān is regarded as the more accurate transmitter.- <https://shamela.ws/narrator/3581>

⁹⁰ He is Ismā‘īl ibn Ibrāhīm ibn Muqsim, known as Ibn ‘Ulayyah, Abū Bishr al-Asadī al-Baṣrī. His ḥāl: Thiqah, ḥāfiz, thabt, and ḥujjah (Trustworthy, master memorizer, firm, and authoritative proof). Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal called him the ultimate point of reliability in Baṣrah, Ibn al-Madīnī praised his peerless accuracy, and Abū Dāwūd noted he was virtually free of error. His technical precision is universally undisputed. The sole major caveat involves his coercion during the Miḥnah (Inquisition) regarding the createdness of the Qur’ān, which drew personal criticism from Aḥmad and others. However, master critics like al-Dhahabī classified this as jarḥ mardūd (inadmissible criticism) regarding his absolute integrity and precision in ḥadīth transmission.

⁹¹ He was mentioned in ‘aṭh-Thiqāt by Ibn Ḥibbān, and he said that he makes mistakes and contradicts [others] (yukḥṭi’u wa-yukhālifu), rendering this narration weak due to him.

The Form, Strength, and Purity of the People of Paradise, and The Hidden Delights Stored For Them

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ مِنْهَالِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ السَّكَنِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ لَيُؤْتَى بِالْكَأْسِ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ مَعَ زَوْجَتِهِ فَيَشْرَبُهَا ثُمَّ يَلْتَفِتُ إِلَى زَوْجَتِهِ فَيَقُولُ: قَدْ أَرَدْتُ فِي عَيْنِي سَبْعِينَ ضِعْفًا حُسْنًا

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-‘A‘mash, from Minhāl ibn ‘Amr⁹³, from Qays ibn as-Sakan, from ‘Abd Allāh, he said: “Indeed a man from the people of al-Jannah is surely brought the cup and he is sat with his wife, so he drinks it, then he turns to his wife, so he says: ‘You have increased in my eye 70 folds (in) beauty.’”⁹⁴

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، وَعَبْدَةُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ ثُمَامَةَ بْنِ عُقْبَةَ الْمُحَلَمِيِّ، عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ أَرْقَمَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ لَيُعْطَى قُوَّةَ مِائَةِ رَجُلٍ فِي الْأَكْلِ وَالشَّرْبِ وَالْجِمَاعِ وَالشَّهْوَةِ، فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْيَهُودِ: فَإِنَّ الَّذِي يَأْكُلُ وَيَشْرَبُ تَكُونُ لَهُ الْحَاجَةُ؟ فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: حَاجَةُ أَحَدِكُمْ عَرَقٌ يَفِيضُ مِنْ جُلْدِهِ فَإِذَا بَطْنُهُ قَدْ ضَمُرَ

Wakī‘ narrated to us, and ‘Abdah ibn Sulaymān, from al-‘A‘mash, from Thamāmah ibn ‘Uqbah al-Maḥalmī, from Zayd ibn ‘Arqam, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed a man from the people of al-Jannah is surely given the strength of 100 men in eating and drinking and copulation and lustful desire.” So, a man from the Jews said: ‘Then indeed the one who eats and drinks, he has for him a physical need (to relieve himself)?’ So, the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “The physical need of one of you is sweat, it overflows from his skin, and then his stomach has become lean.”⁹⁵

⁹⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 33993- 7/33. The chain is good. It was recorded in ‘Durr al-Manṭhūr’ of as-Suyūṭī 8/9.

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: أَغَدَدْتُ لِعِبَادِي الصَّالِحِينَ مَا لَمْ تَرَ عَيْنٌ وَلَمْ تَسْمَعْ أُذُنٌ وَلَمْ يَخْطُرْ عَلَى قَلْبِ بَشَرٍ، قَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: بَلَّهَ مَا قَدْ أَطْلَعَكُمْ عَلَيْهِ، اقْرَءُوا إِنْ شِئْتُمْ {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ} [السجدة: ١٧] الْآيَةَ، وَكَانَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ يَقْرَأُهَا: قُرَاتٍ أَعْيُنٍ

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from Abī Ṣāliḥ, from Abī Hurayrah, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: Allāh, High be He, said: “I have prepared for my righteous worshipping-servants what an eye has not seen, and an ear has not heard, and has not come across a heart of man.” Abū Hurayrah said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Leave aside what He has already informed you upon it. Recite if you wish: {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ} [as-Sajdah: 17]”, the verse. And Abū Hurayrah used to recite it: “comforts of the eyes.”⁹⁶

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: أَوَّلُ رُمْرَةٍ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ مِنْ أُمَّتِي عَلَى صُورَةِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ، ثُمَّ الَّذِينَ يَلُونَهُمْ عَلَى أَشَدِّ نَجْمٍ فِي السَّمَاءِ إِضَاءَةً، ثُمَّ هُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ مَنَازِلَ، لَا يَنْغَوِطُونَ وَلَا يَبُولُونَ وَلَا يَتَمَخَّطُونَ وَلَا يَبْزُقُونَ، أَمْشَاطُهُمُ الذَّهَبُ وَمَجَامِرُهُمُ الْأَلْوَةُ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: يَعْنِي الْعُودَ وَرَشْحُهُمُ الْمِسْكُ، أَخْلَاقُهُمْ عَلَى خُلُقِ رَجُلٍ وَاحِدٍ عَلَى صُورَةِ أَبِيهِمْ آدَمَ سِتِّينَ ذِرَاعًا

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from Abī Ṣāliḥ, from Abī Hurayrah, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “The first group entering al-Jannah from my nation (are) upon the (beauty and brightness of the) appearance of the moon (on) the night of the full moon, then the ones who come after them (are) upon the most severe star from the sky (in) illumination, then those, after that, (are divided in varying) stations (and statuses). They do not defecate, and they do not urinate, and they do not blow their nose, and they do not spit. Their characters are upon the character of one man upon the form of their father ʿĀdam, 60 cubits.”⁹⁷

The Lowest of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً لِرَجُلٍ لَهُ دَارٌ مِنْ لَوْلُؤَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهَا غُرْفَتُهَا وَأَبْوَابُهَا

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-‘A‘mash, from Mujāhid, from ‘Ubayd ibn ‘Umayr⁹⁸, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in) status is surely a man, for him a house from a single pearl, from it (are) its chambers and its doors.”⁹⁹

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ، عَنْ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: إِنَّ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لِيُؤْتَى بِغَدَائِهِ فِي سَبْعِينَ أَلْفٍ صَحْفَةٍ، فِي كُلِّ صَحْفَةٍ لَوْنٌ لَيْسَ كَالْآخَرِ، فَيَجِدُ لِلْآخَرِ لَذَةً أَوْلَهُ لَيْسَ فِيهِ رَذُلٌ

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-‘A‘mash, from a man, from Ka‘b, he said: “Indeed the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in) status (on) the Day of Resurrection is surely brought at his breakfast in 70,000 plates, in every plate a colour unlike the other, so he finds to the last a delight (like) his first (plate), there is not in it a reprehensible (plate of food).”¹⁰⁰

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنَّ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً مَنْ يَتَمَنَّى عَلَى اللَّهِ، فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: ذَلِكَ وَمِثْلُهُ مَعَهُ، وَيُلْقَنُ كَذًّا وَكَذًّا، فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: ذَلِكَ لَكَ وَمِثْلُهُ مَعَهُ، فَقَالَ أَبُو سَعِيدٍ الْخُدْرِيُّ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: ذَلِكَ لَهُ وَعَشْرَةُ أَمْثَالِهِ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr¹⁰¹, from Abī Salamah, from Abī Hurayrah, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed the lowest of the ⁹⁸ He is either al-Laythī or another the Mawlā of Ibn ‘Abbās or ‘Umm al-Faḍl. If it is the former then this weakens the narration since he was a Tābi‘ī and not a Companion, therefore rendering the narration as Mursal and weak. If it is the latter, then it renders the narration weak since he is Majhūl.

⁹⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33997- 7/33. It was recorded in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ by Ibn Abī ad-Dunyā no.174, and in ‘az-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.126, and in ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nu‘aym al-Aṣfahānī 3/274, both from ‘Ubayd ibn ‘Umayr, rendering them both weak.

¹⁰⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 33998- 7/34. The narration is mubham since there is a narrator whose name is not mentioned, therefore weakening it. It was recorded in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ of Abū Nu‘aym al-Aṣfahānī no.331 & 344.

¹⁰¹ He is Abū al-Ḥasan Muḥammad ibn ‘Amr ibn ‘Alqamah al-Laythī al-Madanī. His ḥāl: Ṣadūq / Ḥasan al-Ḥadīth (Truthful / Good in transmission); celebrated as the most prolific transmitter from Abū Salamah. Master critics widely validated him: al-Nasā‘ī and Ibn ‘Adī noted "there is no harm in him," Abū Ḥatīm called him passable (ṣāliḥ), and Ibn Ma‘īn authenticated him (thiqah), ranking him above peers like Suhayl. However, he fell just short of elite, flawless precision (thabt). When strict critic Yahyā ibn Sa‘īd al-Qaṭṭān was asked how to evaluate him, he responded, "He is not who you are looking for." Consequently, al-Bukhārī and Muslim did not rely on his solitary reports as primary evidence, utilizing him strictly for corroboration (mutāba‘ah and maqrūnan). Ultimately, his structural reliability is sound people of al-Jannah (in) status (is) who wishes upon Allāh, so He says to him: ‘This is for you and its like with it.’, and he is prompted ‘such and such’, so He says to him: ‘That is for you and its like with it.’“ So, Abū Sa‘īd al-Kḥudrī said: The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “That is for you and ten of its like.”¹⁰²

حَدَّثَنَا حُسَيْنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ، عَنْ أَبِي الْحَرِّ، عَنْ نُؤَيْرٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: إِنَّ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً مَنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى مُلْكِهِ أَلْفِي عَامٍ يَرَى أَقْصَاهُ كَمَا يَرَى أَدْنَاهُ، وَإِنَّ أَفْضَلَ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً مَنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى وَجْهِ اللَّهِ فِي كُلِّ يَوْمٍ مَرَّتَيْنِ

Husayn ibn ‘Alī narrated to us, from Abī al-Hurr¹⁰³, from Nuwayr¹⁰⁴, from Ibn ‘Umar, he said: “Indeed the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in) status looks to his kingdom (for) 2,000 years, he says its furthest just as he sees its closest, and indeed the best of the people of al-Jannah (in) status (is) who looks to the Face of Allāh in every day two times.”¹⁰⁵

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: Jarīr ibn ‘Uṭhmān informed me, he said: Sulaymān ibn Numayr al-‘Alhānī narrated to us, he said: Kaṭhīr ibn Murrah al-Ḥaḍramī narrated to us, he said: “Indeed the Companions...”¹⁰⁶

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، قَالَ أَخْبَرَنَا جَرِيرُ بْنُ عُثْمَانَ، عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ لَيَجِيءُ فَتَشْرَفُ عَلَيْهِ النِّسَاءُ فَيَقُلْنَ: يَا فُلَانُ بْنُ فُلَانٍ، مَا أَنْتَ حِينَ خَرَجْتَ مِنْ عِنْدَنَا بِأُولَى بِكَ مِنَّا، فَيَقُولُ: وَمَنْ أَنْتُنَّ؟ فَيَقُلْنَ: نَحْنُ مِنَ اللَّاتِي قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى: {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مِمَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ} [السجدة: ١٧]

¹⁰² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣḥaybah 33999- 7/34. Ḥasan. It was recorded in ‘al-Musnad’ of Imām Aḥmad no.9815, and in ‘Sunan ad-Dārimī’ no.2871, and in ‘Musnad Abū Ya‘lā’ no.5939, and its origin is in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī’ no.6573 and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.2968

¹⁰³ I couldn’t find anything on him.

¹⁰⁴ Likewise, I couldn’t find anything on him.

¹⁰⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣḥaybah 34001- 7/34. The original manuscript was blank, and in another print, it is actually ‘the clouds’ and not ‘the Companions’. The complete narration can be found in ‘Tafsīr Ibn Abī Ḥātim’ (no. 18644), ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nu‘aym al-Aṣfahānī 5/214, and ‘al-Durr al-Manṭhūr’ (7/608).

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: Jarīr ibn ‘Uṭhmān¹⁰⁷ informed us, from Sulaymān ibn Numayr¹⁰⁸, from Sufyān ibn ‘Umayr¹⁰⁹, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Umar, he said: “Indeed a man from the people of al-Jannah surely comes, so the women look over him, so they say: ‘O so-and-so the son of so-and-so, you are not, when you left from our presence, more deserving to you than us.’ So, he says: ‘Who are you?’ So, they say: ‘We are from those Allāh, High be He, said (concerning): {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ} [as-Sajdah: 17]”¹¹⁰

What is Written In The Tawrāh About al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْأَحْوَصِ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ: إِنَّهُ لَمَكْتُوبٌ فِي التَّوْرَةِ: لَقَدْ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لِلَّذِينَ تَتَجَافَى جُنُوبُهُمْ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ مَا لَمْ تَرَوْهُمْ وَلَمْ تَسْمَعْ أَذُنٌ وَلَا خَطَرَ عَلَى قُلُوبِ بَشَرٍ، وَمَا لَا يَعْلَمُهُ مَلَكٌ وَلَا مُرْسَلٌ، قَالَ: وَنَحْنُ نَقْرَأُهَا: {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ} [السجدة: ١٧] إِلَى آخِرِ الْآيَةِ

Abū al-ʿAḥwaṣ narrated to us, from Abī Ishāq¹¹¹, from Abī ‘Ubaydah¹¹², he said: ‘Abd Allāh said: “Indeed it is written in at-Tawrāh: “Surely Allāh has prepared for those, their sides forsake their beds, what an eye has not seen, and an ear has not heard, and has not come across a heart of a human, and what an angel nor a messengers knows.”” He said: “And

¹⁰⁸ The name Numayr (نمير) is a scribal distortion (taṣḥīf) caused by the unpointed letters of the manuscript. His correct identity is Sulaymān ibn Shumayr (شمير) al-Alhānī, a documented Levantine narrator. This correction is firmly established by major biographical dictionaries and indexes of narrator names, such as ‘Tahḍīb al-Kamāl’ (11/243), ‘al-Iṣābah’ (3/532), ‘Tahḍīb Mustamirr al-Awhām’ (1/273), and ‘Tawḍīḥ al-Musḥtabah’ (5/362).

¹⁰⁹ He is majhūl, rendering the narration weak.

¹¹⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34002- 7/34

we recite it: {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُم مِّن قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ} [as-Sajdah: 17], to the end of the verse.¹¹³

The Tafsīr of {وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ زُمَرًا}

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعُ بْنُ الْجَرَّاحِ، عَنْ إِسْرَائِيلَ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ ضَمْرَةَ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَلِيًّا، يَقُولُ: {وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ زُمَرًا} [الزمر: ٧٣] حَتَّى إِذَا انْتَهَوْا إِلَى بَابٍ مِّنْ أَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ وَجَدُوا عِنْدَ بَابِهَا شَجَرَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ تَحْتِ سَاقِهَا عَيْنَانِ فَيَأْتُونَ إِحْدَاهُمَا كَأَنَّمَا أَمَرُوا بِهَا فَيَتَطَهَّرُونَ فِيهَا، فَتَجْرِي [٣٥] عَلَيْهِمْ نَضْرَةُ النَّعِيمِ، قَالَ: فَلَا تَتَعَبَّرُ أَبْشَارُهُمْ بَعْدَهَا أَبَدًا، وَلَا تُشَعِّثُ شُعُورُهُمْ بَعْدَهَا أَبَدًا، كَأَنَّمَا دَهَنُوا قَالَ: ثُمَّ يَعْمِدُونَ إِلَى الْأُخْرَى فَيَتَشَرَّبُونَ مِنْهَا فَتَذْهَبُ مَا فِي بَطُونِهِمْ مِنْ أَدَى، وَقَدَى، وَتَتَلَقَّاهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ فَيَقُولُونَ {سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ طِبْتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا خَالِدِينَ} [الزمر: ٧٣] قَالَ: وَيَتَلَقَّى كُلُّ غُلَامٍ صَاحِبَهُمْ يُطِيبُونُ بِهِ فِعْلَ الْوُلْدَانِ بِالْحَمِيمِ يَفْدَمُ مِنَ الْغَيْبَةِ، يَقُولُونَ: أَبَشِرْ قَدْ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَكَ مِنَ الْكَرَامَةِ كَذَا، وَيَسِيقُ غُلَامَانِ مِنْ غُلَامَانِهِ إِلَى أَرْوَاحِهِ مِنَ الْحُورِ الْعِينِ فَيَقُولُونَ: هَذَا فَلَانٌ بِاسْمِهِ فِي الدُّنْيَا قَدْ أَتَاكَ، قَالَ: فَيَقْلَنَ: أَنْتُمْ رَأَيْتُمُوهُ، فَيَقُولُونَ: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: فَيَسْتَحْفَهُنَّ الْفَرَحُ حَتَّى يَخْرُجْنَ إِلَى أَسْكَنَةِ الْبَابِ، قَالَ: وَيَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ فَإِذَا نَمَارِقُ مَصْفُوفَةٌ وَأَكْوَابُ مَوْضُوعَةٌ وَرَرَابِي مَبْنُوثَةٌ، فَيَتَكَيُّ عَلَى أَرِيكَةٍ مِنْ أَرَاكِهِ، قَالَ: فَيَنْظُرُ إِلَى تَأْسِيسِ بُنْيَانِهِ فَإِذَا هُوَ قَدْ أُسِّسَ عَلَى جَنْدَلِ اللَّوْلُؤِ بَيْنَ أَصْفَرٍ وَأَحْمَرَ وَأَخْضَرَ وَمِنْ كُلِّ لَوْنٍ، قَالَ: ثُمَّ يَرْفَعُ طَرَفَهُ إِلَى سَفْهِهِ فَلَوْ لَا أَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدَّرَهُ لَهُ لَأَلَمَ بَصَرُهُ أَنْ يَذْهَبَ بِالْبَرَقِ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ {وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي هَدَانَا لِهَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لِنَهْتَدِيَ لَوْلَا أَنَّ هَدَانَا اللَّهُ} [الأعراف: ٤٣]

Wakīʿ ibn al-Jarrāḥ narrated to us, from Isrāʿīl, from Abī Ishāq, from ʿĀsim ibn Ḍamrah, he said: I heard ʿAlī saying: “{وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ زُمَرًا} [az-Zumar: 73], Until, when they stop to a gate from the gates of al-Jannah they find at its gate a tree, from beneath its two trunks emerges two springs, so they come to one of them as if they were commanded with it, so they purify (themselves) in it, so the radiance of pleasure flows upon them.” He said: “So their skins never become dusty after that ever, nor do their hair become unkempt after that ever, as if they were oiled.” He said: “Then they intend (to go) to the other, so they drink from it, so what was in their bellies from harm and impurity goes away, and the angels meet them, so they say: {سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ طِبْتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا خَالِدِينَ} [az-Zumar: 73].” He said: “And every young servant receives their companion (meaning their master from the people of al-Jannah), circulating by him (like) the action of children by an intimate loved one returning from the absence (of a journey), saying: ‘Rejoice! Allāh has certainly prepared this for you from honour.’ And young servants from his young servants precede to his wives from al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn, so they say: ‘This is so-and-so, with his name from ad-Dunyā, he has come to you.’” He said: “So they (al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn) say: ‘You (all) have (actually) seen him?’ So, they say: ‘Yes.’” He said: “So, joy

The Beauty & Appearance of the People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ أَبِي مَالِكٍ الْأَشْجَعِيِّ، عَنْ خَالِدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: وَالَّذِي أَنْزَلَ الْكِتَابَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، إِنَّ أَهْلَ الْجَنَّةِ لَيَزِدُّونَ جَمَالًا وَحُسْنًا كَمَا يَزِدُّونَ فِي الدُّنْيَا قَبَاحَةً وَهَرَمًا

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Abī Mālik al-ʿAshjaʿī¹¹⁵, from Khālīd¹¹⁶, from Abī Hurayrah, he said: “By the One who revealed the Book upon Muḥammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ,

¹¹⁵ He is Abū Mālik al-ʿAshjaʿī, Saʿd ibn Ṭāriq ibn Ashyam al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah / Ṣadūq (Trustworthy / Truthful). He is a reliable Kūfan narrator. The master critics Imām Aḥmad and Yaḥyā ibn Maʿīn both explicitly graded him as ṭhiqah. Al-Nasāʾī stated “there is no harm in him” (laysa bihi baʿs), and Abū Ḥātim said his ḥadīth is sound/good (ṣāliḥ al-ḥadīth) and should be written down. The only specific caveat mentioned is by al-ʿUqaylī, who noted that Abū Mālik is not corroborated (lā yutābaʿu) specifically in his narration regarding the Qunūt supplication. He narrated from Companions like Anas ibn Mālik and ʿAbd Allāh ibn Abī Awfā, and his students include Sufyān al-Ṭhawrī and Yazīd ibn Hārūn

¹¹⁶ In another print he is named as Abū Ḥāzim al-ʿAshjaʿī, and he is Salmān al-Kūfī, the freed slave (mawlā) of ʿAzzah. His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah (Trustworthy). He was a highly reliable Kūfan muḥaddīth. The master critics Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal and Yaḥyā ibn Maʿīn both explicitly graded him as ṭhiqah. The symbol (ع) denotes that his narrations are relied upon as proof in all six of the major canonical ḥadīth collections (al-Kutub al-Sittah). He is particularly distinguished as a dedicated companion and student of Abū Hurayrah, having reportedly sat with him for five years and narrated from him extensively. In addition to Abū Hurayrah, he also heard from other major Companions, including ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿUmar and al-Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī. His knowledge was transmitted by a prominent group of scholars and narrators, including Manṣūr, al-Aʿmash, Muḥammad ibn Juḥādah, Furāt al-Qazzāz, Nuʿaym ibn Abī Ḥumayd, Yazīd ibn Kaysān, and Fuḍayl ibn Ġazwān. He passed away during the caliphate of ʿUmar ibn ʿAbd al-ʿAzīz, close to the year 100 AH.

indeed the people of al-Jannah surely increase in beauty and comeliness just as they (used to) increase in the Dunyā in ugliness and senility.”¹¹⁷

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ حَمَّادِ بْنِ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ رَيْدٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: يَدْخُلُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ الْجَنَّةَ جُرْدًا مُرْدًا بَيَاضًا جَعَادًا مُكْحَلِينَ أَبْنَاءَ ثَلَاثٍ وَثَلَاثِينَ عَلَى خَلْقِ آدَمَ، طُولُهُ سِتُونَ ذِرَاعًا فِي عَرْضِ سَبْعِ أَذْرُعٍ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Ḥammād ibn Salamah, from ‘Alī ibn Zayd¹¹⁸, from Sa‘īd ibn al-Musayyib, from Abī Hurayrah, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “The people of al-Jannah enter al-Jannah hairless (on their bodies), beardless, white (and fair-skinned in complexion), curly-haired, (with) kohl-rimmed (eyes), sons 33 (years of age), upon the creation of ‘Ādam; his height is 60 cubits, in width 7 cubits.”¹¹⁹

The Young-Servants of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ إِسْرَائِيلَ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ أَبِي الْأَخْوَصِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: يَقُولُ غُلَمَانُ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ: مَنْ أَيْنَ نَقُطِفُ لَكَ؟ مَنْ أَيْنَ نَسْقِيكَ؟

¹¹⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34005 - 7/35. It was recorded in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ of Abū Nu‘aym no.264.

¹¹⁸ He is ‘Alī ibn Zayd ibn Jud‘ān, Abū al-Ḥasan al-Qurashī al-Taymī al-Baṣrī. His ḥāl: Ḍa‘īf (Weak) due to poor memory and ikhtilāṭ (deterioration), though ṣadūq (Truthful) in character and recognized as an Imam of vast knowledge. Born blind, he was a prominent Baṣran scholar who even succeeded al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī in his teaching seat. However, his flawed memory prevented him from achieving precision (itqān), leading strict critics like Aḥmad, al-Bukhārī, and Abū Zur‘ah to reject him as an independent proof. This poor retention caused specific technical errors: Shu‘bah noted he was a raffā‘ (erroneously elevating stopped reports to the Prophet ﷺ), and Ḥammād ibn Zayd mentioned he frequently inverted traditions. Additionally, he suffered severe cognitive decline (ikhtilāṭ) in old age—though Shu‘bah narrated from him prior to this—and biographers noted a slight tashayyū‘ in him. He passed away in 131 AH.

¹¹⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34006 - 7/35. It was recorded in ‘Musnad Imām Aḥmad’ no.7933 (and it will appear with a connected chain under no.8524, no.9375, and no.10913, with the final occurrence being abridged, and it previously appeared under no.7165 via the route of Abū Ṣāliḥ, from Abū Hurayrah, as a marfū‘ narration: ‘Indeed, the first group to enter al-Jannah will be upon the form of Ādam, being sixty cubits tall.’), and in ‘al-Mu‘jam al-Ṣaḡhīr’ of al-Ṭabarānī no.808, and in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ of Abū Nu‘aym no.255, and in ‘al-Kāmil fi Ḍu‘afā’ al-Rijāl’ of Ibn ‘Adī 5/1842, and in ‘al-Ba‘ṭh wa-al-Nushūr’ of al-Bayhaqī no.419, and in ‘al-Ṭabaqāt al-Kubrā’ of Ibn Sa‘d 1/32, and in ‘al-Ba‘ṭh’ of Ibn Abī Dāwūd no.64, and with a similar meaning but variant wording in ‘Ṣaḡhīḥ al-Bukhārī’ no.3327, and in ‘Ṣaḡhīḥ Muslim’ no.2834. And it was also recorded in ‘Sunan al-Tirmidhī’ no.2539, and in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ of Abū Nu‘aym no.256, from the ḥadīth of Mu‘ādh ibn Hishām, from his father, from ‘Āmir al-Aḥwal, from Shahr ibn Ḥawshab, from Abū Hurayrah, who said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: ‘The people of al-Jannah are hairless, beardless, and have kohl-rimmed eyes; their youth does not fade, and their clothes do not wear out.’ Its chain contains Shahr ibn Ḥawshab, and he is ḍa‘īf (weak), and al-Tirmidhī said: ‘Ḥasan Ḡharīb’.

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Isrāʾīl¹²⁰, from Abī Ishāq, from Abī al-ʿAḥwaṣ, from ʿAbd Allāh, he said: “The young-servants of the people of al-Jannah say: ‘From where do we pluck (fruits) for you? From where shall we give you to drink?’”¹²¹

What Has Been Mentioned Regarding The Worldly Suffering of Allāh’s Allies Compared to Their Bliss in Paradise, and the Worldly Luxury of His Enemies Compared to Hellfire

حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ مُسْهِرٍ، عَنِ الْأَجْلَحِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي الْهُذَيْلِ، أَنَّ مُوسَى، أَوْ غَيْرَهُ مِنَ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ قَالَ: يَا رَبِّ، كَيْفَ يَكُونُ هَذَا مِنْكَ؟ أَوْلِيَاؤُكَ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَائِعُونَ يُقْتَلُونَ، وَيَطْلُبُونَ فَلَا يُعْطَوْنَ وَأَعْدَاؤُكَ يَأْكُلُونَ مَا شَاءُوا وَيَشْرَبُونَ مَا شَاءُوا وَنَحْوُ هَذَا، فَقَالَ: انْطَلِقُوا بَعْدِي إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ فَيَنْظُرُ مَا لَمْ يَرَ مِثْلَهُ قَطُّ إِلَى أَكْوَابٍ مَوْضُوعَةٍ وَنَمَارِقٍ مَصْفُوفَةٍ وَزَرَائِبٍ مَبْنُوتَةٍ، وَإِلَى الْخُورِ الْعَيْنِ وَإِلَى النَّمَارِ وَإِلَى الْخَدَمِ كَأَنَّهُمْ لَوْلَوْ مَكُونُونَ، فَقَالَ: مَا ضَرَّ أَوْلِيَائِي مَا أَصَابَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا إِذَا كَانَ مَصِيرُهُمْ إِلَى هَذَا، ثُمَّ قَالَ: انْطَلِقُوا بَعْدِي هَذَا، فَإَنْطَلِقُ بِهِ إِلَى النَّارِ فَيَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا عُنُقُ فَصْعِقِ الْعَبْدُ، ثُمَّ أَفَاقَ فَقَالَ: مَا نَفَعَ أَعْدَائِي مَا أُعْطِيَتْهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا إِذَا كَانَ مَصِيرُهُمْ إِلَى هَذَا؟، قَالَ: لَا شَيْءَ

ʿAlī ibn Mushar narrated to us, from al-ʿAjlāḥ¹²², from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Abī al-Hudḥayl, that Mūsā, or other than him from the Prophets said: “O Lord, how can this be from you? Your allies on the earth go hungry, are killed, and seek but they are not given, and your enemies eat what they desire and drink what they desire.”, and the likes of this, so He said: “Set out with my servant to al-Jannah”, so he sees the likes he has not seen ever, (and he looks) to cups placed, and cushions arranged in rows, and soft, rich carpets spread out, and to al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn, and to the fruits, and to the servants as if they are ¹²⁰ He is Isrāʾīl ibn Yūnus ibn Abī Ishāq, Abū Yūsuf al-Sabīʿī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy) and a reliable ḥāfiẓ. Master critics including Aḥmad, Ibn Maʿīn, and Abū Ḥātim universally authenticated him, with Aḥmad highlighting his precise preservation due to strict reliance on written records (ṣāhib kitāb). He is celebrated as the ultimate authority on the narrations of his grandfather, Abū Ishāq al-Sabīʿī—serving as his guide and recording his statements meticulously, which caused critics to favor his precision over even Shuʿbah and Sufyān in this regard. Although Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān abstained from him for transmitting from weak sources, Ibn Maʿīn clarified that this does not impair his personal reliability. Ibn Ḥajar summarized him as trustworthy and criticized without proof. He passed away between 160 and 164 AH.

¹²¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34007 - 7/35. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

¹²² He is al-ʿAjlāḥ ibn ʿAbd Allāh ibn Ḥujayyah al-Kindī, Abū Ḥujayyah al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Ṣadūq (Truthful), but criticized for memory flaws and Kūfan Shi'a leanings. While prolific and transmitted from by scholars like Sufyān al-Thawrī and Shuʿbah, his reliability is heavily conditioned by technical deficiencies—such as confusing the chains of ʿAlī ibn al-Ḥusayn and al-Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī and transmitting rejected (munkar) reports—leading critics like Aḥmad and Abū Ḥātim to reject him as an independent proof. However, figures like Ibn Maʿīn and Ibn ʿAdī viewed him as honest and his traditions "straight" when used as supporting evidence (mutābaʿah). Thus, he is widely regarded as a truthful narrator whose honesty is recognized, even if he lacked the precision of the highest tier of trustworthy (thiqah) narrators.

preserved pearls. So, He said: “What harmed My allies (and) what afflicted them in ad-Dunyā when their outcome is to this?” Then He said: “Set out with my servant this (one).”, so he set out with him to the Hellfire, and a neck emerges from it, so the servant fainted, then came to, so He said: “What benefits My enemies (from) what You gave them when their outcome is to this?” He said: “Nothing.”¹²³

The Jewellery of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي عُبَيْسَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ، قَاضِي الرِّيِّ عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ أَبِي الْمُغِيرَةِ، عَنْ شِمْرِ بْنِ عَطِيَّةٍ، عَنْ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَلَكًا، يَصُوعُ خَلِيَّ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ خُلِقَ إِلَى أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّاعَةُ وَلَوْ أَنَّ خَلِيًّا مِنْ خَلِيٍّ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ أُخْرِجَ لَذَهَبَ بِضَوْءِ شُعَاعِ الشَّمْسِ، فَلَا تَسْأَلُوا بَعْدَهَا عَنْ خَلِيٍّ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ

Zayd ibn al-Ḥubāb narrated to us, he said: ‘Anbasah ibn Sa‘īd, the Judge of ar-Rayy, narrated to me, from Ja‘far ibn Abī al-Muḡhīrah, from Shīmr ibn ‘Aṭiyyah, from Ka‘b, he said: “Indeed to Allāh is an angel, it fashions the jewellery of the people of al-Jannah from the day it was created until (the day) that the Hour is established, and if a single piece of the jewellery from the jewellery of the people of al-Jannah emerged it would surely go away with the brightness of the rays of the Sun (meaning blot it and eclipse it totally), so do not ask after that about the jewellery of the people of al-Jannah.”¹²⁴

What is Mentioned Regarding Children In al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي مَلِيحٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، يَقُولُ: فِي الْجَنَّةِ مَا شَاءُوا وَلَا وَلَدٌ، قَالَ: فَيَنْظُرُ النَّظْرَةَ فَيَنْشَأُ لَهُ الشَّهْوَةُ، ثُمَّ يَنْظُرُ النَّظْرَةَ فَيَنْشَأُ لَهُ شَهْوَةٌ أُخْرَى

Abū ‘Usāmah narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Abī Malīḥ¹²⁵, he said: I heard Ibrāhīm¹²⁶ saying: “In al-Jannah (there is) whatever they will, and no child.” He said: “So he looks the look, so a desire is created for him, then he looks the look, so another desire is created for him.”¹²⁷

حَدَّثَنَا مُعَاوِيَةُ بْنُ هِشَامٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ مُنْصَوِّرٍ، قَالَ سَمِعْتُ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ، أَفِي الْجَنَّةِ وَلَدٌ؟ قَالَ: إِنْ شَاءُوا

¹²³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34008 - 7/35. Ḥasan, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt besides al-‘Ajlah

¹²⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34009 - 7/36. Its narrators are Ṭhiqāt, but I do not know if Shīmr ibn ‘Aṭiyyah had met and narrated from Ka‘b, so this narration is likely munqaṭi‘ (disconnected).

¹²⁵ In another print he is named as ‘Abū Balj’ instead, and he was Ṭhiqah.

¹²⁶ Allāh knows best who this is.

¹²⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34010 - 7/36. Due to the obscurity of Ibrāhīm this narration is weak.

Mu‘āwiyah ibn Hishām¹²⁸ narrated to us, he said: Sufyān narrated to us, from Manṣūr¹²⁹, he said: Ibn ‘Abbās was asked: ‘Is there in al-Jannah children?’ He said: “If they will.”¹³⁰

The Last of The People of al-Jannah to Enter al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ، عَنْ مُوسَى بْنِ عُبَيْدَةَ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ كَعْبٍ، عَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ الْأَشْجَعِيِّ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنِّي لَأَعْلَمُ آخِرَ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ دُخُولًا الْجَنَّةَ، رَجُلًا كَانَ يَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ أَنْ يُرْخِزَهِ عَنِ النَّارِ، إِذَا دَخَلَ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ الْجَنَّةَ وَأَهْلُ النَّارِ النَّارَ كَانَ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ: يَا رَبِّ، ادْنُنِي مِنْ بَابِ الْجَنَّةِ، فَقِيلَ: يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ، أَلَمْ تَسْأَلْ أَنْ تُرْخِزَ عَنِ النَّارِ، فَقَالَ: وَمَنْ مِثْلَكَ، فَادْنُنِي مِنْ بَابِ الْجَنَّةِ، فَتَنَظَّرَ إِلَى شَجَرَةٍ عِنْدَ بَابِ الْجَنَّةِ فَقَالَ: ادْنُنِي مِنْهَا لِأَسْتَظِلَّ بِظِلِّهَا وَأَكُلَ مِنْ ثَمَرِهَا، قَالَ: يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ أَلَمْ تَقُلْ، فَقَالَ: يَا رَبِّ، وَمَنْ مِثْلَكَ، فَادْنُنِي مِنْهَا وَإِلَى أَفْضَلِ مِنْ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ: يَا رَبِّ، ادْنُنِي، فَقَالَ: يَا ابْنَ آدَمَ، أَلَمْ تَقُلْ، حَتَّى قَالَ: يَا رَبِّ وَمَنْ مِثْلَكَ، فَادْنُنِي، فَقِيلَ، اعْدُ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: الْعَدُو: الشُّدُّ فَلَكَ مَا بَلَغَتْهُ قَدَمَاكَ وَرَأَتْهُ عَيْنَاكَ، قَالَ: فَيَعْدُو حَتَّى إِذَا بَلَغَ يَعْصِي: أَعْيَا قَالَ: يَا رَبِّ، هَذَا لِي وَهَذَا لِي، فَيُقَالُ: لَكَ مِثْلُهُ وَأَضْعَافُهُ فَيَقُولُ: قَدْ رَضِيَ عَنِّي رَبِّي، فَلَوْ أَدِنَ لِي فِي كِسْوَةِ أَهْلِ الدُّنْيَا وَطَعَامِهِمْ لَأَوْسَعْتُهُمْ

Zayd ibn al-Ḥubāb narrated to us, from Mūsā ibn ‘Ubaydah¹³¹, he said: Muḥammad ibn Ka‘b narrated to me, from ‘Awf ibn Mālik al-‘Ashja‘ī, he said: The Messenger of Allāh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said: “Indeed I surely know the last of the people of al-Jannah entering al-Jannah - a man, he used to ask Allāh that He draw him away from the Fire. When the people of ¹²⁸ He is Mu‘āwiyah ibn Hishām al-Qaṣṣār, Abū al-Ḥasan al-Kūfī, a mawlā of the Banī Asad. His ḥāl: Generally classified as ṣadūq (Truthful) with occasional errors. He was recognized as a foremost authority on the narrations of Sharīk al-Nakha‘ī. His standing among classical critics varied: Abū Dāwūd graded him thiqah, while Abū Ḥatīm ar-Rāzī labelled him ṣadūq, noting his reports were “straighter” than those of his peers. Conversely, Ibn Ma‘īn offered a more reserved evaluation, calling him “righteous, but not that strong” (ṣāliḥ wa laysa bi-dhāk), and Ibn Ḥibbān included him in al-Thiqāt while acknowledging his occasional mistakes. He passed away in 204 or 205 AH, and his narrations are recorded in major collections, including al-Bukhārī’s al-Adab.

¹²⁹ He is Manṣūr ibn al-Mu‘tamir al-Sulamī, Abū ‘Attāb al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Thiqah Thabt (Trustworthy and firm); a preeminent Kūfan authority renowned for his extraordinary memory and precision, relying entirely on memorization rather than writing. Despite his high standing, al-Dhahabī notes that he never met or narrated directly from any Companion. Consequently, any report where he narrates directly from a Companion—including this one—is rendered disconnected (munqaṭi‘) and weak due to the missing link. He was celebrated for his piety and asceticism, famously refusing a judgeship under coercion. Al-‘Ijlī noted a “slight tashayyu” in him, which al-Dhahabī clarified was limited to love and allegiance. He passed away in 132 or 133 AH.

¹³⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣaybah 34011 - 7/36. It was recorded in ‘Tafsīr Ibn Abī Ḥatīm’ no.15019

¹³¹ He is Mūsā ibn ‘Ubaydah ibn Nashīṭ, Abū ‘Abd al-‘Azīz al-Rabadhī. His ḥāl: Ḍa‘īf (Weak) and munkar al-ḥadīth (narrator of rejected reports). Despite being recognized for his intense piety—which critics like al-Bazzār noted likely detracted from his scholarly precision—he was overwhelmingly rejected by master critics due to poor retention (hifẓ) and confusion. Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal dismissed him as “not anything” (laisa bi-shai‘) and forbade writing his reports, while Ibn Ma‘īn graded him weak, clarifying that though he was not a liar, his narrations were rejected. His weakness stemmed from specific technical defects: transmitting reports he did not directly hear or received merely via munāwalah (handing over books without audition), and severe unreliability in his transmissions from specific authorities, particularly ‘Abd Allāh ibn Dīnār. He passed away in 152 or 153 AH.

al-Jannah enter al-Jannah and the people of the Fire (enter) the Fire, he was between that, so he said: 'O Lord, draw me close from the gate of al-Jannah.' So, it is said: 'O son of 'Ādam, did you not ask that you are drawn away from the Fire.' So, he said: 'And who is like You? So, draw me close from the gate of al-Jannah.' So, he looked to a tree at the gate of al-Jannah, so he said: 'Draw me close from that so I may shade myself with its shade and eat from its fruit.' He said: 'O son of 'Ādam, did you not say (that you would not ask for more)?' So, he said: 'O Lord, and who is like You? So, draw me close from it and to what is better than that.' So, he said: 'O Lord, draw me close.' So, He said: 'O son of 'Ādam, did you not say (that you would not ask for more)?', until he said: 'O Lord, and who is like You? So, draw me close.' So, it is said: 'Run.' - Abū Bakr (Ibn Abī Shaybah) said: al-'Adw (means): ash-Shadd (sprinting) - 'So, for you what your two feet reached and your two eyes saw.'“ He said: “So, he runs until when he balaha - meaning: he grew tired. - he said: 'O Lord, this is for me and this is for me.' So, it is said: 'For you its like and its multiple.' So, he says: 'My Lord has become pleased from me, so if my Lord permitted for me in the clothing of the people of the Dunyā and their food, I would surely have accommodated them.’“¹³²

Yahyā ibn Abī Bukayr narrated to us, he said: Zuhayr ibn Muḥammad¹³³ narrated to us, from Suhayl ibn Abī Ṣāliḥ¹³⁴, from an-Nu‘mān ibn Abī ‘Ayyāsh, from Abī Sa‘īd al-Khudrī, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Indeed the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in status (is) a man, Allāh turned his face from the Fire before (entering him into) al-Jannah, and a tree possessing shade and fruit was made to appear for him, so he said: ‘O Lord, advance me to this tree, (so) I may be in its shade and eat from its fruit.’ So, Allāh said: ‘Would you then, if I do (that), that you ask me (about) other than it?’ So, he said: ‘No, by Your Honour.’ So, Allāh advanced him to it. Then, another tree possessing shade and fruit and water was made to appear to him, so he says: ‘O Lord, advance me to this tree, (so) I may be in its shade and eat from its fruit and drink from its water.’ So, Allāh said: ‘Would you then, if I do (that), that you ask me (about) other than it?’ So, he says: ‘No, by Your Honour, I do not ask you (for) other than it.’ So, Allāh advances him to it.” He said: “Then, the gate of al-Jannah is made manifest, so he says: ‘O Lord, advance me to the gate of al-Jannah so I may be under the fruits of al-Jannah and look to its people.’ So, Allāh advances him to it, so he sees the people of al-Jannah and what is in it, so he says: ‘O Lord, enter me (into) al-Jannah.’ So Allāh enters him (into) al-Jannah, so when he enters al-Jannah, he said: ‘This and this is for me.’ So Allāh says: ‘Wish.’, so he wishes, (and) Allāh points out: ‘Ask from such-and-such.’, until when his wishes with him are cut off, Allāh said: ‘It is for you and ten its like.’” He said: “Then he enters his house, so his two wives from al-Ḥūr al-‘In enter upon him, so they both say to him: ‘All ¹³³ He is Zuhayr ibn Muḥammad, Abū al-Mundhir al-Tamīmī al-‘Anbarī, al-Marwazī al-Makkī. His ḥāl: ṭhiqah (Trustworthy), but with a well-documented geographic split in reliability. His reports via Iraqi/Basran narrators (e.g., Ibn Mahdī, Abū ‘Āmir al-‘Aqadī) are consistently graded ṣaḥīḥ and mustaqīm al-ḥadīth (sound and reliable) by al-Bukhārī, Aḥmad, and Ibn ‘Adī. Conversely, his reports via Shāmī narrators (e.g., al-Walīd ibn Muslim) are consistently rejected (munkar, bāṭil), with Aḥmad suggesting the Shāmīs may have confused him with an entirely different narrator. Abū Ḥātim explained that this occurred because Zuhayr narrated from memory while in Shām—causing frequent errors (kathura ghalatuhu)—whereas what he narrated from his books remained sound (ṣāliḥ). Ibn Ḥajar’s final verdict synthesizes this: ṭhiqah, except that the Shāmī transmission from him is unsound (ghayr mustaqīmah). Al-Dhahabī noted he is ṭhiqah who sometimes brings unusual or rejected material (yaghrubu wa-ya’tī bi-mā yunkar).

¹³⁴ He is Suhayl ibn Abī Ṣāliḥ Dhakwān, Abū Yazīd al-Sammān al-Madanī. His ḥāl: ṣadūq (Truthful), whose memory deteriorated towards the end of his life. Aḥmad praised his traditions, and Ibn ‘Adī accepted him, highlighting his precision in discerning what he heard directly from his father versus through intermediaries. However, critics noted a decline in his retention: al-Bukhārī attributed his memory loss to intense grief after his brother’s death, while others cited a severe physical illness (pleurisy). Consequently, Ibn Ma‘īn and Abū Ḥātim stated his ḥadīth is written but not utilized as an independent proof. Despite this later decline, major compilers including Ibn Ḥibbān, al-Ḥākim, and al-Dāraquṭnī extracted his traditions, and al-Nasā’ī strongly defended his trustworthiness. He passed away between 138 and 141 AH (or 128 AH per Ibn Abī ‘Āṣim).

praises be to Allāh Who selected you for us, and selected us for you.’ So, he says: ‘Not one has been given what I have been given.’¹³⁵

The Tafsīr of {يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا}

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ، عَنْ عَلِيٍّ، فِي هَذِهِ الْآيَةِ: {يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا} [مريم: ٨٥] ثُمَّ قَالَ: هَلْ تَدْرُونَ عَلَى أَيِّ شَيْءٍ يُحْشَرُونَ؟ أَمَا وَاللَّهِ مَا يُحْشَرُونَ عَلَى أَقْدَامِهِمْ، وَلَكِنَّهُمْ يُؤْتَوْنَ بِئُوقٍ لَمْ تَرَ الْخَلَائِقُ مِثْلَهَا، عَلَيْهَا رِحَالُ الدَّهَبِ، وَأَرْمَتْهَا الزَّبَرَجَدُ، فَيَجْلِسُونَ عَلَيْهَا، ثُمَّ يَنْطَلِقُ بِهِمْ حَتَّى يَفْرَعُوا بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ

Abū Mu‘āwiyah¹³⁶ narrated to us, from ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Ishāq¹³⁷, from an-Nu‘mān ibn Sa‘d¹³⁸, from ‘Alī, regarding this verse: {يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا} [Maryam: 85], then he said: “Do you know upon what thing they will be gathered? Verily, by Allāh, they will not be gathered upon their feet, however their will come by a she-camel, the creation has not seen its like, upon it the saddle of gold, and its reins are chrysolite, so they sit upon it, then it proceeds with them until they knock the gate of al-Jannah.”¹³⁹

¹³⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34013 - 7/36. Ḥasan. It is recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.188, and ‘Musnad Imām Aḥmad’ no.11216.

¹³⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34014 - 7/37. It was recorded in ‘Musnad Imām Aḥmad’ no.1333, and in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 15/629.

حَدَّثَنَا قُرَادُ أَبُو نُوحٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا} [مريم: ٨٥]: عَلَى الْإِيلِ

Qurād Abū Nūh¹⁴⁰ narrated to us, he said: Shu‘bah narrated to us, from ‘Ismā‘īl ibn Abī Khālid, from Abī Hurayrah, regarding His statement: {يَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ الْمُتَّقِينَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ وَفْدًا} [Maryam: 85], (he said): “Upon the camel.”¹⁴¹

The Last of The People of The Fire to Exit The Fire

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، عَنْ عُبَيْدَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: إِنِّي لَأَعْرِفُ آخِرَ أَهْلِ النَّارِ خُرُوجًا مِنَ النَّارِ، رَجُلٌ يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا رَحْفًا فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: انْطَلِقْ فَادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ، قَالَ: فَيَذْهَبُ فَيَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ فَيَجِدُ النَّاسَ قَدْ اتَّخَذُوا الْمَنَازِلَ فَيَرْجِعُ فَيَقُولُ: يَا رَبِّ، قَدْ أَخَذَ النَّاسُ الْمَنَازِلَ، قَالَ: فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: أَتَذْكُرُ الزَّمَانَ الَّذِي كُنْتَ فِيهِ؟ فَيَقُولُ: نَعَمْ، قَالَ: فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: تَمَنَّ، فَيَتَمَنَّى فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: لَكَ الَّذِي تَمَنَيْتَ وَعَشْرَةُ أَضْعَافِ الدُّنْيَا، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ لَهُ: أَتَسْحَرُ بِي وَأَنْتَ الْمَلِكُ؟ قَالَ: لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَحِكَ حَتَّى بَدَتْ نَوَاجِدُهُ

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from al-‘A‘mash¹⁴², from Ibrāhīm¹⁴³, from ‘Ubaydah, from ‘Abd Allāh, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed I surely recognise the ¹⁴² He is Sulaymān ibn Mihrān, al-A‘mash, Abū Muḥammad al-Asadī al-Kāhilī. His ḥāl: Thiqah, ḥāfiẓ, and thabt; a towering Kūfan authority described by Ibn al-Madīnī as one of the six preservers of knowledge for the ummah. While Shu‘bah nicknamed him “al-Muṣḥaf” for his truthfulness, critics extensively documented him as a prolific mudallis. Al-Karābīsī specifically noted his tadlīs regarding teachers like Zayd ibn Wahb, Abū al-Ḍuḥā, Ibrāhīm al-Nakha‘ī, Abū Ṣāliḥ, Mujāhid, and al-Minhāl. Furthermore, he never heard directly from authorities including ‘Ikrimah, Nāfi‘, Ibn Buraydah, and critically Anas ibn Mālik—whom he saw without establishing audition (samā‘), transmitting his reports via intermediaries like Yazīd al-Raqāshī. Despite this, his chain from Ibrāhīm, from ‘Alqamah (or ‘Ubaydah), from Ibn Mas‘ūd is celebrated by Ibn Ma‘īn as the soundest of chains (aṣaḥḥ al-asānīd).

¹⁴³ He is Ibrāhīm ibn Yazīd al-Nakha‘ī, al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Thiqah; a preeminent jurist and landmark Kūfan authority praised by al-Sha‘bī above al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī and Ibn Sīrīn. Despite his mastery, his profile is defined by extensive irsāl and tadlīs: he never heard directly from any Companion, including Anas ibn Mālik (with one disputed exception per al-Bazzār) or ‘Ā’ishah, and lacked direct audition from senior successors like Masrūq and Abū ‘Abd Allāh al-Jadalī. Crucially, Ibrāhīm provided the key to reading his chains: stating “from a man, from Ibn Mas‘ūd” signalled direct audition, whereas simply saying “Ibn Mas‘ūd said” indicated multiple last of the people of the Fire exiting from the Fire - a man emerging from it, drawing away, so it is said to him: ‘Set off, so enter al-Jannah.’, so he finds the people have taken the dwellings (and stations), so he returns, so he says: ‘O lord, the people have taken the dwellings (and stations).’“ He said: “So it is said to him: ‘Do you remember the time (during your stay in the Hellfire) that you were in?’ So, he says: ‘Yes.’“ He said: “So, it is said to him: ‘Wish.’, so he wishes, so it is said to him: ‘For you is what you have wished (for), and ten multiples of the Dunyā.’“ He said: “So he says to Him: ‘Do You taunt me and You are al-Malik?’“ He (‘Abd Allāh) said: I saw the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ laugh until molar teeth appeared.¹⁴⁴

The Appearance of The First Group Who Enters al-Jannah and their Wives

حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُوسَى، عَنْ شَيْبَانَ، عَنْ فِرَاسٍ، عَنْ عَطِيَّةَ، عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: أَوَّلُ زُمْرَةٍ يَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ عَلَى صُورَةِ الْقَمَرِ لَيْلَةَ الْبَدْرِ، وَالتَّانِيَةُ عَلَى لَوْنِ أَحْسَنِ كَوْكَبٍ ذَرِيٍّ فِي السَّمَاءِ إِضَاءَةً، لِكُلِّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا زَوْجَتَانِ، عَلَى كُلِّ زَوْجَةٍ سَبْعُونَ حُلَّةً، يَبْدُو مَخُوفًا مِنْ رَأْيِهَا

‘Ubayd Allāh ibn Mūsā¹⁴⁵ narrated to us, from Shaybān¹⁴⁶, from Firās, from ‘Aṭiyyah¹⁴⁷, from Abī Sa‘īd, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “The first group (that) enters al-Jannah intermediaries. However, because his mursal traditions from Ibn Mas‘ūd circulated reliably among the tightly knit circle of Ibn Mas‘ūd’s six primary students (e.g., ‘Alqamah, ‘Ubaydah, Masrūq), major Imāms including al-Bayhaqī explicitly authenticated them as ṣaḥīḥ.

¹⁴⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34016 - 7/37. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī’ no.6571 and ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.188.

¹⁴⁵ He is ‘Ubayd Allāh ibn Mūsā ibn Abī al-Mukhtār, Abū Muḥammad al-‘Absī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah (Trustworthy) and a towering ḥāfiẓ, though marred by extreme tashayyu‘ and instability when narrating from Sufyān al-Ṭhawrī. While critics solidly affirmed his general trustworthiness—celebrating him as the paramount authority on Isrā‘īl ibn Yūnus—they noted he was "terribly unstable" in Sufyān’s reports due to acquiring that material at too young an age. Theologically, Abū Dāwūd described him as a "burnt Shī‘ī." His active transmission of bizarre sectarian reports (manākīr) provoked a high-profile boycott by Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal. However, authorities like Ibn Ma‘īn separated his theological innovation from his general precision, permitting his non-sectarian ḥadīth. He passed away between 212 and 214 AH.

¹⁴⁶ He is Shaybān ibn Farrūkh, Abū Muḥammad al-Ḥabaṭī al-Baṣrī. His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah (Trustworthy) to ṣadūq (Truthful), though noted for occasional mistakes (yahim) and his Qadarī creed. An immense ḥāfiẓ who possessed fifty thousand traditions, he was affirmed by master critics including Aḥmad, al-Dḥabī, and Abū Zur‘ah. Abū Ḥātim noted that despite initial scholarly hesitation regarding his explicit Qadarī beliefs, students were eventually "compelled" to take his traditions late in life out of necessity for his high chains. Ibn Ḥajar noted his occasional errors slightly lowered his overall precision. He passed away between 235 and 238 AH.

¹⁴⁷ He is ‘Aṭiyyah ibn Sa‘d ibn Junādah, Abū al-Ḥasan al-‘Awfī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Ḍa‘īf (Weak) in memory and infamous for a highly deceptive form of tadlīs (tadlīs al-shuyūkh), compounded by extreme tashayyu‘. Master critics overwhelmingly rejected him as an independent proof. His fatal transmission flaw was systematically

The Lowest of The People of al-Jannah in Status & Dwelling

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو خَالِدٍ الْأَحْمَرُ، عَنْ مُجَالِدٍ، عَنِ الشَّعْبِيِّ، عَنِ الْمُغِيرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ مُوسَى: يَا رَبِّ، أَيُّ عِبْدِكَ أَذْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً؟ قَالَ: رَجُلٌ يَبْقَى فِي الدِّمْنَةِ بَعْدَ أَنْ يَجْلِسَ النَّاسُ، قَالَ: فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: قُمْ فَادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ، قَالَ: أَيْنَ أَدْخُلُ وَقَدْ سَبَقَنِي النَّاسُ، قَالَ: فَيَقَالُ لَهُ: تَمَنَّ أَنْزِلْ مِنْ مَلَكٍ مِنْ مَلُوكِ الدُّنْيَا مِمَّنْ كُنْتَ تَتَمَنَّى مِثْلَ مُلْكِهِمْ وَسُلْطَانِهِمْ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ: فَلَنْ، قَالَ: فَيَعْدُ أَرْبَعَةً ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُ: تَمَنَّ بِقَلِيلٍ؟ مَا شِئْتَ، قَالَ: فَيَتَمَنَّى، قَالَ: ثُمَّ يُقَالُ لَهُ: اشْتَهَ مَا شِئْتَ، قَالَ: فَيَشْتَهِي، قَالَ فَيَقَالُ: لَكَ هَذَا وَعَشْرَةٌ أَضْعَافِهِ، قَالَ: فَقَالَ مُوسَى: يَا رَبِّ، فَمَا لِأَهْلِ صَفْوَتِكَ؟ قَالَ: فَقِيلَ: هَذَا الَّذِي أَرَدْتَ، قَالَ: خَلَقْتُ كَرَامَتَهُمْ وَعَمِلْتُهَا بِيَدِي، وَخَنَمْتُ عَلَى خَزَائِنِهَا مَا لَا عَيْنٌ رَأَتْ وَلَا أُذُنٌ سَمِعَتْ وَلَا خَطَرَ عَلَى قَلْبِ بَشَرٍ، ثُمَّ تَلَى: {فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مِمَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ} [السجدة: ١٧]

Abū Khālid al-ʿAḥmar narrated to us, from Mujālid¹⁴⁹, from ash-Shaʿbī, from al-Mughīrah ibn Shuʿbah, he said: Mūsā said: “O Lord, which of your servants is the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in) status (and dwelling)?” He said: “So, it was said to him: ‘A man who remains in the trace of ruins after (the fact) that the people have sat.’” He said: “So it was said to him: ‘Stand, so enter al-Jannah.’ He said: ‘Where do I enter, and the people have preceded me?’” He said: “So, it was said to him: ‘Wish (for) four kings from Dunyā from whom you used to wish (for) the like of their kingdom and their authority.’” He said: “So, concealing the identity of the notorious narrator al-Kalbī by referring to him by the kunya "Abū Saʿīd," deliberately misleading listeners into falsely assuming he was quoting the Companion Abū Saʿīd al-Khudrī. Consequently, Ibn Ḥibbān declared it impermissible to write his reports. Theologically, he was an extreme Shīʿī renowned for his resilience, famously enduring 400 lashes from al-Ḥajjāj rather than curse ʿAlī ibn Abī Ṭālib. He passed away in 111 AH (or 127 AH).

¹⁴⁹ He is Mujālid ibn Saʿīd ibn ʿUmayr al-Hamdānī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Daʿīf (Weak) and wāḥī al-ḥadīth (fragile in ḥadīth), though occasionally described as ṣadūq by a small minority. Despite possessing a small body of passable (ṣāliḥ) reports from al-Shaʿbī, the overwhelming consensus of master critics rejects him as an independent proof. He is most infamous for erroneously elevating (yarfaʿu) mursal or mawqūf reports directly to the Prophet ﷺ when prompted or confused. Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān famously noted that if coached to attribute his narrations to the Prophet, he would comply—demonstrating a severe lack of precision. Furthermore, Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal and Ibn Ḥibbān noted he frequently flipped chains and invented high-level attributions, rendering the majority of his corpus ghayr maḥfūz (not preserved). He passed away in 143 or 144 AH.

he says: ‘So-and-so.’“ He said: “So, he counts 4, then it is said to him: ‘You wish with (a) small (amount)? (Wish for) whatever you will.’“ He said: “So, he wishes.” He said: “Then, it is said to him: ‘Desire (for) whatever you want.’“ He said: “So, he desires.” He said: “So, it is said to him: ‘For you is this and ten its multiple.’“ He said: “So Mūsā said: ‘O Lord, so what (is there) for the people of Your chosen elite?’“ He said: “So, it is said: ‘This is what you wanted.’“ He said: “I created their honour and produced it with My Hand, and I sealed upon its treasures what an eye has not seen, nor an ear has heard, nor come across upon a heart of man.” Then he recited: { فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُم مِّن قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا } [as-Sajdah: 17].¹⁵⁰

The People of ‘Illiyīn

حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ عَاصِمِ بْنِ بَهْدَلَةَ، عَنْ خَيْثَمَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، قَالَ: إِنَّ لِأَهْلِ عِلِّيِّينَ كُؤَى يُشْرِفُونَ مِنْهَا فَإِذَا أَشْرَفَ أَحَدُهُمْ أَشْرَفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ: قَدْ أَشْرَفَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ عِلِّيِّينَ

‘Affān narrated to us, he said: Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated to us, from ‘Āṣim ibn Bahdalah, from Khayṭhamah¹⁵¹, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Amr, he said: “Indeed to the people of ‘Illiyīn are windows, they overlook from them, so when one of them overlooks, al-Jannah becomes more noble.” He said: “So the people of al-Jannah say: ‘A man from the people of ‘Illiyīn has overlooked.’“¹⁵²

The Virtue of a Space the Size of a Whip From al-Jannah Over the Dunyā & What is In It

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُثَيْمٍ، عَنْ يُونُسَ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: أَحَدُكُمْ لَسَوْطُهُ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا

¹⁵⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34018 - 7/37. It was recorded in ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqā’iq’ of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak no.66 from the Ziyādāt al-Zuhd Riwayah of Nu‘aym, and in ‘Tafsīr aṭ-Ṭabarī’ 18/619, and marfū‘an in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.189, and in ‘Sunan at-Tirmidhī’ no.3198, and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Ibn Ḥibbān’ no.3056.

¹⁵² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34019 - 7/37. The isnād is good. It was recorded in ‘Tafsīr aṭh-Ṭha‘labī’ 10/155.

Ibn ‘Uliyyah narrated to us, from Yūnus, from al-Ḥasan, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “[In another print it says: Verily the space between the middle and the end of the bow (of) One of you, (or) verily his whip from al-Jannah is better from the Dunyā and what is in it.”¹⁵³

The Tafsīr of {فِي رَوْضَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ}

حَدَّثَنَا عِيسَى بْنُ يُونُسَ، عَنِ الْأَوْزَاعِيِّ، عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {فِي رَوْضَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ} [الروم: ١٥] قَالَ: الْحَبَرُ السَّمَاعُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ

‘Isā ibn Yūnus narrated to us, from al-ʿAwzāʿī, from Yahyā ibn Abī Kaṭhīr¹⁵⁴, regarding His statement: {فِي رَوْضَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ} [ar-Rūm: 15], he said: “al-Ḥabr (means): the melodic listening in al-Jannah.”¹⁵⁵

The Khimār of The Women of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا زَمْعَةُ بْنُ كُلْتُومٍ، قَالَ سَمِعْتُ الْحَسَنَ، يَقُولُ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ لَوْ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً مِنْ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ أَشْرَفَتْ عَلَى أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ لَمَلَأَتِ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ رِيحِ الْمِسْكِ، وَلَنْصِيفُ امْرَأَةٍ مِنْ نِسَاءِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا، هَلْ تَذَرُونَ مَا النَّصِيفُ؟ هُوَ الْخِمَارُ

‘Affān narrated to us, he said: Zam‘ah ibn Kulṭhūm¹⁵⁶ narrated to us, he said: I heard al-Ḥasan saying: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “By the One in His Hand is the soul of Muḥammad, if that a woman from the women of the people of al-Jannah looked down upon the people of the Earth the Earth would surely fill from the smell of Musk, and surely the veil of a woman from the people of al-Jannah is better from the Dunyā and what is in it. Do you know what the veil is? It is the Khimār.”¹⁵⁷

¹⁵⁴ He is Yahyā ibn Abī Kaṭhīr al-Ṭā‘ī al-Yamāmī. His ḥāl: An Imām and ḥāfiẓ of extreme precision, ranked by contemporaries like Ayyūb and Aḥmad alongside al-Zuhrī. However, his methodology is defined by extensive tadlīs and irsāl: master critics confirmed he lacked direct audition from most Companions and many senior Tābi‘īn (e.g., Abū Qilābah), frequently transmitting from written manuscripts like the ṣaḥīfah of Abū Salām. Crucially, while these technical caveats apply to his transmissions from others, they do not apply when he speaks directly. Since this specific narration captures Yahyā’s own personal statement and testimony, his undisputed standing as a trustworthy Imām guarantees the authenticity of the report.

¹⁵⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34021 - 7/38. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

¹⁵⁶ I could not find his biography, so I assume that he is majhūl.

¹⁵⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34022 - 7/38. The narration is mursal and therefore weak.

The Hand-Span of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ حَجَّاجٍ، عَنْ عَطِيَّةَ، عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: لَشِبْرٌ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيهَا

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from Ḥajjāj, from ‘Aṭiyyah, from Abī Sa‘īd, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Surely, a hand-span from al-Jannah is better from the Dunyā and what is in it.”¹⁵⁸

One Thousand Palaces For The Lowest of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ عِيسَى، عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ نُؤَيْرٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: إِنَّ أَدْنَى أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ مَنْزِلَةً رَجُلٌ لَهُ أَلْفُ قَصْرِ، مَا بَيْنَ كُلِّ قَصْرٍ مَسِيرَةُ سَنَةٍ، يَرَى أَقْصَاهَا كَمَا يَرَى أَدْنَاهَا، فِي كُلِّ قَصْرٍ مِنَ الْحُورِ الْعِينِ وَالرَّيَاحِينِ وَالْوُلْدَانِ مَا يَدْعُو بِشَيْءٍ إِلَّا أَتِيَ بِهِ

Yahyā ibn ‘Īsā¹⁵⁹ narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from Nuwayr¹⁶⁰, from Ibn ‘Umar, he said: “Indeed the lowest of the people of al-Jannah (in) status (and dwelling) is a man, for him is 1000 palaces, what is between every palace is a travelling-distance of a year, he sees its furthest just as he sees its closest. In every palace (are) from al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn, and the sweet-smelling plants, and the celestial youth, he does not call for a thing except he is brought by it.”¹⁶¹

¹⁵⁹ He is Yahyā ibn ‘Īsā al-Tamīmī al-Ramlī. His ḥāl: A narrator of mixed status. While recognized as a student of major authorities—prompting Abū Mu‘āwiyah to command his students to record his reports, Aḥmad to acknowledge his proximity to dependability, and al-ʿIjlī to grade him trustworthy—his technical precision was frequently questioned. Master critics like Ibn Maʿīn and al-Nasāʾī labeled him weak or "not strong," Ibn ‘Adī noted his reports often lack corroboration, and Ibn Ḥajar observed he was truthful but prone to errors, further complicated by his Shīʿite leanings. Nevertheless, his traditions appear in the ṣaḥīḥ collections of Ibn Ḥibbān and Abū ‘Awānah. He passed away in 201 AH.

¹⁶⁰ He is Thuwayr ibn Abī Fākhīṭah, Abū al-Jahm al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Extremely weak (ḍaʿīf) and unreliable, weighed down by severe theological extremism and technical incompetence. He was notoriously branded by Sufyān al-Thawrī as one of the "pillars of lying." Ibn Ḥibbān documented that he habitually flipped transmission chains, producing reports bearing the hallmarks of fabrication. Theologically an ardent Rāfiḍī, elite critics like Yahyā al-Qaṭṭān, Ibn Mahdī, and Yūnus ibn Abī Ishāq completely boycotted him. Although a few scholars like Shuʿbah transmitted from him for comparative study, the overwhelming consensus of master critics rejects him as a valid proof, with Ibn ‘Adī noting that the mark of weakness is evident upon his entire corpus. He passed away between 131 and 140 AH.

¹⁶¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34024 - 7/38

The Palaces of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ أَبِي عُبَيْدَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ، قَالَ: قَالَ مُغِيثُ بْنُ سَمِيٍّ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ قُصُورًا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ، وَقُصُورًا مِنْ فِضَّةٍ، وَقُصُورًا مِنْ يَاقُوتٍ، وَقُصُورًا مِنْ زَبَرَجَدٍ، جِبَالُهَا الْمِسْكُ وَتُرَابُهَا الزَّرْعَفَرَانُ

Muḥammad ibn Abī ‘Ubaydah narrated to us, from his father, from al-ʿAʿmash, from Mālik ibn al-Ḥārith, he said: Muḡhīth ibn Sumayy said: “Indeed in al-Jannah (are) palaces from gold, and palaces from silver, and palaces from ruby, and palaces from chrysolite, its mountains are Musk, and its soil is saffron.”¹⁶²

The Mountains From Musk of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشْرٍ، عَنْ مِسْعَرٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ، قَالَ: إِنَّ قَائِلَ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ لَيَقُولُ: انْطَلِقُوا بِنَا إِلَى السُّوقِ، فَيَأْتُونَ جِبَالًا مِنْ مِسْكٍ فَيَجْلِسُونَ فَيَتَحَدَّثُونَ

Muḥammad ibn Bishr narrated to us, from Mis‘ar, he said: Qatādah narrated to us, from ʿAnas, he said: “Indeed a speaker in al-Jannah surely says: ‘Set off with us to the market.’, so they come to mountains from Musk, so they sit, (and) so they talk.”¹⁶³

The Strength in Desire & Appetite of The People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ، عَنْ مُغِيرَةَ، عَنْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ التَّيْمِيِّ، قَالَ: بَلَغَنِي أَنَّهُ يُقَسَمُ لِلرَّجُلِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ شَهْوَةٌ مَائَةٍ وَأَكْلُهُمْ وَنَهْمُهُمْ، فَإِذَا أَكَلَ سَقِيَ شَرَابًا طَهُورًا يَخْرُجُ مِنْ جِلْدِهِ رَشْحًا كَرَشْحِ الْمِسْكِ ثُمَّ تَعُودُ شَهْوَتُهُ

Jarīr ibn ‘Abd al-Ḥamīd narrated to us, from Muḡhīrah¹⁶⁴, from Ibrāhīm at-Taymī, he said: “It has reached me that for a man from the people of al-Jannah is portioned the desire of ¹⁶² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34025 - 7/38. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

¹⁶³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34026 - 7/38. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was narrated in ‘Muṣannaf ‘Abd al-Razzāq aṣ-Ṣan‘ānī’ no.219593 and in his ‘Tafsīr’ no.1378.

¹⁶⁴ He is al-Muḡhīrah ibn Miqsam, Abū Hishām al-Ḍabbī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: A ṭhiqah (trustworthy) and mutqin (meticulous) narrator, lauded for exceptional memory—with Shu‘bah and Ibn Ma‘īn ranking his retention above Ḥammād—and recognized as a leading jurist in the circle of Ibrāhīm al-Nakḥa‘ī. However, his reputation is complicated by a severe, systemic case of tadlis regarding Ibrāhīm. Critics noted a sharp discrepancy between his high volume of reports and his limited direct audition (samā‘), with Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal declaring most of his ḥadīth from Ibrāhīm tainted (madkhūl) due to substituting actual teachers' names with Ibrāhīm's. Consequently, students like Ibn Faḍl rejected unverified reports, and al-Muḡhīrah himself was evasive when confronted. Ibn Ḥajar’s verdict summarizes the consensus: he was trustworthy and meticulous, “except that he practiced tadlis, especially regarding Ibrāhīm.”

100 and their eating and their appetite, so when he eats he is given (as a drink) a pure drink, it exits from his body (as) sweat like the sweat of Musk, then his desire returns.”¹⁶⁵

The Virtue of The Poor & Needy From The Ummah Who Enter al-Jannah Over The Wealthy

حَدَّثَنَا غُنْدَرٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مُرَّةٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ، عَنْ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، قَالَ: يُجْمَعُونَ فَيَقَالُ: أَيْنَ فُقَرَاءُ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ وَمَسَاكِينُهَا؟ قَالَ: فَيَبْرَزُونَ فَيَقَالُ: مَا عِنْدَكُمْ، فَيَقُولُونَ يَا رَبِّ، ابْتَلَيْتَنَا فَصَبِّرْنَا وَأَنْتَ أَعْلَمُ، قَالَ: وَارَاهُ قَالَ: وَلَوْلَيْتَ الْأَمْوَالَ وَالسُّلْطَانَ غَيْرَنَا، قَالَ: فَيَقَالُ: صَدَقْتُمْ فَيَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ قَبْلَ سَائِرِ النَّاسِ، وَيَبْقَى شِدَّةُ الْحِسَابِ عَلَى ذَوِي الْأَمْوَالَ وَالسُّلْطَانِ، قَالَ: قُلْتُ: فَأَيْنَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ يَوْمَئِذٍ؟ قَالَ: يُوضَعُ لَهُمْ كِرَاسِيٌّ مِنْ نُورٍ وَيُظِلُّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْعِمَامُ وَيَكُونُ ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ أَقْصَرُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سَاعَةٍ مِنْ نَهَارٍ

Ġhundar¹⁶⁶ narrated to us, from Shu‘bah, from ‘Amr ibn Murrah¹⁶⁷, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith, from Abī Kathīr, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Amr, he said: “They (the people of al-Jannah) will be gathered, so it will be said: ‘Where are the poor of this nation and its needy ones?’ So, they are brought out, so it is said: ‘What is with you?’ So, they say: ‘O Lord, you tested us, so we were patient, and you are more knowing.’” He said: And I saw him say: “And you assigned the wealth and the authority (to) other than us.” He said: “So it is said: ‘You have spoken truthfully.’ So, they enter al-Jannah before the rest of the people, and the intensity of the reckoning upon the possessors of the wealth and the authority.” He said: I said: So where are the Believers on that day? He said: “Chairs from light are placed for them, and clouds cast shade upon them, and that Day will be shorter upon them from an hour from a day.”¹⁶⁸

¹⁶⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34027 - 7/38. Since I have not found anything regarding al-Muḡhīrah hearing from Ibrāhīm at-Taymī this narration seems weak, and Allāh knows best.

¹⁶⁷ He is ‘Amr ibn Murrah al-Jamālī, Abū ‘Abd al-Raḥmān al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy), a master memorizer (ḥāfiẓ), and a devout worshipper (‘ābid). Ranked by ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī as one of the four absolute benchmarks of Kūfah for memory and precision, al-A‘maṣh trusted his transmissions, and Shu‘bah confirmed he was completely free from tadlīs. The sole criticism against him was theological: he actively promoted Irjā‘, though this doctrinal stance did not impair his technical reliability per standard methodology due to his proven honesty. Technically, his total output was around two hundred traditions, and critics note his reports from Ibn ‘Abbās are mursal (disconnected).

The First Meal of the People of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، قَالَ أَخْبَرَنَا حُمَيْدٌ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ، أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ سَلَامٍ، أَتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْأَلُهُ: مَا أَوَّلُ مَا يَأْكُلُهُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ، فَقَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي جِبْرِيلُ أَنَّهُ أَوَّلُ مَا يَأْكُلُهُ أَهْلُ الْجَنَّةِ زِيَادَةُ كَبِدِ حُوتٍ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: Ḥumayd informed us, from ʿAnas, that ʿAbd Allāh ibn Salām came to the Messenger of Allāh, asking him: What is the first of what the people of al-Jannah eats? So, he said: “Jibrīl informed me earlier that the first of what the people of al-Jannah eats is the additional lobe of the whale.”¹⁶⁹

The Chambers of the People of ʿIlīyyīn

حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ، عَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: يُرَى فِي الْجَنَّةِ كَهَيْئَةِ الْبَرْقِ فَيَقَالُ: مَا هَذَا؟ قِيلَ: رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ عِلِّيِّينَ تَحَوَّلَ مِنْ غُرْفَةٍ إِلَى غُرْفَةٍ

Zayd ibn al-Ḥubāb narrated to us, from ʿUsāmah ibn Zayd¹⁷⁰, from Muḥammad ibn Kaʿb, he said: “It is seen in al-Jannah the like of the appearance of the lightning. So, it is said: ‘What is this?’ It is said: ‘A man from the people of ʿIlīyyīn shifted from a chamber to a chamber.’”¹⁷¹

The Tafsīr of {أُولَئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرْفَةَ}

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو خَالِدٍ الْأَحْمَرُ، عَنْ جُوَيْرٍ، عَنِ الصَّخَّالِكِ: {أُولَئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرْفَةَ} [الفرقان: ٧٥] قَالَ: الْغُرْفَةُ الْجَنَّةُ

¹⁶⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34028 - 7/38. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded in ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqāʾiq’ of ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak no.643, and in ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nuʿaym al-Aṣfahānī 1/289 & 7/206, and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Ibn Ḥibbān’ no.5113.

¹⁷⁰ He is ʿUsāmah ibn Zayd al-Laythī, Abū Zayd al-Madanī. His ḥāl: A truthful narrator (ṣadūq) who makes mistakes (yahim); his reports are written for corroboration (istishhād) but cannot stand alone as independent proof. While authorities like Ibn Maʿīn and al-ʿIjlī graded him trustworthy (ṭhiqah)—clarifying he was distinct from a weaker namesake—strict critics found serious technical flaws. Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal rejected him entirely, noting anomalies (nakārah) in his texts from Nāfiʿ, and Yaḥyā ibn al-Qaṭṭān abandoned him after he bypassed his teacher al-Zuhri to claim direct hearing from Saʿīd ibn al-Musayyab. Abū Ḥātim summarized his standing: his ḥadīth is written for study, but he cannot be used as an independent proof (yuktab ḥadīthuhu wa-lā yuḥtajj bihi). Consequently, al-Bukhārī and Muslim used him strictly for corroboration.

¹⁷¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34030 - 7/39. Due to the ḥāl of ʿUsāmah ibn Zayd, the narration cannot be relied upon, and it seems closer to being weak, and Allāh knows best.

Abū Khālīd al-ʿAḥmar narrated to us, from Juwaybir¹⁷², from ad-Ḍaḥḥāk: {أُولَئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرْفَةَ} [al-Furqān: 75], he said: “The chamber of al-Jannah.”¹⁷³

The Tafsīr of {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} & What is Prepared For a Prophet, Ṣiddīq, Martyr, Just Leader, or a Muḥakkam Over Himself

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ حُسَيْنٍ، عَنْ يَعْلَى بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ، قَرَأَ عَلَى الْمُنْبَرِ {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} [البينة: ٨] فَقَالَ: وَهَلْ تَذَرُونَ مَا {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} [البينة: ٨]؟ قَالَ: قَصُرٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ لَهُ خَمْسَةُ آلَافِ بَابٍ، عَلَى كُلِّ بَابٍ خَمْسَةٌ وَعِشْرُونَ أَلْفًا مِنَ الْخُورِ الْعِينِ، لَا يَدْخُلُهُ إِلَّا نَبِيٌّ هَنِيئًا لِصَاحِبِ الْقَبْرِ وَأَشَارَ إِلَى قَبْرِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَصَدِيقٍ هَنِيئًا لِأَبِي بَكْرٍ، وَشَهِيدٍ وَأَنَّى لِعُمَرَ شَهَادَةٌ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: وَالَّذِي أَخْرَجَنِي مِنْ ضُرِّي؟ إِنَّهُ لَقَادِرٌ عَلَى أَنْ يَسُوقَهَا إِلَيَّ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Sufyān ibn Ḥusayn¹⁷⁴, from Yaʿlā ibn Muslim, from Mujāhid, that ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb recited upon the pulpit: {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} [al-Bayyinah: 8], so he said: “And do you know what {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} (is)?” He said: “A palace in al-Jannah, for it 5000 doors, upon every door 25,000 from al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn, none enters it except a Prophet - Congratulations to the companion of the grave!” And he pointed to the grave of the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, “And a Ṣiddīq - Congratulations to Abī Bakr! And a martyr, and from where is martyrdom for ʿUmar?” Then he said: “By the One Who brought me out from my destruction, indeed He is All-Capable upon that He drives that to me.”¹⁷⁵

¹⁷³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34031 - 7/39

¹⁷⁴ He is Sufyān ibn Ḥusayn al-Wāsiṭī, Abū Muḥammad, tutor to Caliph al-Maḥdī. His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy) in general, but categorically weak and rejected specifically in his transmissions from Muḥammad ibn Muslim al-Zuhrī. While master critics including Ibn Maʿīn, Aḥmad, and al-Nasāʾī affirmed that his general corpus is sound and acceptable, his reports from al-Zuhrī are flawed due to two specific factors: he was not a dedicated student, having only heard from al-Zuhrī in passing during the Hajj season, and his manuscript (ṣaḥīfah) of al-Zuhrī's reports became mixed up over time—causing him to transmit inverted chains and texts (maqlūbāt) that clashed with al-Zuhrī's elite pupils. Consequently, scholars accept his reports from other teachers while completely discarding his material from al-Zuhrī.

¹⁷⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34032 - 7/39. The narration is unfortunately munqaṭiʿ (disconnected) since Mujāhid did not hear from ʿUmar ibn al-Khaṭṭāb. It was recorded in ‘Buḡḥyat al-Bāḥith’ of al-Ḥārith no.963, and in ‘Tārīkh Dimashq’ of Ibn ʿAsākir 44/404, and in ‘Akḥbār Makkah’ of al-Fākihī no.2516

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، قَالَ ثنا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الضُّحَى، عَنْ مَسْرُوقٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} [التوبة: ٧٢] قَالَ: بَطْنَانِ الْجَنَّةِ

Wakīʿ narrated to us, he said: Sufyān narrated to us, from Manṣūr¹⁷⁶, from Abī aḍ-Ḍuḥā, from Masrūq, from ʿAbd Allāh: {جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ} [at-Tawbah: 72], he said: “The interior of al-Jannah.”¹⁷⁷

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ هِشَامٍ، عَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ هِلَالٍ، عَنْ بَشْرِ بْنِ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: قَالَ كَعْبٌ: إِنَّ فِي الْجَنَّةِ يَأْفُوتَةً لَيْسَ فِيهَا صَنْدُغٌ وَلَا وَصْلٌ، فِيهَا سَبْعُونَ أَلْفَ دَارٍ، فِي كُلِّ دَارٍ سَبْعُونَ أَلْفًا مِنَ الْخُورِ الْعَيْنِ، لَا يَدْخُلُهَا إِلَّا نَبِيٌّ أَوْ صِدِّيقٌ أَوْ شَهِيدٌ أَوْ إِمَامٌ عَادِلٌ أَوْ مُحَكَّمٌ فِي نَفْسِهِ، قَالَ: قُلْنَا: يَا كَعْبُ، وَمَا الْمُحَكَّمُ فِي نَفْسِهِ؟ قَالَ: الرَّجُلُ يَأْخُذُ الْعَدُوَّ فَيَحْكُمُونَهُ بَيْنَ أَنْ يَكْفُرَ أَوْ يَلْزَمَ الْإِسْلَامَ فَيَقْتُلُ، فَيَخْتَارُ أَنْ يَلْزَمَ الْإِسْلَامَ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Hishām, from Ḥumayd ibn Hilāl, from Bishr ibn Kaʿb¹⁷⁸, he said: Kaʿb¹⁷⁹ said: “Indeed in al-Jannah is a ruby, there is not in it a crack nor a joint. In it is 70,000 houses, in every house (are) 70,000 from al-Ḥūr al-ʿĪn, none enters it except a Prophet, or a Ṣiddīq, or a martyr, or a just leader, or a Muḥakkam over himself.” He said: We said: O Kaʿb, and what is the Muḥakkam over his own soul? He said: “A man, the enemy seizes him, so they force him to judge between that he disbelieves or holds fast to Islām then he is killed, so he chooses that he holds fast to Islām.”¹⁸⁰

The Fair Maintainers of Justice

حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ بْنُ عُيَيْنَةَ، عَنْ عَمْرٍو، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ أَوْسٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، يَنْتَلِغُ بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: إِنَّ الْمُسْطَبِينَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَلَى مَنَابِرَ مِنْ نُورٍ عَنْ يَمِينِ الرَّحْمَنِ وَكُلْنَا يَدَيْهِ يَمِينُ الَّذِينَ يَغْدُلُونَ فِي حُكْمِهِمْ وَأَهْلِيهِمْ وَمَا وَلُوا

Sufyān ibn ʿUyaynah narrated to us, from ʿAmr¹⁸¹, from ʿAmr ibn ʿAws, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn ʿAmr, reaching with it the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “Indeed the fair maintainers of justice are with Allāh upon pulpits from light, on the Right Hand of al-Raḥmān, and both of His Hands are a Right (Hand, i.e. they are both blessed), those who acted justly in their judgement, and their families, and what they were administered (over).”¹⁸²

¹⁸² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34035 - 7/39. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded in ʿṢaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.1827, and ‘Musnad Imām Aḥmad’ no.6492.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْأَعْلَى، عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: إِنَّ الْمُفْسِطِينَ فِي الدُّنْيَا عَلَى مَنَابِرَ مِنْ لَوْلُؤٍ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ بَيْنَ يَدَيِ الرَّحْمَنِ بِمَا أَفْسَطُوا فِي الدُّنْيَا

‘Abd al-ʿAḷā¹⁸³ narrated to us, from Ma‘mar, from az-Zuhri, from Sa‘id ibn al-Musayyib, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn ‘Amr, that the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed the fair maintainers of justice in the Dunyā (are) upon pulpits from pearls (on) the Day of Resurrection in front of al-Raḥmān because of what they maintained of justice in the Dunyā.”¹⁸⁴

The Distance Between The Two Door-panels of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشْرٍ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو حَيَّانَ، عَنْ أَبِي زُرْعَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ، إِنَّ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَصْرَاعَيْنِ مِنْ مَصَارِيعِ الْجَنَّةِ كَمَا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَهَجَرَ أَوْ كَمَا بَيْنَ مَكَّةَ وَبُصْرَى

Muḥammad ibn Bishr narrated to us, he said: Abū Ḥayyān narrated to us, from Abī Zur‘ah, from Abī Hurayrah, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “By the One in His Hand is my soul, indeed what is between the two door-panels from the door-panels of al-Jannah is like what is between Makkah and Hajar, or what is between Makkah and Buṣrā.”¹⁸⁵

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ قُرَّةَ، عَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ هِلَالٍ، عَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ عَمِيرٍ، وَعَنْ أَبِي نَعَامَةَ، سَمِعَهُ مِنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ عَمِيرٍ قَالَ: خَطَبَنَا عُثْبَةُ بْنُ غَزْوَانَ فَقَالَ: إِنَّ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَصْرَاعَيْنِ مِنَ الْأَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ لَمَسِيرَةُ أَرْبَعِينَ عَامًا وَلَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَى أَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَ وَلَيْسَ مِنْهَا بَابٌ إِلَّا وَهُوَ كَظِيظٍ

Wakī‘ narrated to us, from Qurrah, from Ḥumayd ibn Hilāl, from Khālīd ibn ‘Umayr, and from Abī Na‘āmah, he heard it from Khālīd ibn ‘Umayr, he said: ‘Utbah ibn Ghazwān lectured us, so he said: “Indeed what is between the two door-panels from the gates of al-Jannah is

¹⁸⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34037 - 7/40. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt. It was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī’ no.4712, and in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.194.

حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ مُسْهِرٍ، عَنْ عَاصِمٍ، عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ، عَنْ كَعْبٍ، قَالَ: مَا بَيْنَ مِصْرَاعِي الْجَنَّةِ أَرْبَعُونَ خَرِيفًا لِلرَّاكِبِ الْمُجِدِّ وَلَيَأْتِيَنَّ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمٌ وَهُوَ كَظِيطِ الرَّحَامِ

‘Alī ibn Mushir narrated to us, from ‘Āṣim¹⁸⁷, from Abī ‘Uṭhmān, from Ka‘b, he said: “What is between the two door-panels of al-Jannah are 40 autumns (meaning years) for the diligent rider, and surely a day will come upon it and it is overfilled and the pushed upon.”¹⁸⁸

The Dwellings of The Believer in al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي الْمُهَزَّمِ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: دَارُ الْمُؤْمِنِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ مِنْ لَوْلُؤَةٍ فِيهَا أَرْبَعُونَ بَيْتًا فِي وَسْطِهَا شَجَرَةٌ تَنْبُتُ الْخُلُلُ فَيَأْتِيهَا فَيَأْخُذُ بِأَصْبُعِهِ سَبْعِينَ حُلَّةً مُنْطَقَةً بِاللُّوْلُوِّ وَالْمَرْجَانِ

‘Affān narrated to us, he said: Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated to us, from Abī al-Muhazzim¹⁸⁹, he said: I heard Abā Hurayrah, he said: “The dwelling of the Believer in al-Jannah is from ¹⁸⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34038 - 7/40. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded with similar wordings in ‘al-Mu‘jam al-Kabīr’ of al-Ṭabarānī no.281, 278 & 280 and it can also be found in ‘al-ʿAwsaṭ’ no.2713, 4092 & 5342, and in ‘Ḥilyat al-Awliyā’ wa-Ṭabaqāt al-Aṣfiyā’ of Abū Nu‘aym al-Aṣḥānī 1/171, and in ‘al-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī 2/396, and in ‘Tārīkh Baġhdād’ of al-Khaṭīb al-Baġhdādī 1/167 & 6/181.

¹⁸⁷ He is ‘Āṣim ibn Sulaymān, al-Aḥwal, Abū ‘Abd al-Raḥmān al-Baṣrī al-Tamīmī. His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah (Trustworthy) and an outstanding ḥāfiẓ by overwhelming critical consensus. Sufyān al-Thawrī ranked him among the supreme memorizers of Baṣrah, Shu‘bah preferred his retention over Qatādah regarding Abū ‘Uṭhmān al-Nahdī’s material, and authorities like Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Ibn Ma‘īn, and ‘Alī ibn al-Madīnī solidly affirmed his reliability (thabt). The sole point of contention is an isolated criticism from Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān, who called him “not a ḥāfiẓ” and weakened him. However, later scholars—including Wuhayb and Ibn Idrīs—explained that this stemmed from objections to ‘Āṣim’s role as a public/market administrator (where he exercised harsh disciplinary measures), rather than any defect in his ḥadīth preservation. Ibn Ḥajar confirmed that al-Qaṭṭān’s objection was based on government service rather than technical inaccuracy, and Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal expressed astonishment at any critique of him. Technically, critics noted a single isolated correction: Aḥmad denied that ‘Āṣim ever narrated from ‘Abd Allāh ibn Shaqīq, identifying a disputed link as a misattribution ¹⁸⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34039 - 7/40. Its narrators are Ṭhiqāt, but I did not find any attestation of Abī ‘Uṭhmān hearing from Ka‘b, so that which seems apparent to me is that this narration is disconnected, and therefore weak, and Allāh knows best.

¹⁸⁹ He is Abū al-Muhazzim, Yazīd ibn Sufyān (or ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Sufyān) al-Tamīmī al-Baṣrī (d. 122 AH). His ḥāl: Matrūk (Abandoned). Master critics including al-Nasāʾī, al-Dāraqutnī, Ibn Ma‘īn, and Abū Ḥātim independently concluded he is abandoned and ḍaʿīf, while Ibn ‘Adī and al-Sājī noted the bulk of his output is munkar (rejected). The harshest evaluations include Shu‘bah’s remark that Abū al-Muhazzim would produce seventy traditions for the price of two coins—implying he transmitted whatever was asked of him without regard for accuracy—and al-Ḥākim’s outright accusation of waḍʿ (fabrication). Furthermore, Abū Zur‘ah noted that while Shu‘bah recorded a hundred of his traditions, he never transmitted a single one to others, and strict authorities like al-Qaṭṭān and Ibn Maḥdī completely avoided him.

a pearl, in it are 40 houses, in its centre is a tree (that) grows the garments, so he comes to it, so he takes with his finger 70 garments adorned with pearls and corals.”¹⁹⁰

The Companions of The Heights

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ أَبِي ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْخَارِثِ، قَالَ: أَصْحَابُ الْأَعْرَافِ يَنْتَهِي بِهِمْ إِلَى نَهْرٍ يُقَالُ لَهُ «الْحَيَاءُ» حَافَّتَاهُ قَصَبٌ ذَهَبٍ، قَالَ: أَرَاهُ قَالَ: مُكَلَّلٌ بِاللُّؤْلُؤِ فَيَغْتَسِلُونَ مِنْهُ اغْتِسَالَةً فَنَبْدُو فِي نُحُورِهِمْ شَامَةً بَيَاضًا، ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ فَيَغْتَسِلُونَ فَكُلَّمَا اغْتَسَلُوا ازْدَادَتْ بَيَاضًا، فَيُقَالُ لَهُمْ: تَمَنُّوا مَا شِئْتُمْ، فَيَتَمَنَّوْنَ مَا شَاءُوا فَيُقَالُ: لَكُمْ مَا تَمَنَيْتُمْ وَسَبْعُونَ ضِعْفًا، فَهُمْ مَسَاكِينُ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Ḥabīb ibn Abī Thābit, from Mujāhid, from ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith¹⁹¹, he said: “The companions of the Heights are brought with them to a river called ‘al-Ḥayā’, its two banks are (made up of) golden reeds.” He said: I heard him say: “Encrusted with pearls, so they bathe from it a bathe, so a white mark becomes apparent upon their necks, then they return, so they bathe, so every time they bathe it increases (in) whiteness, so it is said to them: ‘Wish what you will.’ So, they wish what they desire, so it is said: ‘For you (is) what you wished and 70 folds’, for they are the needy ones (from the worldly life) of the people of al-Jannah.”¹⁹²

The Tafsīr of {فِيهِنَّ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ}

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ: {فِيهِنَّ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ} [الرحمن: ٥٦] قَالَ: قُصِرَ طَرَفُهُنَّ عَلَى أَرْوَاجِهِنَّ فَلَا يَرْنَ غَيْرَهُمْ

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Manṣūr, from Mujāhid: {فِيهِنَّ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 56], he said: “Their gazes are restricted upon their spouses, so they do not desire other than them.”¹⁹³

The Tafsīr of {كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ}

حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ، عَنْ جُوَيْرٍ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ: {كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [الرحمن: ٥٨] قَالَ: أَلَوَانُهُنَّ كَالْيَاقُوتِ وَاللُّؤْلُؤِ فِي صَفَائِهِ

¹⁹⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34040 - 7/40. It was recorded in ‘az-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.125, and in the Ziyādāt to ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqā’iq’ of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak pg.74, and in ‘ad-Durr al-Manṭhūr’ 7/721-722.

¹⁹¹ I am not sure of who this is exactly since I have not found Mujāhid narrating from any man named ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith, while the ones I have found are Thiqāt.

¹⁹² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34041 - 7/40. I am inclined to declaring this as weak due to the obscurity of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith and due to the fact I haven’t found Mujāhid hearing from him. It was recorded in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 10/216, and in ‘az-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.198.

¹⁹³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34042 - 7/40. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

Huṣḥaym narrated to us, from Juwaybir¹⁹⁴, from ad-Ḍaḥḥāk: {كَأَنَّهِنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [ar-Raḥmān: 58], he said: “Their colours are like the rubies and the pearls in clarity.”¹⁹⁵

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنِ الْحَرِّ بْنِ جَرْمُوزٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ الْحَارِثِ، يَقُولُ: {كَأَنَّهِنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [الرحمن: ٥٨] قَالَ: كَأَنَّهِنَّ اللُّؤلُؤُ فِي الْخَيْطِ

Yaḥyā ibn Yamān narrated to us, from al-Ḥurr ibn Jurmūz¹⁹⁶, he said: I heard ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith saying: {كَأَنَّهِنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [ar-Raḥmān: 58], he said: “As if they are like the pearl in the thread (of a necklace).”¹⁹⁷

حَدَّثَنَا يُونُسُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا دَاوُدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ سُلَيْمَانَ أَبَا عُبَيْدٍ اللَّهِ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ: {كَأَنَّهِنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [الرحمن: ٥٨] قَالَ: يَرَى مَخَّ سَاقِيهِنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءِ الثِّيَابِ كَمَا يَرَى الْخَيْطُ فِي الْيَاقُوتَةِ

Yūnus ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, he said: Dāwūd ibn ‘Abd al-Raḥmān¹⁹⁸ narrated to us, he said: I heard Sulaymān¹⁹⁹ Abā ‘Ubayd Allāh (narrating) from Mujāhid: {كَأَنَّهِنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ} [ar-Raḥmān: 58], he said: “The bone marrow of their legs are seen from beyond their clothes just as the thread is seen in the ruby.”²⁰⁰

The Tafsīr of {لَمْ يَطْمِئْنَنْ أَنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌّ}

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ مُغِيرَةَ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ، عَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ: {لَمْ يَطْمِئْنَنْ أَنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌّ} [الرحمن: ٥٦] قَالَ: يُجَامِعُهُنَّ

¹⁹⁴ He is Juwaybir ibn Sa‘īd al-Azdī, Abū al-Qāsim al-Balkhī. His ḥāl: Extremely weak (ḍa‘īf jiddan) and generally considered abandoned (matrūk). Any prophetic report (marfū‘) he elevates is categorically rejected (munkar). Foundational critics like Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān and ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Mahdī completely boycotted him, with al-Qaṭṭān noting that Juwaybir inexplicably expanded an initial two-narration repertoire into a massive, undocumented corpus. Due to this weakness, masters like Waki‘ purposefully obscured his name in chains as "a man." While Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal permitted marginal leniency for his exegetical (tafsīr) reports from al-Ḍaḥḥāk ibn Muzāḥim, critics like al-Nasā‘ī and al-Dāraquṭnī finalized his status as matrūk, rendering his reports devoid of evidentiary weight.

¹⁹⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34043 - 7/40

¹⁹⁶ He is al-Murād al-Kūfī, al-Ḥurr ibn Jurmūz. His ḥāl: Ibn Abī Ḥātim said about him: “la ba‘sa bihi (there is no harm in him), and Ibn Ḥibbān mentioned him in ‘aṭh-Ṭhiqāt’

¹⁹⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34044 - 7/40. I am unsure of the grading for this narration, and I am more inclined to grading it weak, as I am not sure if Yaḥyā ibn Yamān heard from al-Ḥurr ibn Jurmūz, and I am not sure of al-Ḥurr ibn Jurmūz hearing from ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith, and Allāh knows best.

¹⁹⁸ I could not find who this is.

¹⁹⁹ In another print he is named as ‘Salīm’ instead, and he is Salīm al-Makkī, Abū ‘Ubayd Allāh, mawlā of Umm ‘Alī. Abū Zur‘ah said concerning him “ṣadūq,” Abū Ḥātim said he was among the senior companions of Mujāhid, Ibn Ḥibbān mentioned him in ‘aṭh-Ṭhiqāt’, and al-Bukhārī narrated from him in al-Adab, Abū Dāwūd in al-Nāsikh wa-l-Mansūkh, and al-Nasā‘ī.

²⁰⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34045 - 7/40

Abū Mu‘āwiyah narrated to us, from Muḡhīrah ibn Muslim, from ‘Ikrimah: { لَمْ يَطْمِئَهُنَّ إِنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ } [ar-Raḥmān: 56]. he said: “He (their husband) copulates with them.”²⁰¹

حَدَّثَنَا الْفَضْلُ بْنُ دُكَيْنٍ، عَنْ شَرِيكِ، عَنْ سَالِمٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، قَالَ: يَطْأُهُنَّ

al-Faḍl ibn Dukayn narrated to us, from Sharīk²⁰², from Sālim²⁰³, from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr, he said: “He copulates with them.”²⁰⁴

The Tafsīr of {مُدْهَامَتَانِ}

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، وَوَكَيْعٌ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، عَنْ حَارِثَةَ بْنِ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [الرحمن: ٦٤] قَالَ: خَضِرَاوَانٌ مِنَ الرَّيِّ

‘Abdah ibn Sulaymān narrated to us, and Wakī‘, from ‘Ismā‘īl ibn Abī Khālīd, from Ḥārithah ibn Sulaymān²⁰⁵, from Abī az-Zubayr²⁰⁶: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 64], he said: “Two dark green (gardens grown) from irrigation.”²⁰⁷

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ الْفَضِيلِ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [الرحمن: ٦٤] قَالَ: خَضِرَاوَانٌ

²⁰¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34046 - 7/41. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt, however Abū Mu‘āwiyah was a Murjī².

²⁰³ He is Sālim ibn ‘Ajlān al-Aṭṭas al-Qurashī al-Ḥarrānī (d. 132 AH). His ḥāl: Thiqah (Trustworthy) and naqī al-ḥadīth (clean in transmission). His technical reliability is established by consensus among major critics including Aḥmad, al-Dāraquṭnī, and al-‘Ijlī, with Aḥmad ranking him more established (athbat) than Khaṣīf. Although Ibn Ḥibbān accused him of inverting chains, the broader community disregarded this, and al-Bukhārī included him in his Ṣaḥīḥ. Criticisms against him were purely ideological and political: he was a vocal proponent of Irijā’ and a loyalist mawlā of the Umayyad dynasty, which led to him being dragged from a mosque in Ḥarrān and publicly executed by decapitation following the Abbasid revolution.

²⁰⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34047 - 7/41. The narration is Ḥasan

²⁰⁶ In another print it is actually ‘Ibn az-Zubayr’, referring to ‘Abd Allāh ibn az-Zubayr.

²⁰⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34048 - 7/41. The narration is weak and it was recorded in ‘al-Tārikḥ’ of al-Bukhārī 2/238, and in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 22/252.

Ibn al-Fuḍayl²⁰⁸ narrated to us, from ‘Aṭā’ ibn as-Sā’ib, from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr, from Ibn ‘Abbās: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 64], he said: “Two dark green (gardens).”²⁰⁹

حَدَّثَنَا أَسْبَاطُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [الرَّحْمَنُ: ٦٤] قَالَ: خَضِرَاوَانٍ مِنْ رِيَّهِمَا

Asbāṭ ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, from ‘Amr ibn Qays, from Salamah, from Mujāhid, regarding His statement: {مُدْهَامَتَانِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 64], he said: “Two dark green (gardens) from both of their irrigations.”²¹⁰

حَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي سِنَانٍ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ، قَالَ: سَوْدَاوَانٍ مِنَ الرَّيِّ

Ishāq ibn Sulaymān narrated to us, from Abī Sinān²¹¹, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk, he said: “Two blackish (gardens) from the irrigation.”²¹²

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ إِدْرِيسَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَطِيَّةٍ، قَالَ: خَضِرَاوَانٍ

‘Abd Allāh ibn Idrīs²¹³ narrated to us, from his father²¹⁴, from ‘Aṭiyyah²¹⁵, he said: “Two dark green (gardens).”²¹⁶

²⁰⁸ He is Muḥammad ibn al-Fuḍayl, and he is Ṭhiqāh.

²⁰⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34049 - 7/41. The narrators are Ṭhiqāt, but ‘Aṭā’ ibn as-Sā’ib suffered from memory confusion ‘ikhtilāṭ’ in the later portion of his life when he went to Baṣrah, and Muḥammad ibn al-Fuḍayl only heard from him during this portion, so this narration cannot be relied upon. It was narrated in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 22/256, and in ‘Tafsīr Ibn Abī Ḥātim’ no.18750 & 18752, and in ‘Tafsīr Ibn Kaṭhīr’ 7/507, and in ‘al-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.42.

²¹⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34050 - 7/41. I cannot find who ‘Salamah’ is, so this narration is weak due to the obscurity of Salamah.

²¹¹ He is Abū Sinān al-Burjumī, and he is Ṭhiqāh.

²¹² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34051 - 7/41. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

²¹³ He is ‘Abd Allāh ibn Idrīs ibn Yazīd ibn ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn al-Aswad ibn Ḥujayyah ibn al-Aṣḥab ibn Yazīd ibn Ḥalāwah ibn al-Za‘āfir, and he is ‘Āmir ibn Ḥarb ibn Sa‘d ibn Munabbih ibn Ud ibn Ṣa‘b ibn Sa‘d al-‘Ashīrah ibn Mālik ibn Udad ibn Zayd ibn Yashjub ibn ‘Arīb ibn Zayd ibn Kahlān ibn Sabā ibn Yashjub ibn Ya‘rub ibn Qaḥṭān al-Udī al-Za‘āfirī. Abū Muḥammad al-Kūfī, and he is Ṭhiqāh.

²¹⁴ He is Idrīs ibn Yazīd, and he is Ṭhiqāh.

²¹⁵ He is ‘Aṭiyyah ibn Sa‘d al-‘Awfī al-Kūfī, Abū al-Ḥasan (d. 111 AH). His ḥāl: Ṣadūq yuḥṭi’ kaṭhīran, mudallis, and ḍa‘īf (truthful yet frequently erring, a practitioner of tadlīs, and weak). While major critics like Ibn Ma‘īn and Abū Ḥātim permitted writing down his traditions for corroboration (yuktabu ḥadīthuhu), elite authorities—including Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Sufyān al-Ṭḥawrī, Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān, and al-Nasā’ī—weakened him significantly. His reliability was severely compromised by two major issues: his strong Shī‘ite leanings and, most infamously, his methodological deception (tadlīs al-taswīyah/isqāt) where he took exegetical reports from Muḥammad al-Kalbī and deliberately attributed them using the ambiguous kunyah “Abū Sa‘īd” to create the false impression that he was narrating directly from the Companion Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī. Consequently, his standalone reports are classified as weak and unreliable.

²¹⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34052 - 7/41. This is weak due to ‘Aṭiyyah.

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ وَاصِلٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءٍ، قَالَ: خَضِرَاوَانٍ مِنَ الرَّيِّ

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Wāṣil, from ‘Aṭā’, he said: “Two dark green (gardens) from the irrigation.”²¹⁷

The Tafsīr of {نَضَاحَتَانِ}

حَدَّثَنَا أَسْبَاطُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ قَيْسٍ، عَنْ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، قَالَ: {نَضَاحَتَانِ} [الرحمن: ٦٦] بِكُلِّ خَيْرٍ

Asbāṭ ibn Muḥammad narrated to us, from ‘Amr ibn Qays, from Salamah, from Mujāhid, he said: {نَضَاحَتَانِ} ar-Raḥmān: 66, “With every good (thing).”²¹⁸

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنْ أَشْعَثَ، عَنْ جَعْفَرٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، قَالَ: {نَضَاحَتَانِ} [الرحمن: ٦٦] بِأَلْمَاءٍ وَالْفَاكِهَةِ

Yaḥyā ibn Yamān²¹⁹ narrated to us, from ‘Ash‘aṭh, from Ja‘far, from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr, he said: {نَضَاحَتَانِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 66], “With the water and the fruits.”²²⁰

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ جَابِرٍ، عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ أَبِي بَرَّةَ، عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: {فِيهِنَّ خَيْرَاتٌ جَسَانٌ} [الرحمن: ٧٠] قَالَ: فِي كُلِّ خَيْمَةٍ خَيْرٌ

²¹⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34053 - 7/41. This is weak since I could not find out who Wāṣil is, nor did I find any source attesting to Wakī^c hearing from him, and also ‘Aṭā’ is obscure.

²¹⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34054 - 7/41. Refer to footnote no.204.

²¹⁹ He is Yaḥyā ibn Yamān al-‘Ijlī, Abū Zakariyyā al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: ṣadūq (truthful in himself), but technically weak (ḍa‘īf) due to memory instability and a late-life stroke (fuljā), rendering him rejected as an independent proof (laysa bi-ḥujjah). While critics unanimously affirmed his personal integrity, asceticism, and initial capability for rapid memorization, his precision permanently eroded due to rapid forgetfulness and post-stroke cognitive confusion (ikhtilāṭ). His reports from Sufyān al-Thawrī—despite being one of his most prolific companions—contained severe anomalies (‘ajā’ib), structural inversions (maqlūbāt), and contradictions with al-Thawrī’s elite students, making his corpus unpreserved (ghayr maḥfūz).

²²⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34055 - 7/41

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Jābir²²¹, from al-Qāsim ibn Abī Bazzah²²², from Abī ‘Ubayd²²³, from ‘Abd Allāh: {فِيهِنَّ خَيْرَاتٌ حَسَنَاتٌ} [ar-Raḥmān: 70], he said: “In every tent is a good one.”²²⁴

حَدَّثَنَا عَنْ ابْنِ الْمُبَارَكِ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ: {فِيهِنَّ خَيْرَاتٌ حَسَنَاتٌ} [الرحمن: ٧٠] قَالَ: عَذَارَى الْجَنَّةِ

I was narrated to from Ibn al-Mubārak, from ‘Ismā‘īl, from Abī Ṣāliḥ: {فِيهِنَّ خَيْرَاتٌ حَسَنَاتٌ} [ar-Raḥmān: 70], he said; “The virgins of al-Jannah.”²²⁵

The Tent From al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، عَنْ هَمَّامٍ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، قَالَ: الْخَيْمَةُ دُرَّةٌ مُجَوَّفَةٌ، فَرَسَخٌ فِي فَرَسَخٍ لَهَا أَرْبَعَةُ آلَافٍ مِصْرَاعٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, from Hammām, from Qatādah, from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās, he said: “The tent is a hollowed pearl, a farsakh by a farsakh, for it is 4000 door panels from gold.”²²⁶

The Tafsīr of {خُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ}

حَدَّثَنَا عَتَّامُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ: {خُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: عَذَارَى الْجَنَّةِ

²²¹ He is Jābir ibn Yazīd al-Ju‘fī, Abū ‘Abd Allāh al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: Weak and abandoned (da‘īf, matrūk); rejected as an independent proof due to extreme sectarianism (ghulū), severe tadlīs, and explicit accusations of lying. Foundational critics including al-Qaṭṭān, Ibn Maḥdī, Aḥmad, Ibn Ma‘īn, al-Nasā‘ī, and al-Dāraquṭnī universally boycotted him. While early authorities like Shu‘bah transmitted from him, this is classified by consensus as anomalous (shādhdh). His rejection is anchored in three structural defects: explicit labeling as a liar (kadhhdhāb) after admitting to holding 50,000 secret undisclosed reports; severe tadlīs concealing weak intermediaries; and sectarian extremism (ghulū)—such as propagating the doctrine of raj‘ah (the physical return of ‘Alī)—which caused transmitters like Jarīr and Zā‘idāh to completely discard his reports.

²²² He is al-Qāsim ibn Abī Bazzah (given name: Nāfi‘, Yasār, or Nāfi‘ ibn Yasār), Abū ‘Abd Allāh (also Abū ‘Āsim) al-Makkī, the mawlā of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Sā‘ib al-Makhzūmī, and he is Ṭhiqah.

²²³ He is Abū ‘Ubaydah ibn ‘Abd Allāh ibn Mas‘ūd, and he is Ṭhiqah, but he did not hear from his father.

²²⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34056 - 7/41. The narration is weak due to Jābir ibn Yazīd al-Ju‘fī, and since I could not find anything to prove he heard from al-Qāsim ibn Abī Bazzah, and also it is disconnected between Abū ‘Ubaydah and ‘Abd Allāh ibn Mas‘ūd. It was recorded in ‘al-‘Ilal’ of Ibn Abī Ḥātim 5/540, and in the Ziyādāt to ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqā‘iq’ of ‘Abd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak pg.69 with a connected chain, except from Jābir, and in ‘Tafsīr aṭ-Ṭabarī’ 22/262, and in ‘Tafsīr Ibn Kaṭhīr’ 7/468, and in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ by Ibn Abī ad-Dunyā no.306.

²²⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34057 - 7/41. It is weak since the author did not mention who narrated to him from Ibn al-Mubārak, rendering the narration mubham.

²²⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34058 - 7/41. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

‘Aṭḥḥām ibn ‘Alī narrated to us, from ‘Ismā‘īl, from Abī Ṣāliḥ: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 72], he said: “The virgins of al-Jannah.”²²⁷

حَدَّثَنَا عُذْرٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ عُمَارَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي مِجْلَزٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ فِي: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: دُرٌّ مَجَوَّفَةٌ أَوْ مَجَوَّفٌ

Ġḥundar narrated to us, from Shu‘bah, from ‘Umārah²²⁸, from Abī Mijlaz²²⁹, from the Prophet ﷺ that he said concerning: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 72], he said: “A hollow (Mujawwafah) pearl or Mujawwaf.”²³⁰

حَدَّثَنَا عُذْرٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ مَيْسَرَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي الْأَحْوَصِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: دُرٌّ مَجَوَّفٌ

Ġḥundar narrated to us, from Shu‘bah, from ‘Abd al-Malik ibn Maysarah, from Abī al-‘Aḥwaṣ²³¹, from ‘Abd Allāh, he said: “A hollow pearl”²³²

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَرْوَانَ الْبَصْرِيُّ، عَنْ أَبِي الْعَوَّامِ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ، حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ قَالَ: قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: الْخَيْمَةُ دُرٌّ مَجَوَّفَةٌ، فَرَسَخَ فِي فَرَسَخٍ فِيهِ أَرْبَعَةُ آلَافٍ مِصْرَاعٍ

²²⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34059 - 7/42. Its narrators are Ṭhiqāt, but I am unsure if ‘Ismā‘īl heard from Abī Ṣāliḥ.

²²⁸ He is ‘Umārah bin Abī Ḥafṣah al-Azdī al-‘Atakī al-Baṣrī Abū Rawḥ (and it is said, ‘Abū al-Ḥakam’). He was from the sixth tier (ṭabaqah), died in 132 AH, and he was Ṭhiqah (trustworthy).

²³¹ He is ‘Awf ibn Mālik ibn Naḍlah, Abū al-Aḥwaṣ al-Jushāmī al-‘Ashja‘ī al-Kūfī. He narrated from ‘Abd Allāh ibn Mas‘ūd, and he is ṭhiqah.

²³² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34061 - 7/42. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

Muḥammad ibn Marwān al-Baṣrī²³³ narrated to us, from Abī al-ʿAwwām²³⁴, from Qatādah, from Ibn ʿAbbās: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 72], Ibn ʿAbbās said: “The tent is a hollow pearl, a farsakh by a farsakh, in it 4000 door-panels.”²³⁵

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَرْوَانَ، عَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: دُرٌّ مَجُوفٌ

Muḥammad ibn Marwān narrated to us,²³⁶ from ʿIkrimah: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} ar-Raḥmān: 72, he said: “A hollow pearl.”²³⁷

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ، عَنْ حَرْبِ بْنِ بَشِيرٍ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ عَمْرَو بْنَ مَيْمُونٍ، يَقُولُ: الْخِيَمَةُ دُرَّةٌ مُجَوَّفَةٌ

Wakīʿ narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Manṣūr²³⁸, from Ḥarb ibn Bashīr²³⁹, he said: I heard ʿAmr ibn Maymūn saying: “The tent is a hollow pearl.”²⁴⁰

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ، عَنْ الرَّبِيعِ، عَنْ أَبِي الْعَالِيَةِ: {حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: مَحْبُوسَاتٌ

²³³ He is Muḥammad ibn Marwān ibn Qudāmah al-ʿUqaylī, Abū Bakr al-Baṣrī, known as al-ʿIjlī. His ḥāl: ṣadūq/ṭhiqah. Ibn Maʿīn said “ṣāliḥ,” and in another report “lā baʿsa bihi,” adding that he himself had written ḥadīths from him. Abū Dāwūd called him “ṣadūq” in one place and “ṭhiqah” in another. Ibn Ḥibbān included him in al-Thiqāt. Abū Zurʿah’s assessment was more reserved — “laysa ʿindī bi-dhāka” (not much, in my view) — but this is a vague, mild reservation rather than a specific jarḥ. Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal is reported to have personally declined to write down ḥadīths he heard directly from him, without giving a reason, which the later compiler reads as a quiet sign of some reservation on Aḥmad’s part, though nothing explicit is stated.

²³⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34062 - 7/42. The narrators are trustworthy, but the narration is munqaṭiʿ since Qatādah did not hear from Ibn ʿAbbās.

²³⁶ The narrator ʿUmārah is omitted from this narration since it was omitted in the manuscript it was taken from but it was mentioned in another print.

²³⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34063 - 7/42. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

²³⁸ This narrator is an addition in this manuscript in which this narration is found and is not found in other manuscripts.

²⁴⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34064 - 7/42. If we consider the chain mentioned here then it is weak due to the obscurity of Ḥarb ibn Bashīr, and likewise is the case if we consider the chain of Wakīʿ -> Sufyān -> Ḥazn ibn Bashīr -> ʿAmr ibn Maymūn.

Yahyā ibn Yamān²⁴¹ narrated to us, from Abī Ja‘far²⁴², from ar-Rabī‘²⁴³, from Abī al-‘Āliyah²⁴⁴. {حُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} ar-Raḥmān: 72, he said: “Confined.”²⁴⁵

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَمَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي مَعْشَرٍ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ كَعْبٍ الْقُرَظِيِّ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {حُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: فِي الْحُجَالِ

Yahyā ibn Yamān narrated to us, from Abī Ma‘shar, from Muḥammad ibn Ka‘b al-Quraḏī, regarding His statement: {حُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [ar-Raḥmān: 72], he said; “In the curtained canopies.”²⁴⁶

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سَلَمَةَ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {حُورٌ مَقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ} [الرحمن: ٧٢] قَالَ: دُرٌّ مُجَوَّفٌ

²⁴¹ He is Yahyā ibn Yamān, Abū Zakariyyā al-‘Ijlī al-Kūfī. His ḥāl: ṣadūq, but weak due to a documented decline in memory. While early in his career he possessed exceptional retention—capable of memorizing 500 reports in a single sitting per Wakī‘—he was struck with falaj (paralysis) late in life, after which his precision eroded. Master critics including Aḥmad, Ibn Ma‘īn, al-Nasā‘ī, and Ibn Numayr graded him weak (laysa bi-ḥujjah, laysa bi-thabt, "like fantasy"), noting that his transmissions from Sufyān al-Thawrī specifically were unpreserved (ghayr mahfūz) and conflicted with elite students. Ya‘qūb ibn Ṣhaybah summarized his rule: truthful and prolific, but not a proof when he contradicts others.

²⁴⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34065 - 7/42. The narration is graded as Ḍa‘īf (Weak). This is because the chain suffers from cumulative memory flaws and transmission inconsistencies: Yahyā ibn Yamān experienced a late-life decline in precision, Abū Ja‘far al-Rāzī is heavily characterized by poor memorization (sayyi’ al-ḥifẓ), and transmissions coming via Abū Ja‘far from al-Rabī‘ ibn Anas suffer from structural inconsistency (iḍṭirāb).

²⁴⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34066 - 7/42

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Salamah²⁴⁷, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk²⁴⁸ regarding His statement: [ar-Raḥmān: 72], he said: “A hollow pearl.”²⁴⁹

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ مَنْشُورٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، قَالَ: الْخَيْمَةُ دُرٌّ مَجَوَّفَةٌ

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Manṣūr, from Mujāhid, he said: “The tent is a hollow pearl.”²⁵⁰

The Tafsīr of {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رَفْرَفٍ خُضِرٍ وَعَبْقَرِيٍّ حِسَانٍ}

حَدَّثَنَا هُشَيْمٌ، عَنْ أَبِي بَشِيرٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رَفْرَفٍ خُضِرٍ وَعَبْقَرِيٍّ حِسَانٍ} [الرحمن: ٧٦] قَالَ: الرَّفْرَفُ رِيَاضُ الْجَنَّةِ وَالْعَبْقَرِيُّ: عَتَاقُ الزَّرَّابِيِّ

²⁴⁷ He is Abū Firās Salamah ibn Nubayṭ ibn Shurayṭ al-ʿAshjaʿī al-Kūfī (d. 141–150 AH), and he is Ṭhiqah.

²⁴⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34067 - 7/42. The narration is Ḥasan at the least, and perhaps Ṣaḥīḥ.

²⁵⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34068 - 7/42. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt.

Hushaym²⁵¹ narrated to us, from Abī Bishr²⁵², from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr regarding His statement: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رَفْرِفٍ خُضِرٍ وَعَقْرِيَّ جَسَانٍ} [ar-Raḥmān: 76], he said: “The cushions are the meadows of al-Jannah, and al-‘Aqbarī (are): Vintage carpets.”²⁵³

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ جُوَيْرٍ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ، قَالَ: الرَّفْرِفُ: الْمَجَالِسُ، وَالْعَقْرِيُّ: الرَّزَابِيُّ

‘Abdah ibn Sulaymān narrated to us, from Juwaybir, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk, he said: “ar-Rafrāf (are): The sittings. And al-‘Aqbarī (are): The beautiful, fine carpets.”²⁵⁴

حَدَّثَنَا قَبِيصَةُ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ هَارُونَ بْنِ عَنَتَرَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رَفْرِفٍ خُضِرٍ} [الرحمن: ٧٦] قَالَ: فُضُولُ الْمَجَالِسِ وَالْبُسُطِ وَالْفُرُشِ

²⁵¹ He is Hushaym ibn Bashīr al-Wāsiṭī, Abū Mu‘āwiyah (d. 183 AH). His ḥāl: An imam, ṭhiqah (trustworthy), and ṭhabt (precise master memorizer) whose immense retention and authority were universally praised by master critics like Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Ibn Ma‘īn, and Ibn Maḥdī—the latter ranking his memory in specific routes (such as Ḥuṣayn) above even Sufyān al-Ṭhawrī. However, because he lost his original written compilation from al-Zuhri to a river gust and frequently engaged in widespread tadrīs (obscuring chains) and irsāl khafī (hidden disconnection), classical critics like Muḥammad ibn Sa‘d established a strict practical rule for evaluating his corpus: any report where he explicitly states audition (using terms like akhbaranā or ḥaddathanā) is accepted as an authentic proof (ḥujjah), whereas ambiguous, unstated transmissions (‘an‘anah) without clear proof of hearing are rejected.

²⁵² He is Ja‘far ibn Iyās al-Yashkurī al-Wāsiṭī, Abū Bishr, famously known as Ibn Abī Waḥshīyah (d. circa 125 AH). His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah (trustworthy) and ṭhabt (precise master memorizer), ranked among the most established (aṭḥbat) authorities on Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr by master critics like Aḥmad, Ibn Ma‘īn, Abū Ḥātim, and al-Nasā‘ī. His mild Shī‘ite leanings (kāna ‘alawīyyan) were treated separately from his technical reliability. While Shu‘bah and Yahyā al-Qaṭṭān weakened his traditions from Ḥabīb ibn Sālim and Mujāhid, scholars clarified this was solely due to narrating from written scrolls (ṣaḥīfah) without direct audition (samā‘), rather than any defect in memory. Thus, his transmissions from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr are definitive proofs (ḥujjah), whereas his reports from Mujāhid and Ḥabīb are scrutinized for unestablished direct hearing.

²⁵³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34069 - 7/42. Since Hushaym transmitted this narration with ‘an‘anah instead of explicit statements such as akhbaranā or ḥaddathanā, this narration is weak.

²⁵⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34070 - 7/42. The narration is weak due to Juwaybir, and there is also no mention of ‘Abdah hearing from him.

Qabīṣah²⁵⁵ narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Hārūn ibn ‘Antarah, from his father, from Ibn ‘Abbās: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رُفْرِ خُضِرٍ} ar-Raḥmān: 76, he said: “The hanging portions of the sittings, and the carpets, and the cushions.”²⁵⁶

حَدَّثَنَا قَبِيصَةُ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ رِبَاحِ بْنِ أَبِي مُعْرُوفٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ: {وَعَبْقَرِيَّ جَسَانٍ} [الرحمن: ٧٦] قَالَ: الدِّبَاجُ

Qabīṣah narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Rabāḥ ibn Abī Ma‘rūf²⁵⁷, from Mujāhid: {وَعَبْقَرِيَّ} ar-Raḥmān: 76, he said: “Heavy silk brocade.”²⁵⁸

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُثَيْمٍ، عَنْ أَبِي رَجَاءٍ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رُفْرِ خُضِرٍ} [الرحمن: ٧٦] قَالَ: الْبُسْطُ، كَانَ أَهْلُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ يَقُولُونَ: هِيَ الْبُسْطُ

Ibn ‘Uliyyah narrated to us, from Abī Rajā’, from al-Ḥasan: {مُتَكِنِينَ عَلَى رُفْرِ خُضِرٍ} ar-Raḥmān: 76, he said: “The carpets. The people of al-Jāhiliyyah used to say: It is the carpets.”²⁵⁹

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ، قَالَ: الْإِسْتَبْرَقُ: الدِّبَاجُ الْغَلِيظُ

²⁵⁵ He is Qabīṣah ibn ‘Uqbah al-Sawā’ī al-Kūfi, Abū ‘Āmir (d. 215 AH). His ḥāl: ṣadūq, ḥāfiẓ, and ‘ābid—an established, authoritative proof across his general corpus. Abū Ḥātim praised him in extraordinary terms, ranking him among only four scholars ever capable of delivering ḥadīth from memory in a single, unaltered wording (alongside Abū Nu‘aym, Yaḥyā al-Ḥimmānī, and ‘Alī ibn al-Ja‘d). Abū Zur‘ah ranked him above Abū Nu‘aym in overall excellence, and Aḥmad called him "far more reliable" than Abū Ḥudhayfah, affirming him as "a righteous man, ṭhiqah, lā ba’sa bihi." His unimpeachable honesty was such that Ibn Numayr remarked they would have accepted even an historically impossible claim from him (like narrating from al-Nakḥa‘ī) out of sheer trust in his integrity. The sole technical caveat against him is strictly limited to his transmissions from Sufyān al-Thawrī: Ibn Ma‘īn, Aḥmad, and Ṣāliḥ Jazrah flagged frequent errors (kathīr al-ghalat) in his Sufyān-material, which they explicitly attributed to his youth during those sessions—a precision concern corroborated by Qabīṣah’s own statement that he began sitting with al-Thawrī at age sixteen. Thus, his overarching integrity remains spotless, with critical scrutiny applied solely to his youthful memory of al-Thawrī.

²⁵⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34071 - 7/42. The narration is weak due to Qabīṣah’s memory in narrating from Sufyān.

²⁵⁷ He is Rabāḥ ibn Abī Ma‘rūf al-Makkī. His ḥāl: ṣadūq, lahu awhām (truthful, but prone to errors). Early critics split over his precision: moderate authorities like Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Abū Ḥātim, Abū Zur‘ah, and Ibn ‘Adī defended him as ṣāliḥ (acceptable) with no rejected (munkar) reports, whereas strict critics like Ibn Ma‘īn, al-Nasā’ī, and Ibn Ḥibbān noted clear memory mistakes (awhām). Consequently, master imams like Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān and ‘Abd al-Raḥmān ibn Maḥdī ultimately abandoned narrating from him. While his personal integrity and piety are undisputed, his isolated traditions are scrutinized for inadvertent errors.

²⁵⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34072 - 7/42. This narration is weak like the previous one due to Qabīṣah narrating from Sufyān, and also due to the weakness of Rabāḥ ibn Abī Ma‘rūf al-Makkī.

²⁵⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34073 - 7/43. I could not find Ibn ‘Uliyyah hearing from Abī Rajā’, nor Abī Rajā’ from al-Ḥasan, so this narration seems weak, and Allāh knows best.

Yahyā ibn Saʿīd²⁶⁰ narrated to us, from Saʿīd, from Qatādah, from ʿIkrimah, he said: “al-ʿIstabraq: The thick silk brocade.”²⁶¹

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدَةُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ، عَنْ جُوَيْرٍ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ، قَالَ: الْإِسْتَبْرَقُ الذِّيْبَاجُ الْعَلِيْظُ

ʿAbdah ibn Sulaymān narrated to us, from Juwaybir, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk, he said: “al-ʿIstabraq: The thick silk brocade.”²⁶²

The Degrees of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا هَمَّامٌ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ أَسْلَمَ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: الْجَنَّةُ مِائَةُ دَرَجَةٍ بَيْنَ كُلِّ دَرَجَةٍ كَمَا بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ، وَالْفِرْدَوْسُ أَغْلَاهَا دَرَجَةً، وَمِنْ فَوْقِهَا يَكُونُ الْعَرْشُ، وَمِنْهَا تُفَجَّرُ أَنْهَارُ الْجَنَّةِ الْأَرْبَعَةِ، فَإِذَا سَأَلْتُمْ اللَّهَ الْجَنَّةَ فَاسْأَلُوهُ الْفِرْدَوْسَ

Yazīd ibn Hārūn narrated to us, he said: Hammām narrated to us, he said: Zayd ibn ʿAslam²⁶³ narrated to us, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Yasār, from ʿUḇādah ibn aṣ-Ṣāmit, from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “al-Jannah is (made up of) 100 degrees, between every degree is like what is between the sky to the Earth, and al-Firdaws is its highest degree, and from above it will be the Throne, and from it the 4 rivers of al-Jannah gush forth, so when you have asked Allāh (for) al-Jannah, then ask Him (for) al-Firdaws.”²⁶⁴

²⁶⁰ He is Yahyā ibn Saʿīd al-Anṣārī al-Madanī (d. 143 AH). His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah ṭhabt, ḥāfiẓ, and ḥujjah (trustworthy, precise master memorizer, and definitive proof). Universally acclaimed by elite critics like Aḥmad, Ibn Maʿīn, al-Ṭhawrī, and al-Qaṭṭān, he was ranked among the absolute highest-tier authorities of Medina, with Aḥmad declaring him aṭḥbat al-nās (the most established of people). His exceptional integrity and preservation were famously lauded by Mālik ibn Anas, who noted that Yahyā alone retained his exact standards after traveling to Iraq, and by Hishām ibn ʿUrwah, who relied upon him as an upright benchmark. His mainstream corpus represents the pinnacle of authenticity and jurisprudential precision.

²⁶¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34074 - 7/43. The narration is weak due to the obscurity of Saʿīd.

²⁶² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34075 - 7/43. The narration is weak due to Juwaybir.

²⁶⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34076 - 7/43. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded in ‘Musnad al-Imām Aḥmad’ no.22087, 22695 & 22738, and in ‘Sunan al-Tirmidhī’ no.2531, and in ‘al-Mustadrak ʿalā al-Ṣaḥīḥayn’ of al-Ḥākim 1/403-404, and in ‘Kitāb al-Tawḥīd’ of Ibn Khuzaymah 1/240, and in ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 15/432-435, and in ‘Musnad ʿAbd ibn Ḥumayd’ 1/187, and in ‘Musnad al-Shāshī’ no.1238, 1239, & 1241, and in ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ of Abū Nuʿaym no.225 & 301, and in ‘al-Aḥādīth al-Mukhtārāh’ of al-Ḍiyāʾ no.394, 396 & 398,

The Tafsīr of {عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ}

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ ابْنِ أَبِي نَجِيحٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ: {عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ} [الحجر: ٤٧] قَالَ: لَا يَنْظُرُ بَعْضُهُمْ فِي فَقَا بَعْضٍ

Wakī^c narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Ibn Abi Najīh²⁶⁵, from Mujāhid: {عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ} [al-Hijr: 47], he said: “Some of them do not (even) look at the nape of some.”²⁶⁶

The Alcohol of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا شَرِيكٌ، عَنْ سَالِمٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ: {لَا يُصَدَّعُونَ عَنْهَا وَلَا يُنْزَفُونَ} [الواقعة: ١٩] قَالَ: لَا تُصَدَّعُ رُءُوسُهُمْ وَلَا تَنْزَفُ عُقُولُهُمْ

Sharīk narrated to us, from Sālim, from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr: {لَا يُصَدَّعُونَ عَنْهَا وَلَا يُنْزَفُونَ} al-Wāqī‘ah:19, he said: “Their heads do not suffer, nor do their intellects intoxicate.”²⁶⁷

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ نُمَيْرٍ، عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ، عَنْ حُصَيْنٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ: {وَكَأْسٍ مِنْ مَعِينٍ} [الواقعة: ١٨] قَالَ: خَمْرٌ بَيَضَاءُ لَا يُصَدَّعُونَ عَنْهَا وَلَا يُنْزَفُونَ قَالَ: لَا تُصَدَّعُ رُءُوسُهُمْ وَلَا يَقْبِئُونَهَا

‘Abd Allāh ibn Numayr, from Abī Ja‘far, from Ḥuṣayn, from Mujāhid: {وَكَأْسٍ مِنْ مَعِينٍ} al-Wāqī‘ah:18, he said: “A white alcoholic drink, they do not suffer from it, and they do not intoxicate.” He said: “Their heads do not suffer nor do they vomit it out.”²⁶⁸

The Tafsīr of {مَوْضُونَةٍ}

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ إِدْرِيسَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي عُثْبَةَ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، وَعَنْ حُصَيْنٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {مَوْضُونَةٍ} [الواقعة: ١٥] قَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا: الْمَرْمُوءَةُ، وَقَالَ أَحَدُهُمَا: الْمَرْمُوءَةُ بِالذَّهَبِ

and in ‘al-Ba‘th wa-al-Nushūr’ of al-Bayhaqī no.789, 790 & 791. It has also been reported via the route of ‘Aṭā’ from Abū Hurayrah, extracted by al-Bukhārī (2790), and reported from the ḥadīth of ‘Aṭā’ from Mu‘ādh, extracted by Ibn Mājah (4331), and al-Tirmidhī (2530).

²⁶⁵ He is ‘Abd Allāh ibn Abī Najīh al-Makkī, Abū Yasār (d. 131 AH). His ḥāl: Thiqah, accused of al-qadar, and occasionally practiced tadlīs (trustworthy, held predestinarian deviations, and engaged in subtle concealment in chains). Elite critics like Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Ibn Ma‘īn, Abū Ḥātim, and Abū Zur‘ah solidly authenticated his overall reliability, with Sufyān al-Thawrī famously authenticating his specialized transmissions in Qur’anic exegesis (tafsīr). However, senior authorities like Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān and Abū Ḥātim pointed out a critical methodological caveat: his transmission of Mujāhid’s tafsīr was based on written records/books (specifically via al-Qāsim ibn Abī Bazzah) rather than direct auditory reception (samā‘). Coupled with doctrinal accusations regarding al-qadar and isolated instances of tadlīs, his general narrations are accepted as trustworthy, while his specific tafsīr routes from Mujāhid are evaluated with careful scrutiny regarding direct audition.

²⁶⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34077 - 7/43. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

²⁶⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34078 - 7/43. The narration is Ḥasan.

²⁶⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34079 - 7/43. The narration is weak due to the obscurity of Abī Ja‘far, and Ḥuṣayn.

‘Abd Allāh ibn Idrīs narrated to us, from his father, from Abī ‘Utbah²⁶⁹, from Sa‘īd ibn Jubayr, and from Ḥuṣayn, from Mujāhid regarding His statement: {مَوْضُونَةٌ} [al-Wāqī‘ah: 15], One of them said: “Woven”, and one of them said: “Woven with gold.”²⁷⁰

The Two Different Types of Meat of The Birds of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ مَنْصُورٍ، عَنْ حَسَّانَ بْنِ أَبِي الْأَثَرَسِ، عَنْ مُغِيثِ بْنِ سُمَيٍّ، قَالَ يَجِيءُ الطَّيْرُ فَيَقَعُ عَلَى الشَّجَرَةِ فَيَأْكُلُ مِنْ أَحَدِ جَنْبَيْهِ قَدِيدًا وَمِنْ الْأُخْرَى شِوَاءً

Wakī‘ narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Manṣūr, from Ḥassān ibn Abī al-ʿAshras, from Muḡhīth ibn Sumayy, he said: “A bird comes, so it lands upon the tree, so (a man) eats from one of its two sides cured (or jerked) meat and from the other grilled (meat).”²⁷¹

The Tafsīr of {وَفُرُشٍ مَرْفُوعَةٍ}

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ: {وَفُرُشٍ مَرْفُوعَةٍ} [الواقعة: ٣٤] قَالَ: لَوْ خَرَّ مِنْ أَعْلَاهَا فِرَاشٌ لَهَوَى إِلَى قَرَارِهَا كَذَا وَكَذَا خَرِيفًا

Wakī‘ narrated to us, from Ja‘far ibn az-Zubayr²⁷², from al-Qāsim, from Abī ‘Umāmah: {وَفُرُشٍ مَرْفُوعَةٍ} [al-Wāqī‘ah: 34], he said: “If a cushion fell from its highest point, it would fall to its fixed point (for) such and such autumns (years).”²⁷³

The Tafsīr of {قُطُوفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ}

حَدَّثَنَا عُندَرٌ، عَنْ شُعْبَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ: {قُطُوفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ} [الحاقة: ٢٣] قَالَ: يَتَنَاولُ الرَّجُلُ فَوَاكِهَهَا وَهُوَ قَانِمٌ

²⁶⁹ He is majhūl. He was mentioned in ‘aṭh-Thiqāt’ of Ibn Ḥibbān (7/660), ‘al-Jarḥ wat-Ta‘dīl’ of Ibn Abī Ḥātim (9/412), and in ‘al-ʿIstighnā’ of Ibn ‘Abd al-Barr (3/1463) in which he says: “Abū ‘Utbah: he narrated from ‘Ā’ishah, Mis‘ar ibn Kudām narrated from him. Abū Ḥātim said: ‘He is majhūl, he is not recognised, Mis‘ar narrated from him, from a man, from ‘Ā’ishah.”

²⁷⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34080 - 7/43. The narration is weak due to Abū ‘Utbah.

²⁷¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34081 - 7/43. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt

²⁷³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34082 - 7/43. The narration is weak due to Ja‘far.

Ḡhundar narrated to us, from Shu‘bah, from Abī Ishāq, from al-Barā’²⁷⁴: {فُطُوْفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ} [al-Ḥāqqah: 23], he said: “The man reaches its fruits and he is standing.”²⁷⁴

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ زَكَرِيَّا، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ: {دَانِيَةٌ} [الحاقة: ٢٣] قَالَ: أُدْنِيَتْ مِنْهُمْ

Abū Salamah narrated to us, from Zakariyyā, from Abī Ishāq, from al-Barā’²⁷⁵: {دَانِيَةٌ} [al-Ḥāqqah: 23], he said: “Brought near to them.”²⁷⁵

The Tafsīr of {وَذَلَّلْتُ فُطُوْفُهَا تَذْلِيلًا}

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ، عَنْ زَكَرِيَّا، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ: {وَذَلَّلْتُ فُطُوْفُهَا تَذْلِيلًا} [الإنسان: ١٤] قَالَ: ذَلَّلْتُ لَهُمْ يَأْخُذُونَ مِنْهَا حَيْثُ شَاءُوا

Abū ‘Usamah narrated to us, from Zakariyyā²⁷⁶, from Abī Ishāq, from al-Barā’²⁷⁶: {وَذَلَّلْتُ فُطُوْفُهَا} [al-Insān: 14], he said: “Lowered (or made submissive) for them, they take from it where they will.”²⁷⁷

al-‘Abqarī

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ رَجُلٍ، عَنْ مُجَاهِدٍ، قَالَ: الْعَبْقَرِيُّ الذِّيْبَاجُ الْعَلِيْظُ

Wakī‘ narrated to us, from Sufyān, from a man, from Mujāhid, he said: “al-‘Abqarī (are): The thick silk brocade.”²⁷⁸

Jannah al-‘Adn

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ، عَنْ أَبِي سِنَانٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ، قَالَ: لَمَّا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ جَنَّةَ عَدْنٍ قَالَ لَهَا: تَكَلَّمِي، قَالَتْ: {فَدَأْفَلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ} [المؤمنون: ١]

²⁷⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34083 - 7/43. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt

²⁷⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34084 - 7/43.

²⁷⁶ He is Zakariyyā ibn Abī Zā‘idah al-Hamdānī al-Kūfī, Abū Yaḥyā (d. 147, 148, or 149 AH). His ḥāl: Ṭhiqah, yudallis (Trustworthy, but practiced tadrīs). Elite critics—such as Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal, Yaḥyā ibn Ma‘īn, al-Nasā‘ī, Ibn Sa‘d, and al-‘Ijlī—unanimously certified his overarching reliability, accuracy, and strong standing in ḥadīth, with Imam Aḥmad warmly praising his sweetness in transmission (ḥulw al-ḥadīth). His reports were accepted and utilized by the authors of the Ṣaḥīḥ collections (such as Ibn Khuzaymah and Ibn Ḥibbān). However, senior critics like Abū Ḥatīm and Abū Zur‘ah noted two critical qualifications: he practiced tadrīs frequently (particularly from al-Sha‘bī), and his transmission from Abū Ishāq al-Sabī‘ī occurred late in the latter's life (bi-ākhirah). Despite these notes of caution regarding his tadrīs and late hearing, his baseline reliability as a trustworthy and authoritative transmitter remains firmly established.

²⁷⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34085 - 7/44. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt

²⁷⁸ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34086 - 7/44. The narration is mubham and weak since a narrator was unnamed.

Wakīʿ narrated to us, from Sufyān, from Abī Sinān, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith, he said: “When Allāh created Jannah ʿAdn, He said to it: ‘Speak.’ It said: {قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ} [al-Muʾminīn: 1]”²⁷⁹

The Tafsīr of {عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ مُتَكِنُونَ}

ʿAbd Allāh ibn Idrīs narrated to us, from Ḥuṣayn, from Mujāhid: {عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ مُتَكِنُونَ} Yā Sīn:56, he said: “The thrones, upon them are the curtained bridal canopies.”²⁸⁰

The Tafsīr of {يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيقٍ مَخْتُومٍ}

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُثَيْمٍ، عَنْ أَبِي رَجَاءٍ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ: {يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيقٍ مَخْتُومٍ} [المطففين: ٢٥] قَالَ: هِيَ الْخَمْرُ

Ibn ʿUliyyah narrated to us, from Abī Rajāʾ, from al-Ḥasan: {يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيقٍ مَخْتُومٍ} [al-Muṭaffifīn: 25], he said: “It is the alcoholic drink.”²⁸¹

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُرَّةٍ، عَنْ مَسْرُوقٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، قَالَ: الرَّحِيقُ: الْخَمْرُ

Wakīʿ narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Murrah, from Masrūq, from ʿAbd Allāh, he said: “ar-Raḥīq (is): The alcoholic drink.”²⁸²

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنِ الْأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُرَّةٍ، عَنْ مَسْرُوقٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ: {مَخْتُومٍ} [المطففين: ٢٥]: مَمْزُوجٌ، {خِتَامُهُ مِسْكٌ} [المطففين: ٢٦] قَالَ: طَعْمُهُ وَرِيحُهُ تَسْنِيمٌ عَيْنٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ {يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ} [المطففين: ٢٨] صَرَفًا وَيُمَزَّجُ لِأَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ

The Tafsīr of {وَمَزَاجُهُ مِنْ} & {يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ}, {خِتَامُهُ مِسْكٌ}, {مَخْتُومٍ} {تَسْنِيمٌ}

Wakīʿ narrated to us, from al-ʿAʿmash, from ʿAbd Allāh ibn Murrah, from Masrūq, from ʿAbd Allāh: {مَخْتُومٍ} [al-Muṭaffifīn: 25]: “Mixed.”, {خِتَامُهُ مِسْكٌ} [al-Muṭaffifīn: 26], he said: “Its taste and its scent is Tasnīm, a spring in al-Jannah. {يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ} [al-Muṭaffifīn: 28], Pure, and it is blended for the Companions of the Right.”²⁸³

²⁷⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34087 - 7/44. Abī Sinān and ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Ḥārith are obscure, rendering this narration weak.

²⁸⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34088 - 7/44. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

²⁸¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34089 - 7/44. This narration is weak due to the obscurity of Abī Rajāʾ and no mention of him hearing from al-Ḥasan, or Ibn ʿUliyyah hearing from him.

²⁸² Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34090 - 7/44. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

²⁸³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhāybah 34091 - 7/44. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

حَدَّثَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنْ مُنْصُورٍ، عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ: {وَمَزَاجُهُ مِنْ تَسْنِيمٍ عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ} [المطففين: ٢٨]: صَرَفًا وَيُمَزَّجُ لِسَائِرِ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ

Jarīr²⁸⁴ narrated to us, from Manṣūr, from Mālik ibn al-Ḥārith: {وَمَزَاجُهُ مِنْ تَسْنِيمٍ عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا} [al-Muṭaffifin: 28]: “Pure, and blended for the rest of the people of al-Jannah.”²⁸⁵

حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ عُثَيْمٍ، عَنْ أَبِي رَجَاءٍ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ: {وَمَزَاجُهُ مِنْ تَسْنِيمٍ} [المطففين: ٢٧] قَالَ: خَفَايَا أَخْفَاهَا اللَّهُ لِأَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ

Ibn ‘Uliyyah narrated to us, from Abī Rajā’, from al-Ḥasan: {وَمَزَاجُهُ مِنْ تَسْنِيمٍ} al-Muṭaffifin:28, he said: “Hidden things (that) Allāh have kept hidden for the people of al-Jannah.”²⁸⁶

حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ آدَمَ، عَنْ شَرِيكِ، عَنْ سَالِمٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ، وَعَنْ أَبِي رَوْقٍ، عَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ، فِي قَوْلِهِ: {خَتَامُهُ مِسْكٌ} [المطففين: ٢٦] قَالَا: آخِرُ طَعْمِهِ

Yaḥyā ibn ‘Ādam narrated to us, from Sharīk, from Sālim, from Sa‘īd, and from Abī Rawq, from aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk regarding His statement: {خَتَامُهُ مِسْكٌ} [al-Muṭaffifin: 26], they both said: “The last of its taste.”²⁸⁷

Those Who Love Each Other For the Sake of Allāh

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ إِدْرِيسَ، عَنْ أَبِي خَالِدٍ، عَنْ قُرَّةَ بِنِ شَرِيكِ الْعُجْلِيِّ، عَنِ ابْنِ سَابِطٍ، قَالَ: أُنبِئْتُ أَنَّ عَنْ يَمِينِ الرَّحْمَنِ وَكِلْتَا يَدَيْهِ يَمِينٌ قَوْمٌ عَلَى مَنَابِرَ مِنْ نُورٍ، وَوُجُوهُهُمْ نُورٌ، عَلَيْهِمْ ثِيَابٌ خَضِرٌ تَعْنِي أَبْصَارُ النَّاطِرِينَ، لَيْسُوا بِأَنْبِيَاءَ وَلَا شُهَدَاءَ، قَوْمٌ تَحَابُّوا فِي جَلَالِ اللَّهِ حِينَ عُصِيَ اللَّهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ

‘Abd Allāh ibn Idrīs narrated to us, from Abī Khālīd²⁸⁸, from Qurrah ibn Sharīk al-‘Ijlī²⁸⁹, from Ibn Sābiṭ, he said: “I have been informed that at the Right Hand of al-Raḥmān, and both of His Hands are Right (meaning blessed), is a nation upon pulpits from light, and their faces (are) light, upon them (are) green clothes, it overwhelms the sight of the lookers.

²⁸⁴ He is Jarīr ibn ‘Abd al-Ḥamīd al-Ḍabbī, Abū ‘Abd Allāh al-Rāzī. His ḥāl: Thiqah, ṣaḥīḥ al-kitāb. Abū Ḥātim, Abū Zur‘ah, al-‘Ijlī, al-Nasā‘ī, al-Khalīlī, al-Lālikā‘ī, Ibn Ḥibbān, and Ibn Khirāsh all confirm Thiqah/ṣadūq. He is known for one specific, openly-admitted lapse — confusing ‘Āsim al-Aḥwal's material with Ash‘ath's until Bahz ibn Ḥakīm sorted it out — which Ibn Ma‘īn and Abū Zur‘ah both treated as a mark in his favor, since he disclosed it rather than hiding it. Aḥmad ibn Ḥanbal called him “not sharp” in that instance but still ranked him above Sharīk. Al-Bayhaqī is more critical, noting a reported decline in his memory late in life and preferring a rival narration over his in one case. Ibn Hajar's verdict reflects this balance: Thiqah, ṣaḥīḥ al-kitāb, with a possible late-life memory decline — though Abū Khaythamah explicitly denied he practiced tadlis, explaining his habit of not repeating “haddathanā” as simple efficiency.

²⁸⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34092 - 7/44. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt.

²⁸⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34093 - 7/44. Weak. Refer to footnote no.281.

²⁸⁷ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shāybah 34094 - 7/44. Ḥasan

²⁸⁸ He is also named as Ibn Abī Khālīd, but both of these names came out to be obscure.

²⁸⁹ Likewise, he is also obscure.

They are not Prophets, nor martyrs, (rather they are) a nation that love (one another) in the Majesty of Allāh when Allāh was disobeyed upon the Earth.”²⁹⁰

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشْرٍ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ بْنُ عُمَرَ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ أَبِي عُبَيْلَةَ الْعُقَيْلِيُّ، أَنَّ الْعَلَاءَ بْنَ زِيَادٍ، كَانَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْ نَبِيِّ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: عِبَادُ مَنْ عِبَادَ اللَّهِ لَيْسُوا بِأَنْبِيَاءَ وَلَا شُهَدَاءَ، يَغْبِطُهُمُ الْأَنْبِيَاءُ وَالشُّهَدَاءُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَقْرُبُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ عَلَى مَنَابِرَ مِنْ نُورٍ، يَقُولُ الْأَنْبِيَاءُ وَالشُّهَدَاءُ: مَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ، فَيَقُولُونَ: هَؤُلَاءِ كَانُوا يَتَحَابُّونَ فِي اللَّهِ عَلَى غَيْرِ أَمْوَالٍ تَغَاطَوْهَا وَلَا أَرْحَامٍ كَانَتْ بَيْنَهُمْ

Muḥammad ibn Bishr narrated to us, he said: ‘Abd al-‘Azīz ibn ‘Umar narrated to us, he said: Ibrāhīm ibn ‘Ablah al-‘Uqaylī narrated to me that al-‘Alā’ ibn Ziyād used to narrate from the Prophet of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “Worshippers from the worshippers of Allāh, they are not Prophets, nor martyrs, the Prophets and the martyrs wish they had what they had without envy on the Day of Resurrection by their closeness from Allāh, upon pulpits from light. The Prophets and the Martyrs say: ‘Who are these?’ So, they say: ‘These are those who used to love (each other) in (the path of) Allāh upon other than wealth they gave to it, nor kinship that was between them.’”²⁹¹

The Tafsīr of {الْكُوْثَرُ}

حَدَّثَنَا عَنِ ابْنِ مُسْهِرٍ عَنِ الْمُخْتَارِ عَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: الْكُوْثَرُ: نَهْرٌ وَعَدْنِيهِ رَبِّي فِي الْجَنَّةِ، عَلَيْهِ الْخَيْرُ كَثِيرٌ، هُوَ حَوْضٌ تَرْدُ عَلَيْهِ أُمَّتِي يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ، أَنْبِئُهُ عَدَدُ النُّجُومِ

We were narrated²⁹² to from Ibn Mushir, from al-Mukhtār, from ‘Anas, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “al-Kawthar (is): A river, my Lord promised me it in al-Jannah, upon it is abundant goodness. It is a basin, my nation arrives at it (on) the Day of Resurrection, its vessels are the number of the stars.”²⁹³

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ فَضِيلٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ، عَنْ مُحَارِبِ بْنِ دِثَارٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: {الْكُوْثَرُ} [الكوثر: ١] نَهْرٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ، حَافَّتَاهُ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ، وَمَجْرَاهُ عَلَى الْيَافُوتِ وَالذَّرِّ، تُرْبَتُهُ أَطْيَبُ مِنَ الْمِسْكِ وَمَاؤُهُ أَلْحَى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ وَأَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِنَ التَّلْجِ

Muḥammad ibn al-Fuḍayl narrated to us, from ‘Aṭā’ ibn as-Sā’ib, from Muḥārib ibn Dithār, from Ibn ‘Umar, he said: The Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “[al-Kawthar:1], [the Kawthar] is a river in the Paradise, its banks are of gold, and its stream is on the Yafut and the Zarri, its soil is sweeter than musk and its water is purer than honey and whiter than snow

²⁹⁰ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34095 - 7/45. Weak.

²⁹¹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34096 - 7/45. It is mursal and therefore weak.

²⁹² This would render the narration weak as a narrator would be unnamed, but since another print mentions ḥaddaṭhanā, as normal, this is negligible.

²⁹³ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34097 - 7/45. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Ṭhiqāt. It was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim’ no.400, and in ‘Musnad al-Imām Aḥmad’ no.11996.

a river in al-Jannah, its two banks are from gold, and its channel is upon the ruby and the pearl, its soil is more fragrant than Musk, and its water is sweeter from honey and more intense (in) whiteness from snow.”²⁹⁴

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْأَحْوَصِ، عَنْ أَبِي إِسْحَاقَ، عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ، قَالَتْ: {الْكُوْثَرُ} [الكوثر: ١]: نَهْرٌ بِفَنَاءِ الْجَنَّةِ شَاطِئَاهُ دُرٌّ مُجَوَّفٌ، وَفِيهِ مِنَ الْأَبَارِيقِ وَالْأَيْنِيَةِ عَدَدَ النُّجُومِ

Abū al-ʿAḥwaṣ narrated to us, from Abī Ishāq, from Abī ʿUbaydah, from ʿĀʾishah, she said: “{الْكُوْثَرُ} al-Kawthar:1: A river at the courtyard of al-Jannah, its shore is a hollow pearl, and in it is from jugs and the utensils are the number of the stars.”²⁹⁵

Those Who The Love of Allāh Has Been Made Rightful Upon

حَدَّثَنَا وَكِيعٌ، عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ بُرْقَانَ، عَنْ حَبِيبِ بْنِ أَبِي مَرْزُوقٍ، عَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ أَبِي رَبَاحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي مُسْلِمٍ الْخَوْلَانِيِّ، عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ، وَعُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ، قَالَا: سَمِعْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْكِي عَنْ رَبِّهِ يَقُولُ: حَقَّتْ مَحَبَّتِي عَلَى الْمُتَحَابِّينَ فِي ، وَحَقَّتْ مَحَبَّتِي عَلَى الْمُتَبَاذِلِينَ فِي ، وَحَقَّتْ مَحَبَّتِي عَلَى الْمُتَزَاوِرِينَ فِي ، وَالْمُتَحَابُّونَ فِي اللَّهِ عَلَى مَنْابِرٍ مِنْ نُورٍ فِي ظِلِّ الْعَرْشِ يَوْمَ لَا ظِلَّ إِلَّا ظِلُّهُ

Wakī narrated to us, from Jaʿfar ibn Burqān, from Ḥabīb ibn Abī Marzūq, from ʿAṭāʾ ibn Abī Rabāḥ, from Abī Muslim al-Khawlānī, from Muʿādh ibn Jabal, and ʿUbadah ibn aṣ-Ṣāmit, they both said: We heard the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ report from his Lord, saying: “My Love has been made rightful upon the ones who love one another in Me, and My Love has been made rightful upon those who give willingly in Me, and My Love has been made rightful upon those who visit one another in Me, and the ones who love another in Allāh are upon pulpits from light in the shade of the Throne the Day there is no shade except His shade.”²⁹⁶

²⁹⁴ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34098 - 7/45. It is weak because Muḥammad ibn al-Fuḍayl only heard from ʿAṭāʾ ibn as-Sāʾib after he suffered from ikhtilāṭ. It was recorded in ‘Musnad al-Imām Aḥmad’ no.5355 & 5913, ‘Sunan Ibn Mājah’ no.4334, ‘Sunan al-Tirmidhī’ no.3361, ‘Sharḥ al-Sunnah’ of al-Baḡhawī no.4341, ‘Sunan al-Dārimī’ no.2879, ‘az-Zuhd’ of Hannād ibn as-Sarī no.131 & 132, ‘Ṣifat al-Jannah’ by Abū Nuʿaym al-Aṣfahānī no.301 & 326, ‘Tafsīr al-Ṭabarī’ 24/688, the ‘Al-Zuhd wa-al-Raqāʾiq’ of ʿAbd Allāh ibn al-Mubārak no.1614, ‘Tafsīr Ibn Abī Ḥātim’ no.19507, ‘Tafsīr Mujāhid’ pg.756, and in ‘ash-Sharīʿah’ of al-ʿĀjurri no.1085.

²⁹⁵ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34099 - 7/45. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt, and the chain is connected. It was recorded in ‘Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī’ no.4965, and ‘Musnad al-Imām Aḥmad’ no.26403.

²⁹⁶ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Ṣhaybah 34100 - 7/45. Ṣaḥīḥ, and its narrators are Thiqāt. On the top of the pillar is 70,000 chambers, lookers over the people of al-Jannah. And when one of them looks down, his beauty fills the houses of the people of al-Jannah just as the Sun fills the houses of the people of the Dunyā with its illumination.” He said: “So the people of al-Jannah say: ‘Come out with us to the lovers of one another in Allāh.’” He said: “So they come out, so they look at their faces (and they are) the like of the Moon (on) the night of the full moon, upon them green garments, written upon their faces: ‘These are the lovers of one another in Allāh’.”²⁹⁷

And the servant that worships other than You, and acts by Your disobedience, so You expose for him the Dunyā and the affliction (of the Dunyā) hides from him.”“ He said: “So Allāh revealed to him that the servants and the affliction are for Me, each one glorifies with My praise. So, as for My believer servant, so he has for him sins, so indeed I expose to him the afflictions, and I hide from him the Dunyā, an expiation for his sins, and I reward him when he meets Me. And as for my servant the Kāfir, so he has for him the good deeds, so I hide from him the afflictions, and I expose to him the Dunyā, so it is a recompense for his good deeds, and I recompense him for his sins when he meets Me.”³⁰⁶

The Palm Trees of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا حُسَيْنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ، عَنْ زَائِدَةَ، عَنْ هِشَامٍ، عَنِ الْحَسَنِ، قَالَ: نَخْلُ الْجَنَّةِ جُذُوعُهَا ذَهَبٌ وَكُرْمُهَا زُمُرُودٌ وَيَافُوتٌ وَسَعْفُهَا خُلٌّ، يَخْرُجُ الرُّطْبُ أَمْثَالَ الْقِلَالِ أَخْلَى مِنَ الْعَسَلِ وَأَبْيَضَ مِنَ اللَّبَنِ

Ḥusayn ibn ʿAlī narrated to us, from Zāʾidah, from Hishām³¹⁰, from al-Ḥasan, he said: “The palm trees of al-Jannah, its trunk is gold, and its vines are emerald and ruby, and its leaves robes, the fresh dates emerge the likes of the large water-jugs, sweeter from the honey and whiter from the milk.”³¹¹

³⁰⁹ Muṣannaf Ibn Abī Shaybah 34111 - 7/47. The narration is weak due to the obscurity of Yazīd.

³¹⁰ He is Hishām ibn Ḥassān al-ʿAtakī al-Azdī al-Qardūsī al-Baṣrī, Abū ʿAbd Allāh (d. 146–148 AH) His ḥāl: He was an established, authoritative proof (ḥujjah) and a rugged ascetic (min al-ʿubbād al-khushn) famous for extensive night-weeping and emotional sensitivity upon mentioning the Prophet, Paradise, and Hellfire. Ibn Sīrīn famously declared, "Hishām is of us, the household." Early authorities universally regard him as the absolute most precise memorizer regarding Muḥammad ibn Sīrīn, with Aḥmad and Ibn ʿAdī confirming his overall corpus as upright, reliable, and free of munkar, though Shuʿbah expressed reservations about his general memory capacity. The primary technical caveats against him are strictly limited to his transmissions from al-Ḥasan al-Baṣrī and ʿAṭāʾ; critics like Yaḥyā al-Qaṭṭān, ʿAlī ibn al-Madīnī, and Abū Dāwūd flagged irsāl and discontinuity because Hishām was very young and contemporaries like Jarīr ibn Ḥāzim noted they never saw him attend al-Ḥasan's sessions, leading critics to conclude he relied on irsāl or the written notes of Ḥawshub—prompting figures like Ibn ʿUlayyah to reject his al-Ḥasan material entirely while his mastery over Ibn Sīrīn remains exceptionally secure.

Shābābah ibn Sawwār narrated to us, he said: Shu‘bah narrated to us, from Muḥammad ibn Ziyād, he said: I heard Abā Hurayrah narrate from the Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, he said: “Allāh marvels from a people, they are brought with them in iron chains until He enters them (into) al-Jannah.”³¹²

The Joy of al-Jannah

حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ، قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ مُغِيرَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ حُمَيْدُ بْنُ هِلَالٍ: ذَكَرَ لَنَا أَنَّ الرَّجُلَ إِذَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ صُورَ صُورَةَ أَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ، وَأُلْبِسَ لِبَاسَهُمْ، وَخُلِيَ خَلِيَّتُهُمْ، وَرَأَى أَرْوَاجَهُ وَخَدَمَهُ وَمَسَاكِنَهُ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَأَخَذَهُ سِوَارُ فَرَحٍ، لَوْ كَانَ يَنْبَغِي لَهُ أَنْ يَمُوتَ لَمَاتَ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ: أَرَأَيْتَ سِوَارَ فَرَحِكَ هَذِهِ فَإِنَّهَا قَائِمَةٌ لَكَ أَبَدًا

‘Affān narrated to us, he said: Sulaymān ibn Muḡhīrah narrated to us, he said: Ḥumayd ibn Hilāl said: “It was mentioned to us that a man, when he entered al-Jannah, he was formed into the form of the people of al-Jannah, and he was clothed (with) their clothing, and he was robed (with) their robes, and he saw his wives and his servants and his dwellings in al-Jannah, so a surge of joy seizes him, (and) if it was befitting for him to die he would have died.” He said: “So he says: ‘Did you see the surge of your joy, this, for indeed (it is) subsistent for you forever.’”³¹³

حَدَّثَنَا عَفَّانُ، قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، قَالَ أَخْبَرَنَا ثَابِتٌ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ: إِنَّ لِأَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ سَوْقًا يَأْتُونَهَا كُلُّ جُمُعَةٍ فِيهَا كُتُبَانُ الْمِسْكِ، فَإِذَا خَرَجُوا إِلَيْهَا هَبَّتْ رِيحٌ - قَالَ حَمَّادٌ: أَحْسَبُهُ قَالَ: شَمَالٌ - فَتَمْلَأُ وُجُوهُهُمْ وَيُبَيِّتُهُمْ مِسْكًَا فَيَرْدَاوُونَ حُسْنًا وَجَمَالًا

‘Affān narrated to us, he said: Ḥammād ibn Salamah narrated to us, he said: Thābit informed us, from ‘Anas, that the Messenger of Allāh صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: “Indeed for the people of al-Jannah (is) a market they come to it every Friday, in it is the dune of musk, so when they go out to it a wind blows.” Ḥammād said: I believe that he said: “- a north wind, so it

Husayn ibn ‘Alī narrated to us, from Zā’idah, from Maysarah al-‘Ashja‘ī, from ‘Ikrimah, from Ibn ‘Abbās, he said: I asked Ka‘b: What is Sidrah al-Muntahā? So, he said: “A lote tree, the knowledge of the Angels ends to there, and with it they find the command of Allāh, knowledge does not pass it.” And I asked him about al-Jannah al-Ma’wā, so he said: “A garden, in it is a green bird, in it the souls of the martyrs ascend.”³¹⁵
